The First Men Round The World In Profile:

Profiles from History Volume 1 Ashley M. Wiggers, 2009 Profiles from History takes a fresh look at familiar faces. Along with beautiful illustrations and fascinating stories, this book encourages children to think about the motivations of twenty historical figures. Activities and discussion questions help students recognize the effect these individuals have had on history. The profiles include Marco Polo, Johannes Gutenberg, William Bradford, Squanto, Galileo, Christopher Columbus, John Smith, Leonardo da Vinci, Pocahontas, William Shakespeare, Michelangelo, James Cook, George Frideric Handel, Benjamin Franklin, Meriwether Lewis, William Clark, Thomas Jefferson, Sacagawea, Mozart, Zebulon Pike, Francois Millet, and Jesse Applegate. Did you know Benjamin Franklin had such an impact that nearly 20,000 people attended his funeral? Johannes Gutenberg invented the printing press to make the written word available to all, not just the wealthy. Pocahontas bravely risked her life on more than one occasion to save others. Francois Millet was one of the first to paint common people with honor and dignity. Jesse Applegate blazed a safer trail out west so that others would never have to experience his pain. Profiles include a variety of fun activities such as crossword puzzles, word scrambles, and sequencing. Timeline figures add depth and perspective. Make learning personal and memorable with Profiles from History.

A History of Broadcasting in the United States: The Image Empire Erik Barnouw, 1970-02-18 During the iQSo s in a frontier atmosphere of enterprise and sharp struggle an American television system took shape But even as it did so its pioneers pushed beyond American borders and became programmers to scores of other nations In its first decade United States television was already a world phenomenon Since American radio had for some time had international ramifications American images and sounds were radiating from transmitter towers throughout the globe They were called entertainment or news or education but were always more They were a reflection of a growing United States involvement in the lives of other nations an involvement of imperial scope The role of broadcasters in this American expansion and in the era that produced it is the subject matter of The Image Empire the last of three volumes comprising this study

Profiles In Hue George D. Johnson, 2011-01-17 Reverend George D Johnson s Profiles in Hue is one of the most exhaustive works on the history of black America But what makes Johnson s work stand apart from other works is that he does not limit himself to the history of blacks but includes a discussion on other racial groups such as the Japanese internment during WWII and Native Americans that have suffered mistreatment Johnson says I never really liked the term Black History because of its narrowness Longevity has taught me to believe there is only one Universal race and that s the human race comprised of many shades of colors coming from a single source of LIGHT And upon that belief I could not limit my research to just the history of blacks who have contributed to making the multi color quilt that covers this great country of ours known as the United States of America in which the title of this book Profiles in Hue emerged Johnson s exhaustive seminal work provides us with a more exhaustive piece on politics and religion arts and sciences labor and industry law education sports and entertainment among other fields Another purpose of Johnson s treatise is to acquaint young minds with the hardships defeats and victories of those who came before them By doing so these young minds can pick up the intellectual torch and keep hope alive Johnson says It s essential that we must always try to keep alive the memories of those who came before us
