Tao Of Real Estate:

The Tao of Real Estate - Investing with Confidence David Nuyen, 2004-04 This book covers concepts strategy tactics implementation and execution for the real estate business It also copes with real estate problems and presents real life solutions in the real estate business world The Globalisation of Real Estate Dallas Rogers, Sin Koh, 2018-12-07

Individual foreign investment in residential real estate by new middle class and super rich investors is re emerging as a key issue in academic policy and public debates around the world At its most abstract global real estate is increasingly thought of as a liquid asset class that is targeted by foreign individual investors who are seeking to diversify their investment portfolios But foreign investors are also motivated by intergenerational familial security transnational migration strategies and short term educational plans which are all closely entwined with global real estate investment Government and local public responses to the latest manifestation of global real estate investment have taken different forms These range from pro foreign investment primarily justified on geopolitical and macro economic grounds to anti foreign investment for reasons such as mitigating public dissent and protecting the local housing market Within this changing geopolitical context this book offers a diverse range of case studies from Canada Hong Kong Singapore Russia Australia and Korea It will be of interest to academics policymakers and university students who are interested in the globalisation of local real estate The chapters in this book were originally published in the International Journal of Housing Policy From Case to Law William W.

Guo, 2025-10-01 This book provides an in depth account of how judicial decisions are published and used in the Netherlands as a source of law The findings are linked to the existing English language literature related to the role of cases in civil law jurisdictions in order to seek new insights that may enrich this body of scholarly writings This book also describes the efforts of China since the 1980s to create a case law system and explores the possible implications that can be drawn from the experiences with case law in the Netherlands for China to further enhance its case law practice Contrary to the commonly adopted result oriented approach this study experimented with a processual approach to study the role of judicial decisions as a source of law in a codified legal system It is submitted that cases cannot be said to be purely judge made law in a civil law jurisdiction as this study demonstrates that which judgments eventually become the leading cases that shape the law depends on the outcome of a process of rational discourse in which not only judges but also other actors such as legal scholars and practising lawyers participate and exercise influence Housing Reform and China's Real Estate Industry

Commercial Dispute Resolution in China Beijing Arbitration Commission / Beijing International Arbitration Center, 2020-09-17 In 2019 the world economic slowdown already under way reflected common influence across the countries The cyclical and structural slowdowns in China have fueled disputes in the marketplace and thus created a rising number in the statistics of commercial dispute resolution in China

Many developments in the field of arbitration and mediation mark the milestones of building the rule based practice. Some of these developments have already brought positive effects in the dispute resolution industry amid the slowing down economy. To present an insightful understanding of the developments of commercial dispute resolution in China, the Beijing Arbitration Commission / Beijing International Arbitration Center hereinafter referred to as the BAC / BIAC continually invites experts to author 12 chapters of this book, namely the chapters on commercial arbitration, commercial mediation, construction, real estate, energy, international trade, investment, finance, intellectual property, civil aviation, entertainment and sports. The impact of economic slowdown also projects profound changes in each different specialized sector. More detailed and targeted legislation and regulations have emerged in 2019 as the response to the changing climate of the business environment. In this book, experts from the front line gathered and wrote each chapter as the reflection of their first hand experience on the overview, updates of legislation and regulation, case studies, debated issues and outlook of the industries. It is the eighth edition of the Annual Review and Preview of the Commercial Dispute Resolution in China. In this edition, for the first time, experts from in and out China co-authored one of the chapters, i.e. the chapter on sport, which is a new creation of this book. The authors of this new chapter examine the Chinese legislation, regulation and cases in the field of sport from different perspectives. For example, the athlete Yang Sun's arbitration case has been debriefed and may help readers gain the pulse of the dispute resolution of sport in China. In general, the book presents to all stakeholders a reference of the commercial dispute resolution in China and unlocks intricacies of each different sectors. This book endeavors to record the development of rules, leading cases and the pulse of the field. By reading this book, practitioners will understand what to look for when solving commercial disputes in China.

