Talking Back:

Talking Back to the Indian Act Mary-Ellen Kelm, Keith D Smith, 2018-11-05 Talking Back to the Indian Act is a comprehensive how to guide for engaging with primary source documents The intent of the book is to encourage readers to develop the skills necessary to converse with primary sources in more refined and profound ways As a piece of legislation that is central to Canada's relationship with Indigenous peoples and communities and one that has undergone many amendments the Indian Act is uniquely positioned to act as a vehicle for this kind of focused reading Through an analysis of thirty five sources pertaining to the Indian Act addressing governance gender enfranchisement and land the authors provide readers with a much better understanding of this pivotal piece of legislation as well as insight into the dynamics involved in its creation and maintenance

Freaks Talk Back Joshua Gamson, 2009-02-13 Using extensive interviews hundreds of transcripts focus group discussions with viewers and his own experiences as an audience member Joshua Gamson argues that talk shows give much needed high impact public visibility to sexual nonconformists while also exacerbating all sorts of political tensions among those becoming visible With wit and passion Freaks Talk Back illuminates the joys dilemmas and practicalities of media visibility This entertaining accessible sobering discussion should make every viewer sit up and ponder the effects and possibilities of America's daily talk fest with newly sharpened eyes Publishers Weekly Bold witty There's a lot of empirical work behind this deceptively easy read then and it allows for the most sophisticated and complex analysis of talk shows yet Elayne Rapping Women's Review of Books Funny well researched fully theorized Engaged and humane scholarship A pretty inspiring example of what talking back to the mass media can be Jesse Berrett Village Voice An extraordinarily well researched volume one of the most comprehensive studies of popular media to appear in this decade James Ledbetter Newsday

Sex Workers in the Maritimes Talk Back Leslie Ann Jeffrey, Gayle MacDonald, 2011-11-01 Sex workers are often the objects of study for academics and policy makers Theories about their lives and the policies that affect their work are usually developed without input from the sex workers themselves as they are rarely seen as capable of analyzing the social and political world in which they work In this book however sex workers set the tone Leslie Ann Jeffrey and Gayle MacDonald interview sex workers in three Maritime cities and those who work around them police health care providers community workers advocates members of neighbourhood associations and politicians The sex workers discuss such issues as violence and safety health and risk politics and policy media influence and public perception of the trade portraying the best and the worst facets of their working lives and expressing sentiments refreshingly at odds with commonly held opinions Given recent Parliamentary recommendations to decriminalize prostitution Sex Workers in the Maritimes Talk Back represents a timely shift to public discussions about sex work Engaging and accessible this book will be of interest to public policy practitioners students of social and political science community advocates police and sex workers and their families

for readers interested in social in justice Smith raises our consciousness about pressing contemporary social in justice issues that impact communities of color and the larger society Systemic or structural oppression and injustices police profiling and brutality oppressive pedagogy and gendered violence are placed in dialogue with sacred con texts This book provides fresh intersectional readings of sacred con texts that are accessible to both scholars and nonscholars Womanist Sass and Talk Back is for readers interested in critical interpretations of sacred con texts ancient and contemporary and in propagating the justice and love of God while engaging those con texts Death of the Desert Christine Luckritz Marquis,2022-03-22 In the late fourth century the world of Christianity was torn apart by debate over the teachings of the third century theologian Origen and his positions on the incorporeality of God In the year 400 Archbishop Theophilus of Alexandria convened a council declaring Origen s later followers as heretics Shortly thereafter Theophilus banished the so called Tall Brothers four Origenist monks who led monastic communities in the western Egyptian desert along with hundreds of their brethren In some accounts Theophilus leads a violent group of drunken youths and enslaved Ethiopians in sacking and desecrating the monastery in others he justly exercises his episcopal duties In some versions Theophilus violent actions effectively bring the Golden Age of desert monasticism to an end in others he has shown proper respect for the desert fathers whose life of asceticism is subsequently destroyed by bands of barbarian marauders For some the desert came to be inextricably connected to violence and trauma while for others it became a site of nostalgic recollection Which of these narratives subsequent generations believed depended in good part on the sources they were reading In Death of the Desert Christine Luckritz Marquis offers a fresh examination of this critical juncture in Christian history and brings into dialogue narrative strands that have largely been separated in the scholarly tradition She takes the violence perpetrated by Theophilus as a turning point for desert monasticism and considers how monks became involved in acts of violence and how that violence came back to haunt them More broadly her careful attention to the dynamic relations between memory practices the rhetorical constructions of place racialized discourse and language and deeds of violence speak to us in our own time

