Taschenbuch Des Films:

, Nazi Propaganda Films Rolf Giesen, 2015-09-11 Hitler and the Nazis saturated their country with many types of propaganda to convince the German citizenry that the Nazi ideology was the only ideology One type of propaganda that the Nazis relied on heavily was cinematic This work focuses on Nazi propaganda feature films and feature length documentaries made in Germany between 1933 and 1945 and released to the public Some of them were Staatsauftragsfilme films produced by order of and financed by the Third Reich The films are arranged by subject and then alphabetically and complete cast and production credits are provided for each Short biographies of actors directors producers and other who were involved in the making of Nazi propaganda films are also provided Film - An International Bibliography Malte Hagener, Michael Töteberg, 2016-12-16 Kommentierte Bibliografie Sie gibt Wissenschaftlern Studierenden und Journalisten zuverlässig Auskunft über rund 6000 internationale Veröffentlichungen zum Thema Film und Medien Die vorgestellten Rubriken reichen von Nachschlagewerk über Filmgeschichte bis hin zu Fernsehen Video Multimedia The Routledge Handbook of German Language Teaching Ruth Whittle, 2024-09-16 The Routledge Handbook of German Language Teaching evaluates and addresses multifaceted multilevel needs of students and teachers within teaching German as a foreign as well as a second language through taking a transcultural approach Each contribution starts with the author situating themselves in the geographical and institutional context in which they teach as well as the way in which they teach for example in person or online This acknowledges the Handbook's internationally widespread contributors from countries with different histories in terms of cultural linguistic and educational diversity more generally and the teaching of German in particular The chapters reflect their voices and consider language learners as people who have their own identities Material such as plays poems short literary texts rap singing and drawing are discussed in this book as being influential for language learners from beginner level and beyond This book proposes that learning happens by both the teachers and the learners going on a journey and both changing the outlook on each other and themselves along that journey Alongside this questions are asked with respect to curricula and the relation between speaking German and belonging in a German speaking country This Handbook will primarily appeal to teachers and instructors of German as well as those training to become German language instructors Moreover the book will appeal to researchers interested in the linguistic and theoretical aspects of German language teaching Performative Figures of Queer Masculinity Christiane König, 2022-09-15 This is a German history of cinema and film from the 1890s to 1945 with a focus on queer masculinity Using media studies approaches the study shows how film as a new medium is constituted through performative re enactments of spectacular elements from the entertainment and knowledge cultures of the 19th century In it bodies desires and identities are constantly remodelled through the formation of difference Therefore male queerness here does not mean the representation of male homosexuality Rather it is the dynamic result of complex medial processes affects and self knowledge on and off the screen Building on Eve

K Sedgwick's queer feminist concept of queer performativity the author creates a historically situated model with which she traces various figures of technically anthropomorphic queer masculinity in the medium of film in an empowering sense This book is a translation of an original German 1st edition Performative Figuren queerer Männlichkeit by Christiane K nig published by J B Metzler imprint of Springer Verlag GmbH Germany part of Springer Nature in 2020 The translation was done with the help of artificial intelligence machine translation by the service DeepL com The author with the friendly support of Megan Hanson has subsequently revised the text further in an endeavour to refine the work stylistically Springer Nature works continuously to further the development of tools for the production of books and on the related technologies to support authors

German Cinema in the Age of Neoliberalism Hester Baer, 2025-10-01 This book presents a new history of German film from 1980-2010 a period that witnessed rapid transformations including intensified globalization a restructured world economy geopolitical realignment and technological change all of which have affected cinema in fundamental ways Rethinking the conventional periodization of German film history Baer posits 1980 rather than 1989 as a crucial turning point for German cinema's embrace of a new market orientation and move away from the state sponsored film culture that characterized both DEFA and the New German Cinema Reading films from East West and post unification Germany together Baer argues that contemporary German cinema is characterized most strongly by its origins in and responses to advanced capitalism Informed by a feminist approach and in dialogue with prominent theories of contemporary film the book places a special focus on how German films make visible the neoliberal recasting of gender and national identities around the new millennium

Composing for the Screen in Germany and the USSR Robynn J. Stilwell, Phil Powrie, 2007-12-26 Despite the long history of music in film its serious academic study is still a relatively recent development and therefore comprises a limited body of work The contributors to this book drawn from both film studies and musicology attempt to rectify this oversight by investigating film music from the vibrant productive politically charged period before World War II They apply a variety of methodologies including archival work close readings political histories and style comparison to this under explored field

The Nosferatu Story Rolf Giesen, 2025-06-23 Director F W Murnau's Nosferatu A Symphony of Horror made in 1921 after the devastating Spanish Flu pandemic has become the ultimate cult classic among horror film buffs around the world For years there was much speculation about the production background the filmmakers and the star German actor Max Schreck This greatly expanded new edition based upon rare sources and years of dedicated research tells the complete story of how a group of occultists established a leading film company that would produce a momentous series of horror movies Along the way other classic German fantasy silents such as The Golem The Cabinet of Dr Caligari and Metropolis are discussed Featured in this edition are photographs documents and interviews including one with Dacre Stoker the great grandnephew of Dracula author Bram Stoker