Commercial Dispute Resolution in China Wolters Kluwer Hong Kong, Beijing Arbitration Commission / Beijing International Arbitration Center, 2021-11-15

2020 marked a remarkably unusual year for all. Tough and impressive enough. Along with the prevalence of COVID-19 and the deepening of economic globalization, work and production in China were resumed in an orderly manner, bringing positive economic growth against the trend. In this context, commercial dispute resolutions in China were faced with new challenges and endured new reforms while embracing new developments. The promulgation of new laws and regulations in 2020, including the Civil Code of the People's Republic of China and the Supplementary Arrangements on Mutual Implementation of Arbitral Awards in Mainland China and Hong Kong Special Administrative Region, has elevated the arbitration system to a higher level. Arbitration institutions such as the Beijing Arbitration Commission / Beijing International Arbitration Center hereinafter referred to as BAC / BIAC carried out anti-pandemic measures in a timely manner to ensure the well functioning of the arbitration procedures. Meanwhile, China's judicial supervision on arbitration and arbitration disclosure have undergone impressive developments. In 2020, the procedural standards of commercial mediation were further optimized and commercial mediation institutions continued to expand and grow while the number of mediation cases increased steadily. The one-stop diversified dispute resolution system was fully advanced and the systems of litigation mediation and arbitration mediation have been constantly improved Online mediation mechanism was rapidly developed in response to the new norms of pandemic prevention and control Sino foreign joint mediation mechanism has been gradually established and international commercial mediation rules and systems are continuously refined While rolling out countermeasures in full scale to mitigate impacts of pandemic China achieved some eye catching accomplishments in terms of legal system development and dispute resolution practices in 2020 To present an in depth and systematic report on the 2020 practices and developments in the aforementioned fields BAC BIAC has called upon industry experts to contribute to the Annual Review and Preview of Commercial Dispute Resolution in China 2021 2021 Annual Review and released it in both Chinese and English to facilitate a better understanding of the status quo of China s commercial dispute resolutions among interested parties at home and abroad The 2021 Annual Review is compiled based on the following principles First focus on the state of the art The 2021 Annual Review strives to showcase the latest developments in relevant industries and the leading trends in legal systems and judicial practices It selected annual hot topics for in depth analysis aiming to deliver timely observations and cutting edge contents while providing detailed information thereof Second focus on consistency and systematises By inheriting previous compilation rules the 2021 Annual Review presents an annual overview of various industries crucial laws and policies typical cases analyses of heated issues and prospects such that the readers are able to grasp the practices and developments of key industries from a multi angle holistic perspective Third focus on practicability The 2021 Annual Review pays attention to the pragmatic value in order to help commercial entities improve their abilities of risk prevention and dispute resolution The Editorial Committee is composed of seasoned professionals who deliver observations and opinions based on their rich experience on the industry s frontline providing practical references for the readers

The Social Properties of Concrete Eli Elinoff,2025-05-09 Concrete is a ubiquitous part of our world It composes our dwellings and shapes our infrastructures It unites and divides urban space and is used to wage both war and peace Concrete is simultaneously an indicator of freedom and development and is an essential part of the carceral apparatus The Social Properties of Concrete begins from the premise that concrete is as richly social as it is densely material Just as concrete s materiality permeates our everyday life our political projects social practices religious concepts environmental transformations and ethical questions suffuse concrete structures Like concrete itself The Social Properties of Concrete is an aggregate it draws together essays by social scientists historians architects artists and urban planners who each blend social theory material science and empirical analysis to explore the ways in which social life is embedded within concrete and to inquire about how concrete shapes social life Across forty globally situated chapters these essays open new conversations around our relationships with anthropogenic stone and serve as a teachable introduction to the social and political lives of materials By taking this approach this volume develops a conceptual language and methodological approach that should inform new understandings of material politics and our built environment The social properties of concrete are neither metaphors nor are they simple reflections of the social Instead they are modes of materially enacting social economic and political life itself