Gender and Identity in Franz Grillparzer's Classical Dramas Alicia E. Ellis,2021-06-10 In this provocative work Alicia E Ellis provides readings of Franz Grillparzer s dramas as proto feminist formulations of female figures who refuse the gendered constraints of the ancient world The revisionist perspectives of the tragedies recover a latent feminist impulse in the stories of Sappho Medea and Hero as identities marked by linguistic refusals Activating new ideas of narrative experience Ellis transports the figure of the female to the seat of language testimony and presence Inflected by a taut impasse with a culture not produced to include female speech Ellis shows how Grillparzer s adaptations of classical materials offer a working theory about the ways in which new forms of language highlight female energy around autonomy and agency providing a corrective to previous cultural practices A failure to comply with social and political norms demonstrates how the three assessed and then resolved exclusionary acts through rebellious discursive performances that frame how contested identities can be thought and reformulated Readings in this study draw from the work of Sara Ahmed and Judith Butler on cultural framing and cultural translation in contemporary feminist critique Ahmed and Butler direct attention to the language of the texts what they mean and how they produce that meaning Action, Talk, and Text Gordon Wells,2001 This book draws from six years work by the Developing Inquiring Communities in Education Project DICEP to provide a range of practical replicable methods for building collaborative communities in which democratic principles of education may be realized Recognizing that each classroom is unique in its makeup its context and its history these seasoned teacher researchers rely heavily on discourse both spoken and written to engage students in the active learning process Their findings are striking and clear and testify to the exciting potential that dialogic interaction and collaborative knowledge building have for the field of education Key features of this book are identification of appropriate research questions real life teaching strategies based on extensive hands on experience in the field and workable suggestions for facilitating inquiry based learning and teaching Milestones in Asian American Theatre Josephine Lee,2022-09-30 This introduction to Asian American theatre charts ten of the most pivotal moments in the history of the Asian diaspora in the USA and how those moments have been reflected in theatre Designed for weekly use on Asian American theatre courses ten chosen milestones move chronologically from the earliest contact between Japan and the West through the impact of the Vietnam War and the resurgent yellow peril hysteria of COVID 19 Each chapter emphasizes common questions of how racial identities and relationships are understood in everyday life as well as represented on the theatrical stage and in popular culture Milestones are a range of accessible textbooks breaking down the need to know moments in the social cultural political and artistic development of foundational subject areas Active Speech Úna Kealy,Kate McCarthy,2025-04-07 Active Speech is a groundbreaking collection of scholarly essays and practitioner interviews focused on the work of Irish playwright Teresa Deevy Acts of recovery in the 1980s and 1990s challenged Deevy s exclusion from the literary canon reclaiming her contributions as significant to Irish drama and theatre The recent resurgence of scholarship and productions evidences that as a deafened woman and Irish playwright Deevy s creative power continues to disrupt and tilt the canon of Irish drama theatre and performance Essays within the collection explore how Deevy s work interrogates early to mid twentieth century Irish social norms and ideologies and provide a rich context for understanding her plays The collection highlights the interdisciplinary nature of research on Deevy and offers insights on her work through archival research literary analysis and practitioner perspectives from Deaf and hearing theatremakers One of the collection s strengths lies in its collaborative and inclusive approach showcasing diverse methodologies and rigorous scholarship The chapters on archival research and practitioner perspectives offer compelling models and avenues for future studies This volume is an essential resource for scholars educators and theatremakers alike Growing Up With Television Joellen Fisherkeller,2011-01-19 This text examines the uses and power of television in youth culture Young people discuss their hopes for the future as well as the challenges they currently face and reveal how television plays a role in their everyday life Differently Academic? Sue Jackson, 2013-03-09 Lifelong learning is a key feature of society today and is apparently embraced by a wide range of educators and trainers as well as by governments and employers In this wide ranging book Sue Jackson shows that universities have been slow to embrace a lifelong learning agenda and argues that the lifelong learning experiences of women and especially of working class students are seldom welcomed in the academy In its unique considerations of the experiences of women students and academics this book expounds an innovative and critical analysis of women in higher education It will give a clear indication of alternative strategies for learners teachers and policy makers This book will be of key interest to anyone working in the fields of lifelong learning or continuing education who is interested in making learning accessible and meaningful for disadvantaged groups It will also appeal to students of education women s studies gender studies and sociology and to those interested in issues of gender social class feminist theory and feminist research Crip Theory Robert McRuer, Michael Bérubé, 2023-11-21 A bold and contemporary discourse of the intersection of disability studies and queer studies Crip Theory attends to the contemporary cultures of disability and queerness that are coming out all over Both disability studies and queer theory are centrally concerned with how bodies pleasures and identities are represented as normal or as abject but Crip Theory is the first book to analyze thoroughly the ways in which these interdisciplinary fields inform each other Drawing on feminist theory African American and Latino a cultural theories composition studies film and television studies and theories of globalization and counter globalization Robert McRuer articulates the central concerns of crip theory and considers how such a critical perspective might impact cultural and historical inquiry in the humanities Crip Theory puts forward readings of the Sharon Kowalski story the performance art of Bob Flanagan and the journals of Gary Fisher as well as critiques of the domesticated queerness and disability marketed by the Millennium March or Bravo TV s Queer Eye for the Straight Guy McRuer examines how dominant and marginal bodily and sexual identities are composed and considers the vibrant ways that disability and queerness unsettle and re write those identities in order to insist that another world is possible Hanging Together Eric W. Cheng, 2022-07-21 Difference and disagreement can be valuable yet they can also spiral out of control and damage liberal democracy Advancing a metaphor of citizenship that the author terms role based constitutional fellowship this book offers a solution to this challenge Cheng argues that a series of divisions of labor among citizens differently situated can help cultivate the foundational trust required to harness the benefits of disagreement and difference while preventing them from overheating and in turn from leaving liberal democracy vulnerable to the growing influence of autocratic political forces The book recognizes however that it is not always appropriate to attempt to cultivate trust and acknowledges the important role that some forms of confrontation might play in identifying and rectifying undue social hierarchies such as racial ethnic hierarchies Hanging Together thereby works to pave a middle way between deliberative and realist conceptions of democracy Monasteries and the Care of Souls in Late Antique Christianity Paul Dilley, 2017-09-07 This book explores the personal practices and group rituals for monitoring and training the thoughts of ancient Christian monks It focuses on the earliest sources for communal monasticism many translated into English for the first time while drawing on cognitive studies to understand key disciplines like prayer and collective repentance

