Find Your Story, Write Your Memoir Lynn C. Miller, Lisa Lenard-Cook, 2013-05-31 Every person has a story to tell, but few beginners know how to uncover their story's narrative potential. And despite a growing interest among students and creative writers, few guides to the genre of memoirs and creative nonfiction highlight compelling storytelling strategies. Addressing this gap, the authors provide a guide to memoir writing that shows how an aspiring writer can use storytelling tools and tactics borrowed from fiction to weave personal experiences into the shape of a story.

Fantasy Fiction Jennifer Pullen, 2023-12-14 The first fantasy writing textbook to combine a historical genre overview with an anthology and comprehensive craft guide, this book explores the blueprints of one of the most popular forms of genre fiction. The first section will acquaint readers with the vast canon of existing fantasy fiction and outline the many subgenres encompassed within it, before examining the important relationship between fantasy and creative writing, the academy, and publishing. A craft guide follows, which equips students with the key concepts of storytelling as they are impacted by writing through a fantastical lens. These include Character and dialogue, Point of view, Plot and structure, Worldbuilding, settings, ideologies, and cultures, Style and revision. The third section guides students through the spectrum of styles as they are classified in fantasy fiction, from Epic and high fantasy through Lovecraftian and Weird fiction to magical realism and hybrid fantasy. An accompanying anthology will provide students with a greater awareness of the range of possibilities open to them as fantasy writers and will feature such writers as Ursula Le Guin, China Miéville, Theodora Goss, Emrys Donaldson, Ken Liu, C. S. E. Cooney, Vandana Singh, Sofia Samatar, Rebecca Roanhorse, Jessie Ulmer, Yxta Maya Murray, and Rachael K. Jones. With writing exercises, prompts, additional online resources,
