Stories From The Four Corners:

The Four Corners of the House Abraham Rothberg, 1981 Embroidered Histories Barbara Karl, 2016-03-08 Early modern India was an economic core region producing manifold textiles for export During the sixteenth century a new customer entered the stage and expanded its influence from the city of Goa Portugal From early times the Portuguese had bought and commissioned textiles among them large embroideries from Bengal and Gujarat which are the focus of this study By providing European prints as models for the professional local embroiderers they created a novel product that was successful in Portugal and beyond throughout the seventeenth century The textiles were deemed valuable and rare enough to be included in different travel accounts letters and inventories enabling us to trace their place of production their transportation to Europe and their reception Their intricate iconographies reflect political problematics of the time and shed light onto the intercultural circumstances of Portuguese colonial life Barbara Karl is Curator of Textiles and Carpets at the MAK Museum f r Angewandte Kunst Gegenwartskunst in Vienna Four Corners (1921) Clifford Samuel Raymond, 2008-06-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks notations marginalia and flawed pages Because we believe this work is culturally important we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting preserving and promoting the world s literature in affordable high quality modern editions that are true to the original work The Arizona Story , The House of Cariboo, and Other Tales from Arcadia A. Paul Gardiner, 2023-10-29 In The House of Cariboo and Other Tales from Arcadia A Paul Gardiner weaves a rich tapestry of narratives that explore the intersection of myth history and the human experience Set against the backdrop of Arcadia these tales illuminate the complexities of life in a land steeped in folklore and natural beauty Gardiner s lyrical prose and evocative imagery invite readers into a world where the boundaries between reality and imagination blur reflecting the literary traditions of magical realism and regional storytelling The collection not only showcases the lush landscapes of Arcadia but also highlights the intricate relationships among its inhabitants drawing readers into deep emotional connections with its characters and themes A Paul Gardiner a notable figure in contemporary literature has long been captivated by the stories of his ancestors and the natural world His upbringing in the diverse landscapes of Canada has greatly influenced his writing imbuing his stories with a sense of place that resonates deeply with readers Gardiner s academic background in anthropology and literature allows him to explore cultural narratives in a profound way offering insights into the lives and struggles of the characters that inhabit his stories revealing universal truths through their unique lenses For readers seeking a profound literary experience that melds the enchantment of fairy tales with the gritty realities of life The House of Cariboo and Other Tales from Arcadia is an essential addition to their collection Gardiner s masterful storytelling will captivate those who revel in exploring the nuances of human emotions and relationships through beautifully crafted narratives This collection speaks not only to the heart but also to the intellect making it a rewarding read for any literature enthusiast Transnational Television Remakes Claire Perkins, Constantine Verevis, 2018-02-02 Providing a cross cultural investigation of the current phenomenon of transnational television remakes and assembling an international team of scholars this book draws upon ideas from transnational media and cultural studies to offer an understanding of global cultural borrowings and format translation While recognising the commercial logic of global television formats that animates these remakes the collection describes the traffic in transnational television remakes not as a one way process of cultural homogenisation but rather as an interstitial process through which cultures borrow from and interact with one another More specifically the chapters attend to recent debates around the transnational flows of local and global media cultures to focus on questions in the televisual realm where issues of serialisation and distribution are prevalent What happens when a series is remade from one national television system to another How is cultural translation handled across series and seasons of differing length and scope What are the narrative and dramaturgical proximities and differences between local and other versions How does the ready availability of original foreign series shape an audience's reception of a local remake How does the rhetoric of Quality TV impact on how these remakes are understood and valued In answering these and other questions this volume at once acknowledges both the historical antecedents to transnational trade in broadcast culture and the global explosion in and cultural significance of transnational television remakes since the beginning of the twenty first century This book was originally published as a special issue of Continuum

The Best in Children's Books University of Chicago. Center for Children's Books, 1986-08 Designed to aid adults parents teachers librarians in selecting from the best of recent children's literature this guide provides 1 400 reviews of books published between 1979 and 1984 This volume carries on the tradition established by Zena Sutherland's two earlier collections covering the periods from 1966 to 1972 and 1973 to 1978 Her 1973 edition of The Best in Children's Books was cited by the American School Board Journal as one of the outstanding books of the year in education

The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television Albert Moran, Chris Keating, 2009-08-04 Australians have become increasingly visible outside of the country as speakers and actors in radio and television their media moguls have frequently bought up foreign companies and people around the world have been able to enjoy such Australian productions as The Flying Doctors Neighbours and Kath and Kim The origins early development and later adaptations of radio and television show how Australia has gone from being a minor and rather parochial player to being a significant part of the international scene The A to Z of Australian Radio and Television provides essential facts and information concerning the Australian radio and television industry This is accomplished through the use of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors producers writers actors television and radio series and television and radio stations
