Dream Trippers David A. Palmer, Elijah Siegler, 2017-11-27 Over the past few decades Daoism has become a recognizable part of Western alternative spiritual life Now that Westernized version of Daoism is going full circle traveling back from America and Europe to influence Daoism in China Dream Trippers draws on more than a decade of ethnographic work with Daoist monks and Western seekers to trace the spread of Westernized Daoism in contemporary China David A Palmer and Elijah Siegler take us into the daily life of the monastic community atop the mountain of Huashan and explore its relationship to the socialist state They follow the international circuit of Daoist energy tourism which connects a number of sites throughout China and examine the controversies around Western scholars who become practitioners and promoters of Daoism Throughout are lively portrayals of encounters among the book's various characters Chinese hermits and monks Western seekers and scholar practitioners as they interact with each other in obtuse often humorous and yet sometimes enlightening and transformative ways Dream Trippers untangles the anxieties confusions and ambiguities that arise as Chinese and American practitioners balance cosmological attunement and radical spiritual individualism in their search for authenticity in a globalized world Tao Yin Practice. Preparation period Shanti Nathini,2024-12-05 The book provides a description of Tao Yin practice taking into account the specifics of the female path of development without assuming withdrawal from social activity A woman can gain genuine femininity and create a solid foundation for strengthening Yang energy in order to confidently and successfully act in the modern world The text of the first edition is supplemented by an illustrated set of exercises created for retreats on the island of Bali Cover photo the author in China 2008 The Dreaming Mind and the End of the Ming World Lynn A. Struve,2021-05-31 From the mid sixteenth through the end of the seventeenth century Chinese intellectuals attended more to dreams and dreaming and in a wider array of genres than in any other period of Chinese history Taking the approach of cultural history this ambitious yet accessible work aims both to describe the most salient aspects of this dream arc and to explain its trajectory in time through the writings arts and practices of well known thinkers religionists litterateurs memoirists painters doctors and political figures of late Ming and early Qing times The volume's encompassing thesis asserts that certain associations of dreaming grounded in the neurophysiology of the human brain at sleep such as subjectivity irrationality the unbidden lack of control emotionality spontaneity the imaginal and memory when especially heightened by historical and cultural developments are likely to pique interest in dreaming and generate florescences of dream expression among intellectuals The work thus makes a contribution to the history of how people have understood human consciousness in various times and cultures The Dreaming Mind and the End of the Ming World is the most substantial work in any language on the historicity of Chinese dream culture Within Chinese studies it will appeal to those with backgrounds in literature religion philosophy political history and the visual arts It will also be welcomed by readers interested in comparative dream cultures the history of consciousness and neurohistory Dreaming and Self-Cultivation in China, 300 BCE-800 CE Robert Ford Campany,2024-09-09 Practitioners of any of the paths of self cultivation available in ancient and medieval China engaged daily in practices meant to bring their bodies and minds under firm control They took on regimens to discipline their comportment speech breathing diet senses desires sexuality even their dreams Yet compared with waking life dreams are incongruous unpredictable in a word strange How then did these regimes of self fashioning grapple with dreaming a lawless yet ubiquitous domain of individual experience In Dreaming and Self Cultivation in China 300 BCE 800 CE Robert Ford Campany examines how dreaming was addressed in texts produced and circulated by practitioners of Daoist Buddhist Confucian and other self cultivational disciplines Working through a wide range of scriptures essays treatises biographies commentaries fictive dialogues diary records interpretive keys and ritual instructions Campany uncovers a set of discrete paradigms by which dreams were viewed and responded to by practitioners He shows how these paradigms underlay texts of diverse religious and ideological persuasions that are usually treated in mutual isolation The result is a provocative meditation on the relationship between individuals nocturnal experiences and one culture s persistent attempts to discipline interpret and incorporate them into waking practice Healing Light of the Tao Mantak Chia, 2008-05-27 The guide to engaging and directing the three primordial forces of Earth Heaven and Higher Self to achieve enlightenment and immortality Explains how to circulate the life force or chi by balancing yang male and yin female currents of bioenergy Includes an overview of the complete Taoist body mind spirit system along with newly refined methods of activating the life force The sequel to the classic Awaken Healing Energy Through the Tao In 1983 Mantak Chia introduced the Microcosmic Orbit to the West Prior to that time most of the Eastern energy practices transmitted to the West were incomplete dealing only with the ascending yang masculine channel which shoots life force energy up the spine The Microcosmic Orbit showed practitioners how to establish the descending yin feminine channel of the life force energy loop Within Taoist systems cultivating feminine energy has always been seen as the key to gaining balance and wholeness Healing Light of the Tao presents the more advanced methods of chi cultivation in the Microcosmic Orbit offering a full understanding of Taoist spiritual theory through its comprehensive overview of the complete Taoist body mind spirit system The book also includes more advanced meditation methods for absorbing the higher frequencies of Earth Force Cosmic Force and Universal Force Heavenly chi into the basic orbit It establishes a spiritual science that not only emphasizes practical benefits to health sexual vitality and emotional balance but also shows how changes made in the energy body can lead to physical rejuvenation that the Taoists called immortality Getting in Touch Christine Caldwell, 1997-11-01 Covering such techniques as Hakomi Dreambodywork and The Moving Cycle the founders of body centered psychotherapy explain how they developed their methods what happens during a therapy session and who can best benefit from them Original Tour IP
