The Films of René Clair: Documentation R. C. Dale, 1986 The Films of René Clair R. C. Dale, 1986 French Musical Culture and the Coming of Sound Cinema Hannah Lewis, 2018-09-05 In French Musical Culture and the Coming of Sound Cinema author Hannah Lewis argues that debates about sound film resonated deeply within French musical culture of the early 1930s and conversely that discourses surrounding French musical styles and genres shaped cinematic experiments during the transition to sound Film and the Anarchist Imagination Richard Porton, 1999 Bearded bomb throwers self indulgent nihilists dangerous subversives these characteristic clichés of anarchists in the popular imagination are often reproduced in the cinema In Film and the Anarchist Imagination the first comprehensive survey of anarchism in film Richard Porton deconstructs such stereotypes while offering an authoritative account of films featuring anarchist characters and motifs From the early cinema of Griffith and René Clair to the work of Godard Lina Wertmüller Lizzie Borden and Ken Loach Porton analyzes portrayals of anarchism in film presenting commentaries and critiques of such classics as Zéro de Conduite Tout Va Bien and Love and Anarchy In addition he provides an excellent guide to the complex traditions of anarchist thought from Bakunin and Kropotkin to Emma Goldman and Murray Bookchin disclosing a rich historical legacy that encompasses the Paris Commune the Haymarket martyrs the anarcho syndicalists of the Spanish Civil War as well as more familiar contemporary avatars like the Situationists and the enragés of May 1968 H. G. Wells, Modernity and the Movies Keith Williams, 2007-12-01 This book investigates Wells's interest in cinema and related media technologies by placing it back into the contemporary cultural and scientific contexts giving rise to them It plugs a gap in understanding Wells's contribution to exploring and advancing the possibilities of cinematic narrative and its social and ideological impacts in the modern period Previous studies concentrate on adaptations this book accounts for the specifically proto cinematic techniques and concerns of Wells's texts It also focuses on contemporary film making in dialogue with his ideas Alongside Hollywood's later transactions it gives equal weight to neglected British and continental European dimensions Chapter 1 shows how early writings The Time Machine and short stories feature many kinds of radically defamiliarised vision These constitute imaginative speculations about the forms and potentials of moving image and electronic media Chapter 2 discusses the power of voyeurism absent presence and the disjunction of sound image reproduction implied in The Invisible Man and its topical politics updated in notable screen versions Chapter 3 extends this to dystopian warnings of systematic surveillance broadcasting of celebrity personae and post literate video culture in When the Sleeper Wakes a crucial template for urban futures on film Chapter 4 analyses Wells's belated return to screenwriting in the 1930s It accounts for his broad ambition of mediating between popular and avant garde tendencies to promote his cause and its mixed results in Things to Come The Man Who Could Work Miracles etc Chapter 5 finally surveys Wells's legacy on both small and large screens It considers whether as well as being raided for scenarios for spectacular effects his subtexts still nourish an evolving tradition of alternative SF which duly critiques the innovations and applications of its host media Film Study Frank Manchel,1990 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition Volume three draws on the history of film Mass Culture and Modernism in Egypt Walter Armbrust,1996-07-28 A study of popular culture and the representation of modern life in Egypt Being Modern Robert Bud,Paul Greenhalgh, Frank James, Morag Shiach,2018-10-10 In the early decades of the twentieth century engagement with science was commonly used as an emblem of modernity This phenomenon is now attracting increasing attention in different historical specialties Being Modern builds on this recent scholarly interest to explore engagement with science across culture from the end of the nineteenth century to approximately 1940 Addressing the breadth of cultural forms in Britain and the western world from the architecture of Le Corbusier to working class British science fiction Being Modern paints a rich picture Seventeen distinguished contributors from a range of fields including the cultural study of science and technology art and architecture English culture and literature examine the issues involved The book will be a valuable resource for students and a spur to scholars to further examination of culture as an interconnected web of which science is a critical part and to supersede such tired formulations as Science and culture Moving Forward, Looking Back Malte Hagener,2007 This book the first full critical overview of the film avant garde ushers in a new approach and in the process creates its own subject While many books have studied particular aspects of the European film avant garde of the 1920s and 1930s Moving Forward Looking Back provides a much needed summary of the theory and practice of the movement while also emphasizing aspects of the period that have been overlooked Arguing that a European perspective is the only way to understand the transnational movement the book also pioneers a new approach to the alternative cinema network that sustained the avant garde paying particular attention to the emergence of film culture as visible in screening clubs film festivals and archives It will be essential to anyone interested in the influential movement and the film culture it created The Films of Rene Clair R. C. Dale,1986
