Tanganyika Territory Charlotte Leubuscher, Royal Institute of International Affairs, 1944 Tanganyika Territory; a Study of Economic Policy Under Mandate. Issued Under the Auspices of the Royal Institute of International Affairs Charlotte Leubuscher, The Statesman's Year-Book S. Steinberg, 2016-12-28 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Statesman's Year-Book M. Epstein, 2016-12-27 The classic reference work that provides annually updated information on the countries of the world The Guardians Susan Pedersen, 2015-04-29 Winner of the Cundill Prize in Historical Literature Shortlisted for the Lionel Gelber Prize At the end of the First World War the Paris Peace Conference saw a battle over the future of empire The victorious allied powers wanted to annex the Ottoman territories and German colonies they had occupied Woodrow Wilson and a groundswell of anti imperialist activism stood in their way France Belgium Japan and the British dominions reluctantly agreed to an Anglo American proposal to hold and administer those allied conquests under mandate from the new League of Nations In the end fourteen mandated territories were set up across the Middle East Africa and the Pacific Against all odds these disparate and far flung territories became the site and the vehicle of global transformation In this masterful history of the mandates system Susan Pedersen illuminates the role the League of Nations played in creating the modern world Tracing the system from its creation in 1920 until its demise in 1939 Pedersen examines its workings from the realm of international diplomacy the viewpoints of the League s experts and officials and the arena of local struggles within the territories themselves Featuring a cast of larger than life figures including Lord Lugard King Faisal Chaim Weizmann and Ralph Bunche the narrative sweeps across the globe from windswept scrublands along the Orange River to famine blighted hilltops in Rwanda to Damascus under French bombardment but always returns to Switzerland and the sometimes vicious battles over ideas of civilization independence economic relations and sovereignty in the Geneva headquarters As Pedersen shows although the architects and officials of the mandates system always sought to uphold imperial authority colonial nationalists German revisionists African American intellectuals and others were able to use the platform Geneva offered to challenge their claims Amid this cacophony imperial statesmen began exploring new means client states economic concessions of securing Western hegemony In the end the mandate system helped to create the world in which we now live A riveting work of global history The Guardians enables us to look back at the League with new eyes and in doing so appreciate how complex multivalent and consequential this first great experiment in internationalism really was Colonialism in Africa 1870-1960: Volume 4 L. H. Gann, Peter Duignan, 1969 A comprehensive study of recent African history examining the political social and economic effects of colonialism Research Paper, 1954 Tanzania Andrew Coulson, 2013-07-25 Tanzania in the 1970s was at the forefront of policy innovation Near universal primary education access to health services and supplies of clean water subsequently became mainstream ambitions in Africa and elsewhere But its policies towards agricultural and industrial production failed and left the country in a particularly weak position when it faced the demands of structural adjustment in the 1980s This book originally published in 1982 has been reissued with a new introduction which brings its themes up to the present when income from gold mining and natural gas is making Tanzania one of the most dynamic economies in Africa today The author first an economic civil servant in Tanzania later an academic at the University of Dar es Salaam was in a unique position to write it drawing on his own experiences as well as the plethora of ideas and debates in Dar es Salaam in the 1970s The book has stood the test of time not only because of the range of material it covers but more profoundly because of the approach it takes to the work of Tanzania s founding president Julius Nyerere sympathetic to his ideas deeply critical of failures in implementation 25 short easily read chapters take the story of Tanzania from pre colonial times to the present and show how Nyerere was hemmed in by what he inherited from the German and British colonialists who ran the country up to Independence in 1961 It provides an invaluable introduction to anyone coming to the country for the first time and offers a profound assessment of the theoretical debates that have made Tanzania of such interest to students of development

Visions for an African Valley DR JONATHAN M. JACKSON, 2025-03-11 What was the effect of the numerous albeit often unsatisfied plans for development on the land and communities of the Kilombero valley throughout the colonial period and into the first decades of independence This book traces histories of development in and crucially visions of development for the Kilombero valley of south central Tanzania Taking the notion of development planning as a form of future making the book examines the many visions or past futures projected onto Kilombero by colonial and national governments by international organisations syndicates and individuals It examines how such plans were conceived evaluates their successes and analyses their shortcomings against changing political and economic landscapes Four key themes agricultural intensification ecology control infrastructure and re settlement are shown to persistently surface and continue to shape the valleyscape today By considering past future visions for the reorganisation of rural life in Tanzania the book reveals how even recent initiatives have suffered through their failure to learn from this history Offering fresh insights and approaches to the historiography of development Visions for an African Valley shows Kilombero to be a prism which refracts broader phenomena across more