Reverse Shots Wendy Gay Pearson, Susan Knabe, 2015-01-15 From the dawn of cinema images of Indigenous peoples have been dominated by Hollywood stereotypes and often negative depictions from elsewhere around the world With the advent of digital technologies however many Indigenous peoples are working to redress the imbalance in numbers and counter the negativity The contributors to Reverse Shots offer a unique scholarly perspective on current work in the world of Indigenous film and media Chapters focus primarily on Canada Australia and New Zealand and cover areas as diverse as the use of digital technology in the creation of Aboriginal art the healing effects of Native humour in First Nations documentaries and the representation of the pre colonial in films from Australia Canada and Norway

Recovering Native American Writings in the Boarding School Press Jacqueline Emery, 2017 2018 Outstanding Academic Title selected by Choice Recovering Native American Writings in the Boarding School Press is the first comprehensive collection of writings by students and well known Native American authors who published in boarding school newspapers during the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Students used their acquired literacy in English along with more concrete tools that the boarding schools made available such as printing technology to create identities for themselves as editors and writers In these roles they sought to challenge Native American stereotypes and share issues of importance to their communities Writings by Gertrude Bonnin Zitkala Sa Charles Eastman and Luther Standing Bear are paired with the works of lesser known writers to reveal parallels and points of contrast between students and generations Drawing works primarily from the Carlisle Indian Industrial School Pennsylvania the Hampton Institute Virginia and the Seneca Indian School Oklahoma Jacqueline Emery illustrates how the boarding school presses were used for numerous and competing purposes While some student writings appear to reflect the assimilationist agenda others provide more critical perspectives on the schools agendas and the dominant culture This collection of Native authored letters editorials essays short fiction and retold tales published in boarding school newspapers illuminates the boarding school legacy and how it has shaped and continues to shape Native American literary production
