The Chinese Aesthetic Tradition Zehou Li, 2009-11-12 Li Zehou b 1930 has been an influential thinker in China since the 1950s Before moving to the U S in the wake of the Tiananmen Square protests of 1989

Li published works on Kant and traditional and contemporary Chinese philosophy. The present volume, a translation of his Huaxia meixue 1989, is considered among Li's most significant works. Apart from its value as an introduction to the philosophy of one of contemporary China's foremost intellectuals, The Chinese Aesthetic Tradition fills an important gap in the literature of Chinese aesthetics in English. It presents Li's synthesis of the entire trajectory of Chinese aesthetic thought from ancient times to the early modern period, incorporating pre-Confucian and Confucian ideas, Daoism, Chan Buddhism, and the influence of Western philosophy during the late imperial period. As one of China's major contemporary philosophers and preeminent authority on Kant, Li is uniquely positioned to observe this trajectory and make it intelligible to today's readers. The Chinese Aesthetic Tradition touches on all areas of artistic activity, including poetry, painting, calligraphy, architecture, and the art of living. Right government, the ideal human being, and the path to spiritual transcendence all come under the provenance of aesthetic thought. According to Li, this was the case from early Confucian explanations of poetry as that which gives expression to intent through Zhuangzi's artistic depictions of the ideal personality who discerns the natural way of things and lives according to it, to Chan Buddhist-inspired notions that nature and words can come together to yield insight and enlightenment. In this enduring and stimulating work, Li demonstrates conclusively the fundamental role of aesthetics in the development of the cultural and psychological structures in Chinese culture that define humanity.

Chinese Painters Raphaël Petrucci, 1920      Illustrated History of Chinese Art Ting Chen, 2025-01-27. This book aims to provide readers with a clear and comprehensive picture of the development of Chinese art. Its main feature is the combination of illustration and text. It highlights representative works of art in the form of illustrations and discusses their styles, themes, and underlying artistic principles. In addition, each chapter of the book focuses on covering a specific period in Chinese art history, striving to capture representative artistic and stylistic features of the period and providing a preliminary analysis of the social, political, religious, and cultural factors behind its artistic phenomena.      The Mustard Seed Garden Manual of Painting, 2015-02-17. Originally published as Volume 2 of The Tao of Painting, this is the first English translation of the famous Chinese handbook, the Chieh Tzu Y an Hua Chuan, original 1679-1701. Mai-mai Sze has translated and annotated the texts of instructions, discussions of the fundamentals of painting, notes on the preparation of colors, and chief editorial prefaces.      Creativity and Spirituality Earle J. Coleman, 1998-02-27. From the architecture of Frank Lloyd Wright to the rock gardens of Zen Buddhism, Coleman explores applied fine and folk arts in order to uncover points of coalescence between art and religion. Drawing from six living faiths: Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Islam, Judaism, and Taoism, this book philosophically analyzes relations between art and religion in order to explain how the concepts art, beauty, creativity, and aesthetic experience find their place or counterparts in religious discourse and experience. Coleman repeatedly shows that aesthetic ideas can serve as bridges to spiritual categories, as when he relates aesthetic bliss to the peace that passes all understanding. The author follows a three-fold approach: first, he examines ideas and motifs from religious classics in world literature such as Lao Tzu's Tao Te Ching and The Interior Castle by Teresa of Avila in order to relate them to aesthetic phenomena. Second, he turns to the statements of artists such as Leo Tolstoy, Vincent van Gogh, Paul Gauguin, Shih t ao and Wassily Kandinsky for themes and practices that have religious significance. Third, he analyzes and evaluates the writings of various theoreticians, philosophers, theologians, art critics, sociologists, and psychologists on the relations between art and religion. Coleman demonstrates, for example, that Martin Buber's I-Thou relationship captures much that is central to art, creativity, and aesthetic experience as well as to religious life. Among the themes that receive sustained treatment are the varieties of union in art and religion, the child as a paradigm for artists and saints, and creativity as essential to religion. Finally, the author critically weighs proposed distinctions between art and religion and between the broader categories of the aesthetic and the spiritual, rejecting some and showing how others are compatible with his proposal that the aesthetic and the spiritual are cognate categories.

The Awakening Artist Patrick Howe, 2013-08-30

The Awakening Artist: Madness and Spiritual Awakening in Art is an art theory book that explores the collision of human madness and spiritual awakening in art. It examines a condition of insanity that can be seen in most art movements throughout art history and contrasts that insanity with revelations of beauty, wonder, and truth that can also be found in many works of art. The Awakening Artist references concepts of creativity put forward by Joseph Campbell, Carl Sagan, Albert Einstein, Carl Jung, and others. Furthermore, The Awakening Artist discusses many of the world's most important artists who explored the theme of awakening in art, including Michaelangelo, Paul Cezanne, Claude Monet, Marcel Duchamp, Morris Graves, and many others. Additionally, using concepts of Eastern philosophy, the book presents the case that human creativity originates from the same creative source that animates all of life and that the artist naturally aligns with that creative source when he or she is in the act of creating.

The Modernist Response to Chinese Art Zhaoming Qian, 2003

The Modernist Response to Chinese Art is a work of both erudition and sympathy that reveals the root of modernist poets' otherwise baffling interest in and use of Chinese art. Most impressive, perhaps, is the depth of their embrace of it, as Qian has so convincingly documented.
