Brantmeier,Maria K. McKenna,2020-03-01 The purpose of this text is to elicit discussion reflection and action specific to pedagogy within education especially higher education and circles of experiential learning community organizing conflict resolution and youth empowerment work Vulnerability itself is not a new term within education however the pedagogical imperatives of vulnerability are both undertheorized in educational discourse and underexplored in practice This work builds on that of Edward Brantmeier in Re Envisioning Higher Education Embodied Pathways to Wisdom and Transformation Lin Oxford advocating and envisioning a more holistic healthy forward thinking model of teaching and learning How do we create cultures of engaged inquiry framed in vulnerability where educators and students are compelled to ask questions just beyond their grasp How can we all be better equipped to ask and answer big beautiful bold even uncomfortable questions that fuel the heart of inquiry and perhaps just maybe lead to a more peaceful and just world A collection of reflections case studies and research focused on the pedagogy of vulnerability is a starting point for this work The book itself is meant to be an example of pedagogical vulnerability wherein the authors work to explicate the most intimate and delicate aspects of the varied pedagogical journeys understandings rooted in vulnerability and those of their students colleagues clients even adversaries It is a work that holds space

Education, Crisis and Philosophy Yusef Waghid, 2022-03-31 This book brings together a discussion of educational philosophy nihilism and humanity to rethink education in times of crisis with a particular focus on teaching and learning in universities The book argues that an educational crisis manifests when the value of academic institutions come under attack looking closely at how higher education practices have been devalued The book is situated in the context of three intertwined crises the coronavirus pandemic economic decline resulting in poverty and unemployment and the crisis of human migration It questions what the role of education is or ought to be in times of crisis and how our humanity ought to be cultivated during such turbulent times This novel and timely text will be of great interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of educational philosophy higher education and international education
