Taming the Wind of Desire Carol Laderman, 1993 Healing Powers and Modernity Linda H. Connor, Geoffrey Samuel, 2001-02-28 What is the current state of traditional healing practices in contemporary Asian societies How are their practitioners faring in the encounter with Western science and its biomedical approach How are traditional healing practices being transformed by the politics of health within the modern nation state and by the processes of commodification typical of modern economies How do patients in Asian societies see the various healing options now open to them The authors all of whom are anthropologists observe the clashes and complementarities between traditional therapies and biomedicine which in its many manifestations is the dominant form of medicine supported by national governments and is emblematic of the modernity to which they aspire Some of the medical traditions such as the sophisticated herbal humoral systems of Tibetan medicine and Indian Ayurveda are becoming well known in the West both through scholarly study and through their increasing popularity with Western patients interested in their healing potential This book adds a new dimension to their study being focused unlike most previous writing on practice rather than textual tradition Theatre Histories Phillip B. Peletz, 2023-11-15 This book provides a historical and ethnographic examination of gender relations in Malay society in particular in the well known state of Negeri Sembilan famous for its unusual mixture of Islam and matrilineal descent Peletz analyzes the diverse ways in which the evocative heavily gendered symbols of reason and passion are deployed by Malay Muslims Unlike many studies of gender this book elucidates the cultural and political processes implicated in the constitution of both feminine and masculine identity It also scrutinizes the relationship between gender and kinship and weighs the role of ideology in everyday life Peletz insists on the importance of examining gender systems not as social isolates but in relation to other patterns of hierarchy and social difference His study is historical and comparative it also explores the political economy of contested symbols and meanings More than a treatise on gender and social change in a Malay society this book presents a valuable and deeply interesting model for the analysis of gender and culture by addressing issues of hegemony and cultural domination at the heart of contemporary cultural studies This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996 Ethnomusicology Jennifer Post, 2004-03-01 Ethnomusicology A Research and Information Guide is an annotated bibliography of books recordings videos and websites in the field of ethnomusicology The book is divided into two parts Part One is organised by resource type in catagories of greatest concern to students and scholars This includes handbooks and guides encyclopedias and dictionaries indexes and bibliographies journals media sources and archives It also offers annotated entries on the basic literature of ethnomusicological history and research Part Two provides a list of current publications in the field that are widely used by ethnomusicologists Multiply indexed this book serves as an excellent tool for librarians researchers and scholars in sorting through the massive amount of new material that has appeared in the field over the past decades Medicine, Rationality and Experience Byron J. Good, 1994 Biomedicine is often thought to provide a scientific account of the human body and of illness In this view non Western and folk medical systems are regarded as systems of belief and subtly discounted This is an impoverished perspective for understanding illness and healing across cultures one that neglects many facets of Western medical practice and obscures its kinship with healing in other traditions Drawing on his research in several American and Middle Eastern medical settings in this 1993 book Professor Good develops a critical anthropological account of medical knowledge and practice He shows how physicians and healers enter and inhabit distinctive worlds of meaning and experience He explores how stories or illness narratives are joined with bodily experience in shaping and responding to human suffering and argues that moral and aesthetic considerations are present in routine medical practice as in other forms of healing The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike Everyday Life in South Asia Diane P. Mines, Sarah Lamb, 2002 A lively and informative introduction to the peoples and cultures of South Asia Male and Female in Developing South-East Asia Karim Wazir Wazir, 2021-03-10 This provocative book seeks to redress inaccuracies in Western perceptions of gender relations in Southeast Asia by bringing to the fore the area's ethnic and cultural variance and showing how women and men explain the informal and psychological dimensions of relationships as vital in holding family neighbourhood and kinship ties together Although there are differences between male and female perceptions of sex roles in society women perceive their situation as disadvantaged rather than less significant Male female interpretations of power and status tend to converge usually towards the understanding that the contributions of men and women are equally important in the formation of family and society

