The Origins and Development of African Theology Gwinyai H. Muzorewa, 2000-04-05 The Origins and Development of African theology is a very informative survey of African theology over approximately the last twenty years The author is widely read on the subject as far as English publications go and highlights the salient issues with balanced objectivity The literature both as discussed in the substance of the book and in the bibliography is also a valuable source for further study of African theology John Mbiti author of Prayers of African Religion

The Origins and Development of African Theology Gwinyai H. Muzorewa, 1992 James H. Cone and Black Liberation Theology Burrow, 2001-01-01 Since Cone's Black Theology and Black Power was first published in 1969 he has been recognized as one of the most creative contemporary black theologians Roundly criticized by white theologians the book and Cone's subsequent writings nevertheless gave voice and viability to the developing black theological movement of the late 1960s Despite his influence on the African American religious community scholars have written very little about his works in part because of the sharp rhetoric and polemics of his first two books Discussed here are some of his major writings from his first essay Christianity and Black Power 1968 through the major work Martin Malcolm America 1991 The systematic development of his themes social and economic analysis black sexism relations between black feminist and so called third world theologies etc is fully explained The Routledge Handbook of African Theology Elias Kifon Bongmba, 2020-05-25 Theology has a rich tradition across the African continent and has taken myriad directions since Christianity first arrived on its shores This handbook charts both historical developments and contemporary issues in the formation and application of theologies across the member countries of the African Union Written by a panel of expert international contributors chapters firstly cover the various methodologies needed to carry out such a survey Various theological movements and themes are then discussed as well as biblical and doctrinal issues pertinent to African theology Subjects addressed include Orality and theology Indigenous religions and theology Patristics Pentecostalism Liberation theology Black theology Social justice Sexuality and theology Environmental theology Christology Eschatology The Hebrew Bible and the New Testament The Routledge Handbook of African Theology is an authoritative and comprehensive survey of the theological landscape of Africa As such it will be a hugely useful volume to any scholar interested in African religious dynamics as well as academics of Theology or Biblical Studies in an African context

African Origins of Monotheism Gwinyai H. Muzorewa, 2014-10-29 African Origins of Monotheism recasts an African knowledge of God in a new and original way It aims to recapture concepts of God as originally reflected upon by pristine African religious thinkers Muzorewa is seeking after the traditional African understandings of the Divine which trace their origins back before the rise of Judaism Christianity and Islam Monotheism he maintains is the ancient view of God ubiquitous across the continent of Africa indeed monotheism comes out of Africa The book challenges the way that the idea of God has been manipulated by Eurocentric agendas by colonizers enslavers and empire builders all of whom were using God talk to achieve their own personal ends In African thinking the God concept is guided by a sense of the presence of the all pervasive and omnipresent God which has instilled in the people a sense of respect for life at all costs Thus respect is not based on a commandment or on fear but on a propensity for affinity African Perspectives on Culture and World Christianity Joseph Ogbonnaya, 2017-05-11 Unlike the global North the ferment of Christianity in the global South among the majority of world people has been astronomical Despite the shift in the center of gravity of Christianity to the global South intra ecclesial tensions globally remain those of the relationship of culture to religion The questions posed revolve around to what extent Western Christianity should be adapted to local cultures Should we talk of Christianity in non Western contexts or of majority world Christianity Is it appropriate to describe the shift as the emergence of global Christianity or world Christianity Should Christianity in the global South mimic Christianity in the global North or can it be different in the light of the diversity of these cultures Can Africans Asians Latin Americans Europeans and North Americans the entire global community speak of God in the same way This book is devoted to examining varieties of the intercultural process in world Christianity It understands culture broadly as a common meaning upon which communities social order is organized Culture in this sense is the whole life of people It is the integrator of the filial bond holding people together and the various institutional structures economic technological political and legal that guarantee peace and survival in societies states and nations both locally and internationally As this book shows the centrality of culture for world Christianity equally showcases the important position the scale of values occupies in world Christianity A New History of African Christian Thought David

Ngong, 2016-11-10 David Tonghou Ngong offers a comprehensive view of African Christian thought that includes North Africa in antiquity as well as Sub Saharan Africa from the period of colonial missionary activity to the present Challenging conventional colonial divisions of Africa A New History of African Christian Thought demonstrates that important continuities exist across the continent Chapters written by specialists in African Christian thought reflect the issues both ancient and modern in which Christian Africa has impacted the shape of Christian belief from the beginning of the movement up to the present day African Theology Emmanuel Martey, 2009-11-01 Two major strands of theology have developed in Africa inculturation and liberation each in response to different needs Emmanuel Martey's African Theology provides a clear scholarly examination of these two basic approaches solidly based on Martey's understanding of contemporary theology and his firsthand knowledge of Africa Martey first examines the historical background of each of these theological developments especially relating to cultural and political movements enveloping the continent in the 1970s In sub Saharan Africa struggles for independence from colonizers have resulted in inculturation theology The defining aspect of this theology is that it pushes its roots firmly in African culture and traditions In South Africa on the other hand Black Africans struggling against the oppressive systems of apartheid have turned to liberation theology Martey shows how the real hope for African theology lies in the dialectical encounter between these two approaches and in their potential for convergence The two foci of liberation and inculturation Martey says are not contradictory but complement each other African Theology concludes by challenging African theologians to weld together the praxis of inculturation with that of liberation in order to achieve an integrative vision for the continent Handbook of African Catholicism Ilo, Stan Chu,2022-07-13 A disciplinary map for understanding African Catholicism today by engaging some of the most pressing and pertinent issues topics and conversations in diverse fields of studies in African Catholicism African Origins of Monotheism Gwinyai H. Muzorewa,2014-10-29 African Origins of Monotheism recasts an African knowledge of God in a new and original way It aims to recapture concepts of God as originally reflected upon by pristine African religious thinkers Muzorewa is seeking after the traditional African understandings of the Divine which trace their origins back before the rise of Judaism Christianity and Islam Monotheism he maintains is the ancient view of God ubiquitous across the continent of Africa indeed monotheism comes out of Africa The book challenges the way that the idea of God has been manipulated by Eurocentric agendas by colonizers enslavers and empire builders all of whom were using God talk to achieve their own personal ends In African thinking the God concept is guided by a sense of the presence of the all pervasive and omnipresent God which has instilled in the people a sense of respect for life at all costs Thus respect is not based on a commandment or on fear but on a propensity for affinity
