Talking Visions Multicultural Feminism In A Transnational Age:

Talking Visions Ella Shohat, 2001 This multivoiced collection of essays and images presents a relational feminism of diverse communities affiliations and practices

Film Feminisms Kristin Lené Hole, Dijana Jelača, 2018-10-03 Film Feminisms offers a global and updated overview of the history present day concerns and future of feminist film and theory It introduces frameworks from phenomenology affect theory and psychoanalysis to reception studies new media theories and critical historiography as well as engaging with key issues in documentary ethics genre theory and star studies This new textbook situates feminist film theory within the larger framework of transnational scholarly approaches as well as decolonial queer disability studies and critical race theories It offers a much needed update on pedagogical approaches to feminist film studies providing discussions of filmmakers and films that have been overlooked in the field or that are overdue for further analysis Each chapter is supported by a variety of pedagogical features including activities key terms and case studies Many of the activities draw on contemporary digital media such as social media and streaming platforms to update the field to today's changing media landscape

The Cinema Book Bloomsbury Publishing, 2019-07-25 The Cinema Book is widely recognised as the ultimate guide to cinema Authoritative and comprehensive the third edition has been extensively revised updated and expanded in response to developments in cinema and cinema studies Lavishly illustrated in colour this edition features a wealth of exciting new sections and in depth case studies Sections address Hollywood and other World cinema histories key genres in both fiction and non fiction film issues such as stars technology and authorship and major theoretical approaches to understanding film

Indigenous Development in the Andes Robert Andolina, Nina Laurie, Sarah A. Radcliffe, 2009-12-23 Analyzes the transnational relations of indigenous politics after their shift to the global level and explores how the contest between neo liberal economics and anti free market politics generates new forms of development and culture

Haunted Nations Sneja Gunew, 2013-04-15 Postcolonialism has attracted a large amount of interest in cultural theory but the adjacent area of multiculturalism has not been scrutinised to quite the same extent In this innovative new book Sneja Gunew sets out to interrogate the ways in which the transnational discourse of multiculturalism may be related to the politics of race and indigeneity grounding her discussion in a variety of national settings and a variety of literary autobiographical and theoretical texts Using examples from marginal sites the settler societies of Australia and Canada to cast light on the globally dominant discourses of the US and the UK Gunew analyses the political ambiguities and the pitfalls involved in a discourse of multiculturalism haunted by the opposing spectres of anarchy and assimilation

Race in Translation Robert Stam, Ella Shohat, 2012-05-28

Conflicted Commitments Gada Mahrouse, 2014-06-01 Conflicted Commitments analyzes a form of non violent direct transnational solidarity in which activists from the global North travel to support and protect people in the global South Gada Mahrouse contends that this brand of activism is a compelling site of racialized power relations and is highly instructive for a nuanced understanding of systems of race Mahrouse argues that the individuals who partake in this form of activism consciously deploy their white western privilege to offer support and protection to those facing threats of violence Moreover given that this type of activism asserts itself as an exemplary form of anti racist commitment it illustrates that well meaning practices can inadvertently reproduce racialized power structures that are embedded in imperial and colonial legacies Mahrouse focuses on Palestine and Iraq in the post 9 11 era to contemplate the contemporary challenges that these regions pose for solidarity activism By exploring how individual activists manage and negotiate their dominant positioning in these encounters Mahrouse reflects more broadly on the ethics of social justice strategies in an increasingly transnational world A detailed study of the racialized complexities and contradictions inherent in transnational solidarity activism Conflicted Commitments makes a significant contribution to critical race and feminist studies

The Cinematic Life of the Gene Jackie Stacey, 2010-04-02 A leading feminist film theorist argues that the cinema animates the tropes of and enacts our fears about cloning and other kinds of genetic engineering Red Tape Akhil Gupta, 2012-07-17 Yet India's poor are not disenfranchised they actively participate in the democratic project

