Sm'algyax John Asher Dunn,1995 A dictionary and a grammar of the Sm'algyax language of the Coast Tsimshian people first published in 1978 and 1979 by the National Museums of Canada and the Canadian Museum of Civilization The dictionary includes a transcription morphological information English glosses and phonetic transcriptions for each word The reference grammar is a nontechnical introduction to phonology morphology and syntax with summaries showing basic sentence types and their grammatical relationships The grammar contains no index c Book News Inc The Emergence of Distinctive Features Jeff Mielke,2008-03-13 The Emergence of Distinctive Features will be of essential interest to phonologists and typologists as well as to syntacticians cognitive scientists and scholars outside linguistics interested in the nature of language and its acquisition BOOK JACKET Deconstructing Ergativity Maria Polinsky,2016-04-12 Building upon theoretical innovations and extensive empirical findings this book explains variation in the syntactic behavior of ergative arguments across languages It offers a new analysis of ergativity by recognizing two distinct types PP ergative and DP ergative languages Each type is characterized by a set of correlated features which result in structural consistency

The Languages and Linguistics of Indigenous North America Carmen Dagostino,Marianne Mithun,Keren Rice,2023-09-05 This handbook provides broad coverage of the languages indigenous to North America with special focus on typologically interesting features and areal characteristics surveys of current work and topics of particular importance to communities The volume is divided into two major parts subfields of linguistics and family sketches The subfields include those that are customarily addressed in discussions of North American languages sounds and sound structure words sentences as well as many that have received somewhat less attention until recently tone prosody sociolinguistic variation directives information structure discourse meaning language over space and time conversation structure evidentiality pragmatics verbal art first and second language acquisition archives evolving notions of fieldwork Family sketches cover major language families and isolates and highlight topics of special value to communities engaged in work on language maintenance documentation and revitalization Linguistic and Genetic (mtDNA) Connections between Native Peoples of Alaska and California Cecil H. Brown,Kent G. Lightfoot,Nancy J. Turner,Dana Lepofsky,2024-11-05 Linguistic and Genetic mtDNA Connections between Native Peoples of Alaska and California Ancient Mariners of the Middle Holocene traces the linguistic and biological connections between contemporary Aleut people of southwest Alaska and historic Utian people of central California During the Middle Holocene Period Aleut and Utian languages diverged from their common parent language Proto Aleut Utian PAU spoken by people who resided on or near Kodiak Island in coastal southwest Alaska Around the time of divergence Utians departed the PAU homeland migrating by watercraft along the eastern Pacific coast to the San Francisco Bay Area The affiliation between Aleut and Utian languages is strongly supported by comparative linguistics and by the genetic link mtDNA of groups speaking these languages On their migration Utians encountered coastal groups speaking languages different from their own Through these prolonged and intimate interactions words were borrowed from Utian into the languages of these native coastal communities Other significant findings explored in this book are the lack of compelling evidence for the kinship of Eskimo and Aleut peoples despite scholarship's long term acceptance of this proposal and the discovery of language structure features shared by Yeniseian and Na Dene indicating an historical connection for these circumpolar languages

Traditional Ecological Knowledge and Natural Resource Management Charles R. Menzies, 2006-01-01 Traditional Ecological Knowledge and Natural Resource Management examines how traditional ecological knowledge TEK is taught and practiced today among Native communities Of special interest is the complex relationship between indigenous ecological practices and other ways of interacting with the environment particularly regional and national programs of natural resource management Focusing primarily on the northwest coast of North America scholars look at the challenges and opportunities confronting the local practice of indigenous ecological knowledge in a range of communities including the Tsimshian the Nisga'a the Tlingit the Gitksan the Kwagwiltz the Sto:lo and the northern Dene in the Yukon The experts consider how traditional knowledge is taught and learned and address the cultural importance of different subsistence practices using natural elements such as seaweed Gitksan pine mushrooms Tsimshian and salmon Tlingit Several contributors discuss the extent to which national and regional programs of resource management need to include models of TEK in their planning and execution This volume highlights the different ways of seeing and engaging with the natural world and underscores the need to acknowledge and honor the ways that indigenous peoples have done so for generations
