Tanzania in Pictures Joel Reuben, Howard Carstens, 1972 Brief text and black and white photographs present the geography history government people and economy of the African country boasting that continent s highest mountain deepest lake and largest game reserve Rwanda in Pictures Thomas Streissguth, 2007-12-15 Presents a photographic introduction to the land history government economy people and culture of the African nation of Rwanda Digital Photography and Everyday Life Edgar Gómez Cruz, Asko Lehmuškallio, 2016-05-20 Digital Photography and Everyday Life Empirical studies on material visual practices explores the role that digital photography plays within everyday life With contributors from ten different countries and backgrounds in a range of academic disciplines including anthropology media studies and visual culture this collection takes a uniquely broad perspective on photography by situating the image making process in wider discussions on the materiality and visuality of photographic practices and explores these through empirical case studies By focusing on material visual practices the book presents a comprehensive overview of some of the main challenges digital photography is bringing to everyday life It explores how the digitization of photography has a wide reaching impact on the use of the medium as well as on the kinds of images that can be produced and the ways in which camera technology is developed The exploration goes beyond mere images to think about cameras mediations and technologies as key elements in the development of visual digital cultures Digital Photography and Everyday Life will be of great interest to students and scholars of Photography Contemporary Art Visual Culture and Media Studies as well as those studying Communication Cultural Anthropology and Science and Technology Studies Empire of Pictures Sönke Kunkel, 2015-12-01 In Cold War historiography the 1960s are often described as a decade of mounting diplomatic tensions and international social unrest At the same time they were a period of global media revolution communication satellites compressed time and space television spread around the world and images circulated through print media in expanding ways Examining how U S policymakers exploited these changes this book offers groundbreaking international research into the visual media battles that shaped America s Cold War from West Germany and India to Tanzania and Argentina The Art of Outdoor Photography Boyd Norton, 2002 Presents detailed advice and color photo examples for advanced amateur and professional photographers covering such aspects as light lenses composition shutter speeds interpretive rendition films and filters wildlife and closeups as well as travel underwater and scenic photography Tanzania Jens Finke, 2003 The Rough Guides series contain full color photos three maps in one and are waterproof and tearproof They contain thousands of keyed listings and brightnew graphics The Tanzania-Uganda War in Pictures Samuel Ismail Mmbando,1980 The Regional Travel Guide for Southern Highlands (Tanzania) , Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa - Highlights from a Project ,2010-01-01 This book is based on chapters in a series of four books from the first five years 2002 2006 of the Language of Instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA project LOITASA is a NUFU funded Norwegian University Fund project which began in January 2002 and will continue through to the end of 2011 The chapters reflect the state of the research at the end of the first five years of LOITASA in 2006 and were selected by reviewers independent of the project The selection of chapters brought together bring to the forefront the dilemmas facing developing countries as they seek to position themselves in an increasingly interconnected global system while at the same time maintaining a sense of national and regional identity The chapters in this collection reflect both positive outcomes when the medium of instruction is a widely known language as well as the challenges of mother tongue instruction in countries where historically a powerful language like English has dominated The four LOITASA books in this series from which the chapters in this book are drawn are Language of instruction in Tanzania and South Africa LOITASA published by E Zubeida Desai the South African project leader and Martha Qorro who is on the project steering committee in Tanzania Tanzania Anna Cavallo,2011-01-01 Presents an introduction to Tanzania describing its landscape culture people wildlife agriculture religion languages and economy Picture Coverage of the World Heinz Dietrich Fischer,2011 The Pulitzer Prizes for Press Photography are latecomers within the prestigious award system Established in 1942 during World War II they started with a general category called Photography covering all kinds of photographs After about a quarter century in 1968 this award category was divided into two separate prize groups entitled Spot News Photography and Feature Photography This book presents the decision making processes that lead to the annual Pulitzer Prize winners Additionally in each decision making case one award earning photo is reproduced to give an idea about the broad spectrum of aspects and themes declared prize worthy by the jurors Series Pulitzer Prize Panorama Vol 2 Aspects of Colonial Tanzania History E.Y. Mbogoni,2012-11-20 Aspects of Colonial Tanzanian History is a collection of essays that examines the lives and experiences of both colonizers and the colonized during colonial rule in what is today known as Tanzania Dr Mbogoni examines a range of topics hitherto unexplored by scholars of Tanzania history namely excessive alcohol consumption the sundowners adultery and violence among the colonial officials attitudes to inter racial sexual liaisons especially between Europeans and Africans game poaching European settler vigilantism radio broadcasting film production and the nature of Arab slavery in Zanzibar A particularly noteworthy case related to European vigilantism is examined the trial of Oldus Elishira a Maasai for the murder of a European settler farmer in 1955 The victim Harold M Stuchbery was speared to death when he attempted to arrest a group of Maasai young men who were passing through his farm The event highlighted the differences in the concepts of justice held by Maasai and the imported justice systems from the colonizers It also raised vexing questions about the colonial judges acquittal of Oldus Elishira while the Maasai who should have been satisfied with that decision decided to take it upon themselves to mete out an appropriate punishment to Elshira instead of total acquittal and to compensate Mrs Stuchbery for the death of her husband by giving her a number of heads of cattle Uganda in Pictures Eric Braun,2006-01-01
