physical not ideological space and ultimately give voice to this intellectual passion by calling into question our controversial religious institutions commitments worldviews freedoms and experiences For This Land offers a distinctive approach to comprehending human existence from one of the leading critics of mainstream American thought

The Theology of The United Church of Canada Don Schweitzer, Robert C. Fennell, Michael Bourgeois, 2019-02-14 The United Church of Canada has a rich and complex history of theological development This volume written for the general reader as well as students and scholars provides a comprehensive overview of that development together with an analysis of this unique denomination s core statements of faith and its contemporary theological landscape When the Methodist Congregational and Local Union Churches in Canada as well as most of the Presbyterians came together as The United Church of Canada the theological commonalities between them were significant Over the succeeding decades this made in Canada denomination has continued to define its convictions through consensus building and large scale studies This volume written by leading scholars outlines key faith perspectives in areas such as creation the Trinity Jesus Christ the Holy Spirit the Bible sin mission and sacraments No book like this has appeared in over seventy years and readers will find insight here that is unparalleled in its scope In creative tension with each individual member s freedom of conscience the United Church as a whole has continued to express its commonly held faith in dialogue continuity and critical interaction with the faith of the worldwide historic Christian community

Humor in Contemporary Native North American Literature Eva Gruber, 2008 Encompassing view of humor in recent Native North American literature with particular focus on Native self image and identity In contrast to the popular clich of the stoic Indian humor has always been important in Native North American cultures Recent Native literature testifies to the centrality of this tradition Yet literary criticism has so far largely neglected these humorous aspects instead frequently choosing to concentrate on representations of trauma and cultural disruption at the risk of reducing Native characters and Native cultures to the position of the tragic victim This first comprehensive study explores the use of humor in today s Native writing focusing on a wide variety of texts spanning all genres It combines concepts from cultural studies and humor studies with approaches by Native thinkers and critics analyzing the possible effects of humorous forms of representation on the self image and identity formation of Native individuals and Native cultures Humor emerges as an indispensable tool for engaging with existing stereotypes Native writers subvert degrading clich s of the Indian from within reimagining Nateness in a celebration of laughing survivors decolonizing the minds of both Native and non native readers and contributing to a renewal of Native cultural identity This book will be of interest to scholars and students of Native Studies both literary and cultural Due to its encompassing approach it will also provide a point of entry for the wider readership interested in contemporary Native writing Eva Gruber is Assistant Professor in the American Studies section of the Department of Literature at the University of Konstanz Germany

Sharing Our Stories of Survival Sarah Deer, Bonnie Clairmont, Carrie A. Martell, 2008 A general introduction to the social and legal issues involved in acts of violence against

Native women this book's contributors are lawyers social workers social scientists writers poets and victims In the U S Native women are more likely than women from any other group to suffer violence from rape and battery to more subtle forms of abuse and Sharing Our Stories of Survival explores the causes and consequences of such behavior The stories and case studies presented here are often painful and raw and the statistics are overwhelmingly grim but a countervailing theme also runs through this extremely informative volume Many of the women who appear in these pages are survivors often strengthened by their travails and the violence examined here is human violence meaning that it can be changed if only with much effort and education The first step is to lay out the truth for all to see and that is the purpose accomplished by this book

Wielding Words like Weapons Ward Churchill, 2017-04-15 Wielding Words like Weapons is a collection of acclaimed American Indian Movement activist intellectual Ward Churchill's essays in indigenism selected from material written during the decade 1995-2005 It includes a range of formats from sharply framed book reviews and equally pointed polemics and op eds to more formal essays designed to reach both scholarly and popular audiences The selection also represents the broad range of topics addressed in Churchill's scholarship including the fallacies of archeological and anthropological orthodoxy such as the insistence of cannibalologists that American Indians were traditionally man-eaters Hollywood's cinematic degradations of native people questions of American Indian identity the historical and ongoing genocide of North America's native peoples and the systematic distortion of the political and legal history of U S Indian relations Less typical of Churchill's oeuvre are the essays commemorating Cherokee anthropologist Robert K Thomas and Yankton Sioux legal scholar and theologian Vine Deloria Jr More unusual still is his profoundly personal effort to come to grips with the life and death of his late wife Leah Renae Kelly thereby illuminating in very human terms the grim and lasting effects of Canada's residential schools upon the country's indigenous peoples A foreword by Seneca historian Barbara Alice Mann describes the sustained efforts by police and intelligence agencies as well as university administrators and other academic adversaries to discredit or otherwise neutralize both the man and his work Also included are both the initial stream of consciousness version of Churchill's famous or notorious little Eichmann's opinion piece analyzing the causes of the attacks on 9/11 as well as the counterpart essay in which his argument was fully developed

