The Aviators W.E.B. Griffin, 1989-05-01 It is 1964 The Vietnam War has begun to escalate its new style of battle demanding new weapons and tactics and men who can use them Overnight it seems the United States Army must scramble to create its first ever Air Assault Division a force critical to its chances of success The obstacles are staggering untrained men technical mishaps interservice rivalries But through sheer courage and dedication these heroic fighters rise to the challenge For they are America's bravest facing the ultimate test

Pioneer Aviators Frank Hitchens, 2023-11-22 Pioneer Aviators records the various stages of man's journey into the skies taking the reader from the earliest years of experimentation through the early age of ballooning into heavier than air flight our ventures into space and even all the way back around to modern human powered vessels The book introduces the reader to almost three hundred aviation pioneers and the aircraft they flew and is illustrated throughout with photographs mostly from the author's own collection Due to the historical importance of these aircraft and as a tribute to those who flew them many are now housed in museums across the world Without the efforts and sacrifices of the pioneers we would not have the aviation industry of today

Air Force Magazine, 2003 General Roy S. Geiger, USMC Marine Aviator, Joint Force Commander Major James B. Wellons USMC, 2015-11-06 This work comprises an effort to answer the question of how an airman can be qualified to be a Joint Force Commander using the biographical example of General Roy S Geiger USMC Geiger was the fifth designated Marine Aviator earning his wings in June of 1917 He then served as a squadron commander in the First Marine Aviation Force in World War I WW I where he flew combat sorties and earned his first Navy Cross In the interwar years he served in multiple command billets acted as head of Marine Aviation and performed with distinction as a student at the Army Command and General Staff School and the Army and Navy War Colleges During World War II Geiger commanded the First Marine Aircraft Wing and the CACTUS Air Force in the dark days of the Guadalcanal Campaign in 1942 where at age fifty seven he again flew in combat earning his second Navy Cross He went on to serve as an Amphibious Corps Commander in the Pacific Theater where he led campaigns at Bougainville Guam and Peleliu Finally he distinguished himself in the battle of Okinawa as the only Marine ever to command a field Army the Tenth Army After World War II Lieutenant General Geiger continued to shape the Marine Corps in command of Fleet Marine Forces Pacific until his premature death in 1947 The study is a chronological account of the life of Roy Geiger with a focus on his leadership traits extensive professional military education remarkable joint relationships and innovation all of which contributed to his success as a Joint Force Commander The author argues that Geiger was the most influential Marine aviator and among the most successful operational commanders in the history of the United States Marine Corps Roy Geiger was the prototype for a Joint Force Commander
