Work edited by Ian Shaw and Nick Gould provides a state of the art exposition and analysis of qualitative inquiry in relation to social work. In the introductory chapters, the co-authors set qualitative research within a context of social work developments and problems. The central section provides additional topicality and directness through specially commissioned chapters from leading figures in this field, each covering key qualitative methods and relating them to social work settings, and the final section, which reviews qualitative research in social work and aims to exemplify ways in which social work thought and practice can be advanced through research. Cardiff Papers in
