Taranaki An Illustrated History:

An Illustrated History of Taranaki Gail Henry, Ron Lambert, 2014 This book details the Taranaki region's history. It covers Taranaki's strong sense of identity as well as the Land Wars and settlement. Taranaki Ron Lambert, Gail Henry, 2000 First published in 1983 this book was written in response to a long felt need for a general work inter relating the development and events of the province. This second edition has updated text and new photographs throughout. Many photographs such as that of a women's archery group during the mid 1860s have never been published before. An Illustrated History of the Treaty of Waitangi Claudia Orange, 2015-12-21 This book builds on Claudia Orange's award winning Treaty of Waitangi using a wonderful range of photographs, maps and paintings to bring the Treaty's history to life. Depictions of key players and moments sit alongside a clear and informative text that helps explain the history of this key document. Two peoples meeting, agreements made and broken, claims and protests all are a part of the story of the Treaty from before its signing to the present day. Never before have the Treaty's varied stories been made so accessible to the general reader. Tangata Whenua Atholl Anderson, Judith Binney, Aroha Harris, 2014-11-15 Tangata Whenua An Illustrated History charts the sweep of Māori history from ancient origins through to the twenty first century. Through narrative and images it offers a striking overview of the past grounded in specific localities and histories. The story begins with the migration of ancestral peoples out of South China some 5 000 years ago. Moving through the Pacific these early voyagers arrived in Aotearoa early in the second millennium AD establishing themselves as tangata whenua in the place that would become New Zealand. By the nineteenth century another wave of settlers brought new technology, ideas and trading opportunities and a struggle for control of the land. Survival and resilience shape the history as it extends into the twentieth century through two world wars, the growth of an urban culture, rising protest and Treaty settlements. Today at the beginning of the twenty first century Māori are drawing on both international connections and their ancestral place in Aotearoa. Fifteen stunning chapters bring together scholarship in history, archaeology, traditional narratives and oral sources. A parallel commentary is offered through more than 500 images ranging from the elegant shapes of ancient taonga and artefacts to impressions of Māori in the sketchbooks and paintings of early European observers through the shifting focus of the photographer's lens to the response of contemporary Māori artists to all that has gone before. The many threads of history are entwined in this compelling narrative of the people and the land, the story of a rich past that illuminates the present and will inform the future. The Origins of an Experimental Society Erik Olssen, 2025-04-10 In this major work one of our leading historians offers a new account of the origins of New Zealand, how Pakeha settlers, a Better Britain. While both experiments were first conceived by savants and philosophers they gained ongoing support by lodging in the hearts and minds of the settlers, whalers and missionaries, mothers and farmers. In turn Māori adapted these new ideas to their own ends giving up slavery and inter tribal warfare and adapting the institutions of the colonisers in ways that would re define the experiments. This then is an ethnography of tangata Pakeha a people of European descent changed by their encounters with tangata Maori and their land just as Maori were themselves changed and the story of the society they built together Ranging across intellectual and cultural history from the beach at Paihia to the coffee houses of Paris Olssen enables us to understand the origins of New Zealand anew

Woven by Water David Young,1998 The Mana of the Maori is by water No one here carrying the same thing that I m carrying today Titi Tihu In living memory before the Whanganui River became a tawny mass seeming to flow upside down the river bed was clean stone and the water of the river tasted like kowhai The trees used to grow over the river and drop into the water and the water tasted like kowhai This is a book of many river people a hidden prophet living with over a thousand followers at a place now deserted a Pakeha Maori making gunpowder using charcoal made from willows grown from cuttings taken from Napoleon s grave a riverboat magnate building a fiefdom on the Rhine of Maoriland a highly decorated soldier fighting as a kupapa yet fighting for tino rangatiratanga arsenic and flour poisoners and always the river itself The New Zealand Journal of History ,2006 Ngāti Ruanui Tony Sole,2005 This eloquent and detailed Taranki history has grown out of research for the Ngati Ruanui tribal treaty claim against the New Zealand Crown From pre Hawaiki times it follows the Aotea canoe from Ranigatea in the Pacific to New Zealand Aotearoa and the settlement of Turi and his people at Patea The battles and alliances over the centuries and the rich and varied Ngati Ruanui history form the narrative background for the arrival of Pakeha from Europe and the devastation and land confiscations that followed The story of the successful negotiation of the Ngati Ruanui treaty settlement and the creation of Te Rananga o Ngati Ruanui is told here for the first time The central theme of this important book is the unwavering determination of the Ngati Ruanui tribe to hold on to their land and their autonomy No Better Death William George Malone,John A.