American Indian Stereotypes in the World of Children
Arlene Hirschfelder, Paulette F. Molin, Yvonne Wakim, Michael A. Dorris, 1999-07-01 The world of contemporary American infants and young children is saturated with inappropriate images of American Indians American Indian Stereotypes in the World of Children reveals and discusses these images and cultural stereotypes through writings like Kathy Kerner's previously unpublished essay on Thanksgiving and an essay by Dr Cornell Pewewardy on Disney's Pocahontas film This edition incorporates new writings and recent developments such as a chronology documenting changes associated with the mascot issue along with information on state legislation Other new material incorporates powerful commentary by Native American veterans who speak to the issue of stereotyping against their people in the military Also includes a new expanded annotated bibliography Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1980-1994 Rebecca Stuhr,1997 This bibliography provides extensive descriptive annotations of nearly 500 autobiographies published by Americans of color during the years 1980 and 1994 The authors of these narratives range from established writers such as Nikki Giovanni Maxine Hong Kingston and Richard Rodriguez to unknown writers compelled to relate their part in the civil rights movement recall their family history as sharecroppers recount experiences in the Japanese internment camps or in Indian boarding schools or describe their struggle to succeed and contribute despite immense hardship and difficulty Among these autobiographies the reader will also find those of sports celebrities actors explorers and entrepreneurs This bibliography brings together at one access point an important body of work making it possible for the reader or researcher to identify and locate these books either through booksellers or through libraries This volume constitutes volume one of a two book series volume two is titled Autobiographies by Americans of Color 1995-2000 Study Guide for Stories of Survival, Conversations with Native North Americans Edited by Remmelt and Kathleen Hummelen Linda Lou Curwood,Lois H. Holmes,1985 Voices of the American Indian Experience James E. Seelye Jr.,Steven Alden Littleton,2012-11-30 In a single source this comprehensive two volume work provides the entire history of American Indians as told by Indians themselves Voices of the American Indian Experience provides unique insights into American Indian history by focusing on Indian accounts instead of on relying on other sources As a result their voices are clearer and readers learn more about Indians directly from Indians rather than through accounts that are filtered diluted and possibly even misinterpreted by an outsider s perspective The volumes comprise a vast and fascinating variety of sources that span creation stories from Native American prehistory to Indians who met the earliest Europeans to visit the Americas all the way through to American Indians who served in recent foreign conflicts in the U S Armed Forces This work provides information that is essential to fully understanding the history of the United States and will be a valuable resource for advanced high school students and college students as well as general audiences with an interest in history or Native American culture Together We Survive John S. Long,Jennifer S.H. Brown,2016-01-01 Essays exemplifying collaborative research respectful advocacy and a deep appreciation of continuity within changing Aboriginal identity and expression Religion and Culture in Native America Suzanne Crawford O'Brien,2020-03-10 Religion and Culture in Native America presents an introduction to a diverse array of Indigenous religious and cultural practices in North America focusing on those issues in which tribal communities themselves are currently invested These topics include climate change water rights the protection of sacred places the reclaiming of Indigenous foods health and wellness social justice and the safety of Indigenous women and girls Locating such contemporary challenges within their historical religious and cultural contexts illuminates how Native communities responses to such issues are not simply political but deeply spiritual informed by sacred traditions ethical principles and profound truths In collaboration with renowned ethnographer and scholar of Native American religious traditions In s