British Union-catalogue of Periodicals James Douglas Stewart, Douglas Stewart, 1968 The British Avant-garde Film, 1926-1995 Michael O'Pray, 1996 This collection of essays celebrating British avant garde cinema's rich history draws together writings by filmmakers theorists critics and curators These individuals have been engaged over the past 70 years with film not only as a form of art practice but also as a subversive means of representing British society itself and as a personal expression of issues of memory sexuality and ethnicity Included are essays from a wide range of distinguished writers from Virginia Woolf Lindsay Anderson and Peter Gidal to Laura Mulvey Peter Wollen and Malcolm Le Grice The Promise of Cinema Anton Kaes, Nicholas Baer, Michael Cowan, 2016-03-01 Rich in implications for our present era of media change The Promise of Cinema offers a compelling new vision of film theory The volume conceives of theory not as a fixed body of canonical texts but as a dynamic set of reflections on the very idea of cinema and the possibilities once associated with it Unearthing more than 275 early twentieth century German texts this ground breaking documentation leads readers into a world that was striving to assimilate modernity's most powerful new medium We encounter lesser known essays by Bela Balzs Walter Benjamin and Siegfried Kracauer alongside interventions from the realms of aesthetics education industry politics science and technology The book also features programmatic writings from the Weimar avant garde and from directors such as Fritz Lang and F W Murnau Nearly all documents appear in English for the first time each is meticulously introduced and annotated The most comprehensive collection of German writings on film published to date The Promise of Cinema is an essential resource for students and scholars of film and media critical theory and European culture and history

The A to Z of German Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2010-04-01 German film is diverse and multi faceted its history includes five distinct German governments Wilhelmine Germany the Weimar Republic the Third Reich the Federal Republic of Germany and the German Democratic Republic two national industries Germany and Austria and a myriad of styles and production methods Paradoxically the political disruptions that have produced these distinct film eras as well as the natural inclination of artists to rebel and create new styles allow for the construction of a narrative of German film While the disjuncture generates distinct points of separation it also highlights continuities between the ruptures Outlining the richness of German film The A to Z of German Cinema covers mainstream alternative and experimental film from 1895 to the present through a chronology introductory essay appendix of the 100 most significant German films a bibliography and hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries on directors actors films cinematographers composers producers and major historical events that greatly affected the direction and development of German cinema The book's broad canvas will lead students and scholars of cinema to appreciate the complex nature of German film A Second Life Thomas Elsaesser, Michael Wedel, 1996 In The Beginning Recollections of Software Pioneers records the stories of computing's past enabling today's professionals to improve on the realities of yesterday The stories in this book clearly show that modern concepts such as data abstraction modularity and structured approaches date much earlier in the field than their appearance in academic literature These stories help capture the true evolution The book illustrates human experiences and industry turning points through personal recollections by the pioneers people like Barry Boehm Peter Denning Watts Humphrey Frank Land and a dozen others Pathos and Anti-Pathos Tom Vanassche,2022-12-31 Scholarship often presumes that texts written about the Shoah either by those directly involved in it or those writing its history must always bear witness to the affective aftermath of the event the lingering emotional effects of suffering Drawing on the History of Emotions and on trauma theory this monograph offers a critical study of the ambivalent attributions and expressions of emotion and emotionlessness in the literature and historiography of the Shoah It addresses three phenomena the metaphorical discourses by which emotionality and the purported lack thereof are attributed to victims and to perpetrators the rhetoric of affective self control and of affective distancing in fiction testimony and historiography and the poetics of empathy and the status of emotionality in discourses on the Shoah Through a close analysis of a broad corpus centred around the work of W G Sebald Dieter Schlesak Ruth Kluger and Raul Hilberg the book critically contextualises emotionality and its attributions in the post war era when a scepticism of pathos coincided with demands for factual rigidity Ultimately it invites the reader to reflect on their own affective stances towards history and its commemoration in the twenty first century German Cinema David Clarke,2006-06-07 Edited book offering a survey of recent German cinema Film Music in the Sound Era Jonathan Rhodes Lee,2020-02-11 Film Music in the Sound Era A Research and Information Guide offers a comprehensive bibliography of scholarship on music in sound film 1927 2017 Thematically organized sections cover historical studies studies of musicians and filmmakers genre studies theory and aesthetics and other key aspects of film music studies Broad coverage of works from around the globe paired with robust indexes and thorough cross referencing make this research guide an invaluable tool for all scholars and students investigating the intersection of music and film This guide is published in two volumes Volume 1 Histories Theories and Genres covers overviews historical surveys theory and criticism studies of film genres and case studies of individual films Volume 2 People Cultures and Contexts covers individual people social and cultural studies studies of musical genre pedagogy and the Industry A complete index is included in each volume List of Documents and Publications in the Field of Mass Communication Unesco,1980 Gender and Sexuality in Weimar Modernity R. McCormick,2002-02-22 Richard McCormick takes a fresh look at the crisis of gender in Weimar Germany through the analysis of selected cultural texts both literary and film characterized under the label New Objectivity The New Objectivity was characterized by a sober and unsentimental embrace of urban modernity in contrast to Expressionism s horror of technology and belief in auratic art This movement was profoundly gendered the epitome of the New Objectivity was the New Woman working sexually emancipated and unsentimental The book traces the crisis of gender identities both male and female and reveals how a variety of narratives of the time displaced an assortment of social anxieties onto sexual relations
