

The Orator

Pasquale De Marco

The Orator:

Patrick Henry, The Orator David McCants, 1990-11-20 Best known for his Liberty or Death address the oratorical essence of the American Revolution Patrick Henry Virginia patriot statesman and foremost orator of the Revolutionary period is scrutinized in this eighth volume in the Greenwood Press Great American Orators series Taken as a whole the volumes chronicle the role of public discourse in the United States and fill the void that has existed in American public address In Patrick Henry The Orator David A McCants develops fresh perspectives on an illustrious orator who excelled in two of the classical genres of rhetoric the forensic and the deliberative McCants gives a creative and compelling interpretation of the rhetorical efficacy of Henry's Liberty or Death speech making a strong prima facie case for his evangelical explication Rhetorical topics such as delivery modes of proof style organization effect and more are examined within the context of the historical exigencies that motivated Henry and shaped his responses The culture and politics of eighteenth century Virginia as well as biographical factors that shaped Henry's development are explored in depth Also included are six important speech texts with critical materials that provide students and scholars of the history and criticism of American public address a more comprehensive basis for understanding Henry's rhetorical reputation Patrick Henry's development as a popular orator is traced in Part I which presents critical analyses of the orator and his speeches during his Protest and National periods and in legal venues In these chapters McCants focuses on the rhetorical considerations of speaker and speech purpose and effect Part II contains texts of the important addresses discussed in the preceding critical analyses These collected speeches and speech reports include The Parsons Cause Case the conclusion of the Caesar Brutus speech in the Stamp Act Debate of May 1765 the Liberty or Death speech two speeches from the Ratifying Convention Debate and Patrick Henry's defense in the British Debts Case A chronology of major speeches lists all of Henry's known addresses as well as the places and dates of the speeches and attests to the scope of rhetoric in the United States The bibliography contains carefully described historical collections and gathers together primary and secondary sources that bear on the speaker and the oratory An index closes the volume Students and scholars of rhetoric public oratory and American history will find this notable study an invaluable research tool

Achebe the Orator Chinwe Okechukwu, 2001-03-30 Taken together Chinua Achebe's five novels Things Fall Apart 1958 No Longer at Ease 1960 A Man of the People 1966 Arrow of God 1967 and Anthills of the Savannah 1988 encompass the entire social historical and political experiences of Nigeria from precolonial times to the close of the 20th century Central to these experiences is the clash of Igbo culture with the ways of the West The novels show a society that has been fragmented and a people who are striving to reconstruct a world that they lost during their encounter with colonialism Achebe has stated that his main purpose for writing is to reveal the truth about his people and their culture This book examines his use of rhetoric to accomplish that objective Achebe's writings are fraught with rhetorical devices and he has harnessed the power of oratory to show how his society has responded to the African colonial encounter and its aftermath He uses oratory and rhetoric to both educate and persuade his readers and to delineate his characters Because of the central role of language in his novels his writings illustrate the nature of discourse among the Igbo as well as the larger Nigerian community This volume presents a broad overview of rhetoric throughout Achebe's works and demonstrates how he uses the novel genre for persuasive purposes The Orator's Text Book Donald Macleod (teacher of elocution.),1830
