Death Couldn't Convince Me Kris Jugler, 2011-04 Homeless at age 14 Kris used his athletic ability to claw his way through public school and then nearly through college However the deep scars of his past began to take over Broken and defeated at age twenty two having sabotaged his college team his scholarship his mind and what he thought was the love of his life darkness made its claim Fed up believing the challenges he and his siblings were forced to endure were vastly unjust he gave up all belief and hope in God Having a near death experience Kris was still unable to overcome his atheist beliefs In addition as astonishing as being on the other side of the veil was it did not convince him that God lived nor did he find the experience religiously significant It was only after four years of deep dark depression that a real miracle took place Read and find out how a boy and his siblings endured one traumatic set back after another Then after finding what he thought were the keys to happiness Kris had to face one more trial that threatens the very fibers that he has believed in Was his childhood catching up with him once again or was it his strict obedience to Mormon doctrine that caused this latest collapse

The Last Dance for Grace Crystal Mangum, Gail Mangum Mangum, 2008-06 As a single mother trying to go to college and raise her children Crystal Gail Mangum believing her options were limited made a choice to become an exotic dancer to earn money This decision which she now views as the biggest mistake in her life led her to one night in 2006 appear before a group of Duke University lacrosse players at a house party What ensued next changed her life as well as theirs This is her story Source other than Library of Congress
