Barab, 2017-09-05 William Wordsworth 1770 1850 needs little introduction as the central figure in Romantic poetry and a crucial influence in the development of poetry generally This broad ranging survey redefines the variety of his writing by showing how it incorporates contemporary concepts of language difference and the ways in which popular and serious literature were compared and distinguished during this period It discusses many of Wordsworth's later poems comparing his work with that of his regional contemporaries as well as major writers such as Scott The key theme of relationship both between characters within poems and between poet and reader is explored through Wordsworth's construction of community and his use of power relationships A serious discussion of the place of sexual feeling in his writing is also included Educational Reform Jordan T. Ville, 2001 This book brings together the literature in a field which may define the 21st century Can economic and technological progress continue with educational systems which seem to answer to no one but themselves and which output graduates who can barely read and write and who have only the faintest clue how to use a map This bibliography provides access via Title Author and Subject Indexes Contents Educational Accountability Educational Change Educational Equalisation Educational Leadership Educational Planning Educational Indicators

Taming the Beast Mark R. Sneed, 2021-11-08 Leviathan a manifestation of one of the oldest monsters in recorded history 3rd millennium BCE and its sidekick Behemoth have been the object of centuries of suppression throughout the millennia Originally cosmic terrifying creatures who represented disorder and chaos they have been converted into the more palatable crocodile and hippo by biblical scholars today However among the earliest Jews and Muslims and possibly Christians these creatures occupied a significant place in creation and redemption history Before that they formed part of a backstory that connects the Bible with the wider ancient Near East When examining the reception history of these fascinating beasts several questions emerge Why are Jewish children today familiar with these creatures while Christian children know next to nothing about them Why do many modern biblical scholars follow suit and view them as minor players in the grand scheme of things Conversely why has popular culture eagerly embraced them assimilating the words as symbols for the enormous More unexpectedly why have fundamentalist Christians touted them as evidence for the cohabitation of dinosaurs and humans

Dangerous Learning Derek W Black,2025-01-14 The enduring legacy of the nineteenth century struggle for Black literacy in the American South Few have ever valued literacy as much as the enslaved Black people of the American South For them it was more than a means to a better life it was a gateway to freedom and in some instances a tool for inspiring revolt And few governments tried harder to suppress literacy than did those in the South Everyone understood that knowledge was power power to keep a person enslaved in mind and body power to resist oppression In the decades before the Civil War Southern governments drove Black literacy underground but it was too precious to be entirely stamped out This book describes the violent lengths to which southern leaders went to repress Black literacy and the extraordinary courage it took Black people to resist Derek W Black shows how from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the end of Reconstruction literacy evolved from a subversive gateway to freedom to a public program to extend citizenship and build democratic institutions and how once Reconstruction was abandoned opposition to educating Black children depressed education throughout the South for Black and white students alike He also reveals the deep imprint those events had on education and how this legacy is resurfacing today

Theorising Posthuman Childhood Studies Karen Malone, Marek Tesar, Sonja Arndt, 2020-11-05 This book is a genealogical foregrounding and performance of conceptions of children and their childhoods over time We acknowledge that children's lives are embedded in worlds both inside and outside of structured schooling or institutional settings and that this relationality informs how we think about what it means to be a child living and experiencing childhood The book maps the field by taking up a cross disciplinary genealogical niche to offer both an introduction to theoretical underpinnings of emerging theories and concepts and to provide hands on examples of how they might play out This book positions children and their everyday lived childhoods in the Anthropocene and focuses on the interface of children's being in the everyday spaces and places of contemporary communities and societies In particular this book examines how the shift towards posthuman and new materialist perspectives continues to challenge dominant developmental social constructivist and structuralist theoretical approaches in diverse ways to help us to understand contemporary constructions of childhoods It recognises that while such dominant approaches have long been shown to limit the complexity of what it means to be a child living in the contemporary world the traditions of many Eurocentric theories have not addressed the diversity of children's lives in the majority of countries or in the Global South Teaching and Learning in a Diverse World Patricia G.
