The Festivals of Nepal Mary M. Anderson, 2024-10-30 First Published in 1971 The Festivals of Nepal describes the most important festivals from the country which have been arranged according to the ancient Nepalese calendar beginning with the New Year in mid April The author provides moreover a brief introductory sketch of Nepalese geography history and religion to give background to what follows When Mary Anderson began her five year residence in Kathmandu as the wife of a diplomat she attended the frequent Nepalese festivals up and down the Valley because they were mysterious colourful and great fun But soon she became more deeply absorbed in the meaning of these ancient activities as she grew quickly aware that to the Nepalese themselves the ancient processions and rituals were of great importance Somewhere almost every day there seems to be in Nepal a festival of some kind but now that this hitherto secret land has been opened up to tourists and foreign influences much of this historic pageantry may well be lost The modernization of Nepalese society is certain to have its effects but when these artless celebrations become the goal of spectators from outside they will also lose its spontaneity Mary Anderson was determined to record as many of them as she could explaining their mythological religious and historical backgrounds and relating some of the wealth of legends and folk tales that surround them This is an interesting read for students of sociology of culture South Asian studies South Asian religion and culture and Hindu religion

The Festivals of Nepal Ravindra Dhvoju, 2015 The Nepal Festivals Dhurba Krishna Deep, 1978 The Festival of Indra Michael Baltutis, 2023-06-01 The Festival of Indra details the textual and performative history of an important South Asian festival and its role in the development of classical Hinduism Drawing on various genres of Sanskrit textual sources especially the epic Mahabharata the book highlights the innovative ways that this annual public festival has supported the stable royal power responsible for the sponsorship of these texts More than just a textual project however the book devotes significant ethnographic attention to the only contemporary performance of this festival that adheres to the classical Sanskrit record the Indrajatra of Kathmandu Nepal Here Indra's tall pole remains the festival's focal point though its addition of the royal blessing by Kumari the living goddess of Nepal and the regular presence of the fierce god Bhairav show several significant ways that ritual agents have re-constructed this festival over the past two thousand years
