Pierce, 2019-12-02 In Excavations at the Seila Pyramid and Fag el Gamous Cemetery the excavation team provides crucial information about the Old Kingdom and Graeco Roman Egypt While both periods have been heavily studied Kerry Muhlestein and his contributors provide new archaeological information that will help shape thinking about these eras The construction and ritual features of the early Fourth Dynasty

Seila Pyramid represents innovations that would influence royal funerary cult for hundreds of years Similarly as one of the largest excavated cemeteries of Egypt Fag el Gamous helps paint a picture of multi cultural life in the Fayoum of Egypt during the Ptolemaic and Roman periods Excavations there provide a statistically impactful understanding of funerary customs under the influence of new cultures and religion Fayoum R Neil Hewison,2014-05-10 The Fayoum a large and exceptionally fertile depression in Egypt's Western Desert some 90 kilometers southwest of Cairo is a region both rich in history and outstanding in natural beauty Its historical legacy includes temples pyramids and towns from the Middle Kingdom and the Ptolemaic Period as well as churches monasteries and mosques from later times Neil Hewison here outlines the history and prehistory of the Fayoum and its lakes describes the agriculture and rural life of the region then guides the visitor around the province site by site never averse to taking an interesting detour along the way Originally published in 1984 this guide to one of Egypt's most distinctive and beautiful regions quickly became regarded as a classic The text has been thoroughly revised and updated for this new edition including a new section on the recently declared UNESCO World Heritage Site of Wadi al Hitan the Valley of the Whales The book is illustrated with color photographs and two maps Recommended by Lonely Planet Alexandria, a History and Guide and Pharos and Pharillon Edward Morgan Forster,2004 The aim of the Abinger Editions is to provide a new properly edited library of the literary works of E M Forster that does justice to his literary genius The latest in the series is Alexandria written while Forster was in Egypt during the First World War This edition collates and compares all the existing editions of the work to provide the definitive version of the text It also contains the subsequent work by Forster Pharos and Pharillon A History of Egypt Jason Thompson,2011-03-02 In A History of Egypt Jason Thompson has written the first one volume work to encompass all 5 000 years of Egyptian history highlighting the surprisingly strong connections between the ancient land of the Pharaohs and the modern day Arab nation No country's past can match Egypt's in antiquity richness and variety However it is rarely presented as a comprehensive panorama because scholars tend to divide it into distinct eras prehistoric pharaonic Greco Roman Coptic medieval Islamic Ottoman and modern that are not often studied in relation to one another In this daringly ambitious project drawing on the most current scholarship as well as his own research Thompson makes the case that few if any other countries have as many threads of continuity running through their entire historical experience With its unprecedented scope and lively and readable style A History of Egypt offers students travelers and general readers alike an engaging narrative of the extraordinarily long course of human history by the Nile Ancient Near Eastern History and Culture William H. Stiebing Jr.,2016-07-01 This introduction to the Ancient Near East includes coverage of Egypt and a balance of political social and cultural coverage Organized by the periods kingdoms and empires generally used in Near Eastern political history the text interlaces social and cultural history with the political narrative This combination allows students to get a rounded introduction to the subject of Ancient Near Eastern history An emphasis on problems and areas of uncertainty helps students understand how evidence is used to create interpretations and allows them to realize that several different interpretations of the same evidence are possible This introduction to the Ancient Near East includes coverage of Egypt and a balance of political social and cultural coverage

The Christian Epigraphy of Egypt and Nubia Jacques van der Vliet, 2018-04-20 Collected Studies CS1070

The present book collects 31 articles that Jacques van der Vliet a leading scholar in the field of Coptic Studies Leiden University Radboud University Nijmegen has published since 1999 on Christian inscriptions from Egypt and Nubia These inscriptions are dated between the third fourth and the fourteenth centuries and are often written in Coptic and or Greek once in Latin and sometimes partly in Arabic Syriac or Old Nubian They include inscriptions on tomb stones walls of religious buildings tools vessels furniture amulets and even texts on luxury garments Whereas earlier scholars in the field of Coptic Studies often focused on either Coptic or Greek Van der Vliet argues that inscriptions in different languages that appear in the same space or on the same kind of objects should be examined together In addition he aims to combine the information from documentary texts archaeological remains and inscriptions in order to reconstruct the economic social and religious life of monastic or civil communities He practiced this methodology in his studies on the Fayum Wadi al Natrun Sohag Western Thebes and the region of Aswan and Northern Nubia which are all included in this book
