The Flemish Masters:

Bruegel to Rubens Desmond Shawe-Taylor, Jennifer Scott, 2007 Everyone is familiar with the Golden Age of Dutch art this is an opportunity to explore its no less glorious Flemish counterpart It is said that much of the greatest art is produced during periods of strife In the mid 16th century Flanders the United Provinces in the north modern Holland and the Spanish Netherlands in the south modern Belgium was the most sophisticated society in Europe but its learning and luxury industries were all but annihilated by the so called Dutch Revolt and by the Eighty Years War that followed 1568 1648 Two thirds of the works discussed here were painted during this turbulent period including Pieter Bruegel s Massacre of the Innocents of 1567 During the Renaissance the Low Countries attained a flawless technique of painting and the highest standards of craftsmanship This tradition survived during even the worst years of the war

The Flemish Masters Matthias Depoorter, Till-Holger Borchert, 2022-09-28 Lavishly illustrated with many full page and mind blowing illustrations The lavishly illustrated art book The Flemish Masters From Van Eyck to Bruegel takes in almost a century and a half of painting from around 1430 until the death of Pieter Bruegel the Elder in 1569 In the course of those years painting in the Low Countries modern day Belgium and parts of the Netherlands and northern France reached unprecedented heights The Flemish Masters From Van Eyck to Bruegel offers a representative survey of the most important and influential painters of the period and of all the genres of painting that were developed or renewed in the region The author Matthias Depoorter explores what made these paintings so new and special This approach is both genre based and thematic revealing something about the different artistic styles formats functions and strands as well as the artistic and societal context in which they arose These painters were thoroughly acquainted with each other s work They frequently borrowed elements from a colleague and did something new with it Artistic cross fertilization was fundamental

The German and Flemish Masters Mary H. Witt, 2015-07-26 Excerpt from The German and Flemish Masters In the National Gallery The important and interesting collections of German and Flemish pictures in the National Gallery have scarcely received the special study which has been accorded so often to the rival schools of Italy They have never perhaps been treated as a whole nor in that intimate relation to one another which their early history demands The literature connected with German and Flemish art is indeed extensive and increasing Since the remarkable Exhibition held at Bruges in 1902 the early Flemish painters in particular have been subjected to the most careful and critical examination and much that was before cloudy and vague has been defined while many new problems have arisen No attempt has been made in this volume to enter upon the more controversial aspects of the subject The vexed question of attributions is after all of secondary importance to the intrinsic beauty of the pictures The writer s object has been to trace the development of these schools through the examples in our Gallery and to sum up in regard to them the results of the most recent criticism acknowledging here the debt due to the indefatigable researches of writers both in this country and abroad About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The German and Flemish Masters in the National Gallery Mary H.
