TASTE Andrea Pavoni, Danilo Mandic, Caterina Nirta, Andreas Philippopoulos-Mihalopoulos, 2018-07-25 Taste usually occupies the bottom of the sensorial hierarchy as the quintessentially hedonistic sense too close to the animal the elemental and the corporeal and for this reason disciplined and moralised At the same time taste is indissolubly tied to knowledge To taste is to discriminate emit judgement enter an unstable domain of synaesthetic normativity where the certainty of metaphysical categories begins to crumble This second title in the Law and the Senses series explores law using taste as a conceptual and ontological category able to unsettle legal certainties and a promising tool whereby to investigate the materiality of law's relation to the world For what else is law's reduction of the world into legal categories if not law's ingesting the world by tasting it and emitting moral and legal judgements accordingly Through various topics including coffee wine craft cider and Japanese knotweed this volume explores the normativities that shape the way taste is felt and categorised within and beyond subjective phenomenological and human dimensions The result is an original interdisciplinary volume complete with seven speculative recipes dedicated to a rarely explored intersection with contributions from artists legal academics philosophers anthropologists and sociologists

Three Translations of The Koran (Al-Qur'an) side by side Anonymous, 2022-06-13 In Three Translations of The Koran Al Qur'an side by side the anonymous author provides a profound exploration of Islamic scripture through the comparative analysis of three distinct English translations of the Koran This book facilitates a literary examination of the subtleties and nuances inherent in the original Arabic text showcasing variances in interpretation and style The side by side format establishes a unique context allowing readers to appreciate the complexities of themes such as faith morality and guidance that resonate throughout the verses enhancing both scholarly study and spiritual reflection The anonymity of the author underscores a universal approach to sacred texts suggesting an intent to invite diverse readers regardless of religious background into a deeper understanding of the Koran This choice may reflect the author's recognition of the text's global significance and the potential for dialogue among cultures By presenting multiple interpretations the author allows for a richer discourse on faith and thought that might appeal to both practitioners of Islam and academics alike For anyone seeking to deepen their understanding of the Koran or the broader cultural tapestry of Islamic thought this book is an indispensable resource It is especially recommended for those engaged in comparative religion linguistics or translation studies as it provides an invaluable framework to critically assess the multiple layers of meaning within this foundational text

The Ante-Nicene Fathers Alexander Roberts, 1888      The Sovereignty of Taste James S. Hans, 2002-01-26 Challenging prevailing trends toward aesthetic neutrality James S Hans argues that there is such a thing as good and bad taste that taste is something one is born with and that it is firmly rooted in the mechanics of biology Taste is everything Hans says for it produces the primary values that guide our lives Taste is the fundamental organizing mechanism of human bodies a lifelong effort to fit one's own rhythms to the rhythms and patterns of the natural world and the larger human community It is an aesthetic sorting process by which one determines what belongs in a conversation a curriculum a committee a piece of art a meal a logical argument and what should be left out On the one hand taste is the source of beauty justice and a sense of the good On the other hand as an arbiter of the laws of fair and free play taste enters into more ominous and destructive patterns but patterns nonetheless of resentment and violence Hans develops his conception of taste through astute readings of five literary landmarks Milan Kundera's The Unbearable Lightness of Being Sophocles Oedipus the King William Faulkner's Light in August and the poetry of Emily Dickinson and the Polish Nobel Laureate Czeslaw Milosz These texts explore the art of soulmaking and the quest for personal expression the costs as well as the fruits that come from acceding to the imperatives of one's being They also reveal how the collision of personal and collective rhythms whether in the Greek citadel or the Mississippi countryside leads to violence and ritualized sacrifice Elegant principled and provocative The Sovereignty of Taste is an essential book that restores taste to its rightful place of influence shoring up the ground beneath civilization's feet and offering hope for the future of integrity value and aesthetic truth      On Taste Edmund Burke, 1909      Taste and See John Piper, 2009-10-21 A Devotional Powerhouse This revision of the follow up to the popular A Godward Life adds twenty fresh entries to the original 120 daily meditations that are solid meat and sweet milk from God's Word The new entries broach current and controversial subject matter such as partial birth abortion and gay marriage Piper asks the hardest questions and finds wonderfully poignant but practical and applicable truths from the Bible These 350 pages of substantive spiritual nourishment will brace readers minds with truth and nourish their hearts with God s sovereign grace Pastors and lay leaders particularly will appreciate the three indexes included They don t need to look any further to find a pertinent illustration or tidbit of inspiration Expanded Edition of the Popular Godward Life II Devotional Taste and see The Lord is good Psalm 34 8 The soul tastes truth like the lips taste food Spiritual hunger cries out for rich substantial nourishment It is remarkable how much meat these daily portions contain Skillfully presented by pastor John Piper this devotional of contemporary meditations on biblical reality will whet your appetite for more of God Himself and refresh you in your daily communion with Christ This volume is a treasure of true doctrine applied to life R Albert Mohler Jr president Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Going to sleep with John Piper s words on your mind will coax you from complacency and wake you up to a passionate faith Phil Callaway speaker and bestselling author Story Behind the Book John Piper s life long love affair with his church is evidenced in each of the 140 articles included in Taste and See Originally each article was written for his flock at Bethlehem Baptist Church in Minneapolis They are sometimes follow ups to Sunday sermons sometimes meditations of a pastor s heart expressing his longing for the holiness of his congregation Many of the entries are his own relentless interrogations of a biblical text A few are colorful anecdotes from a pastor s daily life a pastor whose heartbeat for God pulsates through every word

Christian Work ,1901 Good Taste, Bad Taste, & Christian Taste Frank Burch Brown,2003 Christians frequently come into conflict with themselves and others over such matters as music popular culture and worship style Yet they usually lack any theology of art or taste adequate to deal with aesthetic disputes In this provocative book Frank Burch Brown offers a constructive ecumenical approach to artistic taste and aesthetic judgment a non elitist but discriminating theological aesthetics that has teeth but no fangs While grounded in history and theory this book takes up such practical questions as How can one religious community accommodate a variety of artistic tastes What good or harm can be done by importing music that is worldly in origin into a house of worship How can the exercise of taste in the making of art be a viable and sometimes advanced spiritual discipline In exploring the complex relation between taste religious imagination and faith Brown offers a new perspective on what it means to be spiritual religious and indeed Christian