State/Nation/Transnation Katie Willis, Brenda S. A. Yeoh, 2004-05-05 This edited volume examines the relationship between the nation and the transnation focusing on transnational communities in the Asia Pacific region Setting the book within a theoretical framework the authors explore a range of themes such as migration identity and citizenship in chapters on China the Philippines Malaysia Vietnam Japan Indonesia Australia Singapore and Cambodia Gender Matters in Global Politics Laura J. Shepherd, 2010-01-21 Gender Matters in Global Politics is a comprehensive textbook for advanced undergraduates studying feminism international relations gender and global politics and similar courses It provides students with an accessible but in depth account of the most significant theories methodologies debates and issues This textbook is written by an international line up of established and emerging scholars from a range of theoretical perspectives providing students with provocative and cutting edge insights into the study and practices of how gender matters in global politics Key features and benefits of the book Introduces students to the wide variety of feminist and gender theory and explains the relevance to contemporary global politics Explains the insights of feminist theory for a range of other disciplines including international relations international political economy and security studies Addresses a large number of key contemporary issues such as human rights trafficking rape as a tool of war peacekeeping and state building terrorism and environmental politics Features extensive pedagogy to facilitate learning seminar exercises text boxes photographs suggestions for further reading web resources and a glossary of key terms In this innovative and groundbreaking textbook gender is represented as a noun a verb and a logic allowing both students and lecturers to develop a sophisticated understanding of the crucial role that gender plays in the theories policies and practices of global politics Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Warren Crichlow, 2013-05-13 This stunning new edition retains the book's broad aims intended audience and multidisciplinary approach New chapters take into account the more current backdrop of globalization particularly events such as 9 11 and attendant developments that make a reconsideration of race relations in education quite urgent Race, Identity, and Representation in Education Cameron McCarthy, 2005 First Published in 2005 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The World Bank Legal Review, Volume 2: Law, Equity and Development The World Bank, 2006-12-31 The World Bank Legal Review is a publication for policy makers and their advisers attorneys and other professionals engaged in the field of international development It offers a combination of legal scholarship lessons from experience legal developments and recent research on the many ways in which the application of the law and the improvement of justice systems promote poverty reduction economic development and the rule of law In keeping with the theme of the World Development Report 2006 Equity and Development and following the success of the World Bank Group's Legal Forum on Law Equity and Development in December 2005 volume 2 of The World Bank Legal Review focuses on issues of equity and development The volume draws together some of the key ideas of the Legal Forum including articles by many of its distinguished participants and explores the role of equity in the development process highlighting how legal and regulatory frameworks and equitable justice systems can do much to level the playing field in the political economic and sociocultural domains as well as how they can reinforce existing inequalities Consistent with the interdisciplinary nature of this endeavour Law Equity and Development contains work by academics and practitioners in law criminal justice economics human rights social development cultural studies and anthropology The Subject of Prostitution Jane Scoular, 2015-12-22 The Subject of Prostitution offers a distinctive analysis of the links between prostitution and social theory in order to advance a critical analysis of the relationship of law to sex work Using the lens of social theory to disrupt fixed meanings the book provides an advanced analytical framework through which to understand the complexity and contingencies of sex work in late modernity The book analyses contemporary citizenship discourse and the law's ability to meet the competing demands of empowerment by sex workers and protection by radical feminists who view prostitution as the epitome of patriarchal sexual and economic relations Its central focus is the role of law in both structuring and responding to the problem of prostitution By developing a distinctive constitutive approach to law the author offers a more advanced analytical framework from which to understand how law matters in contemporary debates and also suggests how law could matter in more imaginative justice reforms This is particularly pertinent in a period of unprecedented legal reform both internationally and nationally as legal norms simultaneously attempt to protect empower and criminalise parties involved in the purchase of sexual services The Subject of Prostitution aims to overcome the current aporia in these debates and suggest new ways to engage with the subject and law As such The Subject of Prostitution provides an advanced theoretical resource for policymakers researchers and activists involved in contemporary struggles over the meanings and place of sex work in late modernity (En)Gendering the War on Terror Kim Riegel, 2016-03-03 The war on terror has been raging for many years now and subsequently there is a growing body of literature examining the development motivation and effects of this US led aggression Virtually absent from these accounts is an examination of the central role that gender race class and sexuality play in the war on terror This lack of attention reflects a continued resistance by analysts to acknowledge and engage identity related social issues as central elements within global politics As this conflict spreads and deepens it is more important than ever to examine how diverse international actors are using the war on terror as an opportunity to reinforce existing gendered raced classed and sexualized inter national relations This book examines the official war stories being told to the international community about why and against whom the war on terror is being waged The book will benefit students scholars and practitioners in the areas of international relations women s studies and cultural studies

Latina/o Communication Studies Today Angharad N. Valdivia, 2008 This book brings together contemporary and exciting research within communication and Latina o studies Written in a clear accessible manner and based on original research drawn from a broad range of paradigms from textual analysis to reception studies and political economy Latina o Communication Studies Today provides an invaluable resource and excellent case studies for those already conducting research and teaching in Latina o communication studies The media studied include radio television cinema magazines and newspapers

Drifting - Architecture and Migrancy Stephen Cairns, 2003-11-27 This book is an exploration of the often complex and unorthodox modes of dwelling that are emerging precisely from within the ruins of the idea of place

North American Muslim Women Artists Talk Back Kenza Oumlil, 2022-07-21 This book focuses on the ways in which North American Muslim women artists talk back to dominant discourses about Muslim identity and work to counter mainstream stereotypes and representations It examines the possibilities of constructing discourses of resistance to domination Against a backdrop of dominant media representations of oppressed and passive Muslim women the media interventions of the exceptional women artists whose voices are showcased in this book demonstrate that Muslim women are diverse and autonomous agents who have historically and continue contemporarily to fight against all forms of injustice including those that seek to circumscribe their realities and experiences To explore expressions and articulations of alternative discourses this book analyzes the media texts of exceptional women artists the stand up comedy of Palestinian American Maysoon Zayid the cinematic interventions of Iranian American Shirin Neshat and the television comedy of Pakistani Canadian Zarqa Nawaz Using a methodology consisting of a textual analysis grounded in the theoretical framework of postcolonial theory and informed by gender studies and alternative media research the analysis is supplemented with semi structured interviews with the artists This book is suitable for scholars and students in Gender Studies Media Studies Cultural Studies Sociology and Politics

Venus in the Dark Janell Hobson, 2018-02-01 In this second edition of the remarkable and now classic cultural history of black women s beauty Venus in the Dark Janell Hobson explores the enduring figure of the Hottentot Venus and the history of critical and artistic responses to her by black women in contemporary photography film literature music and dance In 1810 Sara Baartman was taken from South Africa to Europe where she was put on display at circuses salons museums and universities as the Hottentot Venus The subsequent legacy of representations of black women s sexuality from Josephine Baker to Serena Williams to hip hop and dancehall videos refer back to her iconic image Via a new preface Hobson argues for the continuing influence of Baartman s legacy as her image still reverberates through the contemporary marketization of black women s bodies from popular music and pornography to advertising A brand new chapter explores how historical echoes from previous eras map onto highly visible bodies in the twenty first century It analyzes fetishistic spectacles of the black booty with particular emphasis on the role of Beyonc Knowles in the popularization of the bootylicious body and the counter aesthetic the singer has gone on to advance for black women s bodies and beauty politics By studying the imagery of the Hottentot Venus from the nineteenth century to now readers are invited to confront the racial and sexual objectification and embodied resistance that make up a significant part of black women s experience