The Hammer and the Flute Mary Keller, 2005-04-14 Award for the Best First Book in the History of Religions from the American Academy of Religion Feminist theory and postcolonial theory share an interest in developing theoretical frameworks for describing and evaluating subjectivity comparatively especially with regard to non autonomous models of agency As a historian of religions Mary Keller uses the figure of the possessed woman to analyze a subject that is spoken through rather than speaking and whose will is the will of the ancestor deity or spirit that wields her to engage the question of agency in a culturally and historically comparative study that recognizes the prominent role possessed women play in their respective traditions Drawing from the fields of anthropology and comparative psychology Keller brings the figure of the possessed woman into the heart of contemporary argument as an exemplary model that challenges many Western and feminist assumptions regarding agency Proposing a new theoretical framework that re orients scholarship Keller argues that the subject who is wielded or played the hammer or the flute exercises a paradoxical authority instrumental agency born of their radical receptivity their power derives from the communities assessment that they no longer exist as autonomous agents For Keller the possessed woman is at once hammer and flute paradoxically powerful because she has become an instrument of the overpowering will of an ancestor deity or spirit Keller applies the concept of instrumental agency to case studies providing a new interpretation of each She begins with contemporary possessions in Malaysia where women in manufacturing plants were seized by spirits seeking to resacralize the territory She next looks to wartime Zimbabwe where female spirit mediums the Nehanda mhondoro declared the ancestors will to fight against colonialism Finally she provides an imaginative rereading of the performative power of possession by interpreting two plays Euripides Bacchae and S Y Ansky s The Dybbuk which feature possessed women as central characters This book can serve as an excellent introduction to postcolonial and feminist theory for graduate students while grounding its theory in the analysis of regionally and historically specific moments of time that will be of interest to specialists It also provides an argument for the evaluation of religious lives and their struggles for meaning and power in the contemporary landscape of critical theory Healing Secular Life Christopher Dole, 2012-08-16 In contemporary Turkey a democratic secular and predominantly Muslim nation the religious healer is a controversial figure Attracting widespread condemnation religious healers are derided as exploiters of the sick and vulnerable discredited forms of Islamic and medical authority and superstitious relics of a pre modern era Yet all sorts of people and not just the desperately ill continue to seek them out After years of research with healers and their patients in working class neighborhoods of urban Turkey anthropologist Christopher Dole concludes that the religious healer should be regarded not as an exception to Turkey's secular modern development but as one of its defining figures Healing Secular Life demonstrates that religious healing and secularism in fact have a set of common stakes in the ordering of lives and the remaking of worlds Linking the history of medical reforms and scientific literacy campaigns to contemporary efforts of Our anic healers to treat people afflicted by spirits and living saints through whom deceased political leaders speak Healing Secular Life approaches stories of healing and being healed as settings for examining the everyday social intimacies of secular political rule This ethnography of loss care and politics reveals not only that the authority of the religious healer is deeply embedded within the history of secular modern reform in Turkey but also that personal narratives of suffering and affliction are inseparable from the story of a nation seeking to recover from the violence of its own secular past and Gifts at the Frontier Jose S. Buenconsejo, 2013-11-26 This book investigates the particular history and social experience by a marginalized society in Mindanao Island Philippines through an analysis of the speech song and dance in spirit possession ritual Using the concepts of exchange and reciprocity Buenconsejo connects the performativity of ritual song to the formation and maintenance of sociability personhood and subjectivity Also inlcludes maps Sharia Dynamics Timothy P. Daniels, 2017-01-12 This multidisciplinary volume explores the role of Islamic law within the dynamic processes of postcolonial transformation nation building and social reform Here eleven international scholars examine Islamic law in several contemporary sociopolitical contexts focusing specifically on Malaysia Indonesia Pakistan China Tunisia Nigeria the

United States and the International Islamic Fiqh Academy IIFA of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC The contributors also address the entanglement of Islamic law and ethics with the history of Muslim religious discourses shifts toward modernity gender relations and efforts to construct exclusive or plural national communities Sharia Dynamics at once enchanting and enlightening is a must read for scholars of contemporary Islam