Talamantez Suzanne Crawford O'Brien abandons classical categories typically found in religious studies textbooks and challenges essentialist notions of Native American cultures to explore the complexities of Native North American life. Key features of this text include consideration of Indigenous religious traditions within their historical political and cultural contexts. Thematic organization emphasizing the concerns and commitments of contemporary tribal communities. Maps and images that help to locate tribal communities and illustrate key themes. Recommendations for further reading and research. Written in an engaging narrative style, this book makes an ideal text for undergraduate courses in Native American Religions, Religion and Ecology, Indigenous Religions, and World Religions. Reference Encyclopedia of the American Indian Barry T. Klein, 2005 Keepers of Life Michael J. Caduto, Joseph Bruchac, 1998 This interdisciplinary curriculum in botany and plant ecology focuses on environmental and stewardship issues using the framework of Native American stories as an introduction to the topics A Story as Sharp as a Knife Robert Bringhurst, 2011-03-15 The Haida world is a misty archipelago a hundred stormy miles off the coasts of British Columbia and Alaska. For a thousand years and more before the Europeans came, a great culture flourished in these islands. The masterworks of classical Haida sculpture, now enshrined in many of the world's great museums, range from exquisite tiny amulets to magnificent huge housepoles. Classical Haida literature is every bit as various and fine. It extends from tiny jewels crafted by master songmakers to elaborate mythic cycles lasting many hours. The linguist and ethnographer John Swanton took dictation from the last great Haida speaking storytellers, poets, and historians from the fall of 1900 through the summer of 1901. His Haida hosts and colleagues had been raised in a wholly oral world where the mythic and the personal interpenetrate completely. They joined forces with their visitor, consciously creating a great treasury of Haida oral literature in written form. Poet and linguist Robert Bringhurst has worked for many years with these century-old manuscripts which have waited until now for the broad recognition they deserve Queering Urban Justice Jinhana Haritaworn, Ghaida Moussa, Syrus Marcus Ware, Gabriela (Rio) Rodriguez, 2018-08-08 Queering Urban Justice foregrounds visions of urban justice that are critical of racial and colonial capitalism and asks: What would it mean to map space in ways that address very real histories of displacement and erasure? What would it mean to regard Queer Trans Black Indigenous and People of Colour QTBIPOC as geographic subjects who model different ways of inhabiting and sharing space? The volume describes city spaces as sites where bodies are exhaustively documented while others barely register as subjects. The editors and contributors interrogate the forces that have allowed QTBIPOC to be imagined as absent from the very spaces they have long invested in. From the violent displacement of poor disabled racialized and sexualized bodies from Toronto's gay village to the erasure of queer racialized bodies in the academy, Queering Urban Justice offers new directions to all who are interested in acting on the intersections of social, racial, economic, urban, migrant, and disability justice The Networked Wilderness Matt Cohen, 2010 Now that academic consensus has turned away from the dichotomy between the literate culture of the Puritans and the oral culture of Native Americans, Cohen (English U of Texas, Austin) looks at the methodological disciplinary legal political and aesthetic implications for studying communication during the early period of English colonies in North America He looks at native audience good noise from New England forests of gestures and multimedia combat and the Pequot War Indigenous Media Arts in Canada Dana Claxton,Ezra Winton,2023-04-11 Indigenous and settler scholars and media artists discuss and analyze crucial questions of narrative sovereignty cultural identity cultural resistance and decolonizing creative practices Humans are narrative creatures and since the dawn of our existence we have shared stories Storytelling is what connects us what helps us give shape and understanding to the world and to each other Who tells whose stories in which particular ways leads to questions of belonging power relationality community and identity This collection explores those issues with a focus on settler Indigenous cultural politics in the country known as Canada looking in particular at Indigenous representation in media arts Chapters feature roundtable discussions interviews film analyses resurgent media explorations visual culture advocacy and place based practices of creative expression Eclectic in scope and diverse in perspective Indigenous Media Arts in Canada is unified by an ethic of conciliation collaboration and cultural resistance Engaging deftly and thoughtfully with instances of cultural appropriation as well as the oppressive structures that seek to erode narrative sovereignty this collection shines as a crucial gathering of thoughtful critique cultural kinship and creative counterpower
