Freidel, 1990 The recent interpretation of Maya hieroglyphs has given us the first written history of the New World as it existed before the European invasion Now two central figures in the massive effort to decode the glyphs Linda Schele and David Freidel make this history available for the first time in all its detail A Forest of Kings is the story of Maya kingship from the beginning of its institution and the first great pyramid builders two thousand years ago to the decline of Maya civilization and its destruction by the Spanish Here the great historic rulers of Precolumbian civilization come to life again with the decipherment of the writing At its height Maya civilization flourished under great kings like Shield Jaguar who ruled for over sixty years expanding his kingdom and building some of the most impressive works of architecture in the ancient world Long placed on a mist shrouded pedestal as austere peaceful stargazers the Maya elites are now known to have been the rulers or populous aggressive city states Hailed as a Rosetta Stone of Maya civilization Brian M Fagan author of People of the Earth A Forest of Kings is a must for interested readers says Evon Vogt professor of anthropology at Harvard University The Ancient Maya Sylvanus Griswold Morley, Robert J. Macri, Matthew George Looper, 2003 For hundreds of years Maya artists and scholars used hieroglyphs to record their history and culture In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries archaeologists photographers and artists recorded the Maya carvings that remained often by transporting box cameras and plaster casts through the jungle on muleback The New Catalog of Maya Hieroglyphs Volume I The Classic Period Inscriptions is a guide to all the known hieroglyphic symbols of the Classic Maya script In the New Catalog Martha J

Macri and Matthew G Looper have produced a valuable research tool based on the latest Mesoamerican scholarship. An essential resource for all students of Maya texts, the New Catalog is also accessible to nonspecialists with an interest in Mesoamerican cultures. Macri and Looper present the combined knowledge of the most reliable scholars in Maya epigraphy. They provide currently accepted syllabic and logographic values, a history of references to published discussions of each sign, and related lexical entries from dictionaries of Maya languages, all of which were compiled through the Maya Hieroglyphic Database Project. This first volume of the New Catalog focuses on texts from the Classic Period, approximately 150-900 CE, which have been found on carved stone monuments, stucco wall panels, wooden lintels, carved and painted pottery, murals, and small objects of jadeite, shell, bone, and wood. The forthcoming second volume will describe the hieroglyphs of the three surviving Maya codices that date from later periods.

Ancient Maya Arthur Demarest, 2004-12-09 In this new archaeological study, Arthur Demarest brings the lost pre-Columbian civilization of the Maya to life. In applying a holistic perspective to the most recent evidence from archaeology, paleoecology, and epigraphy, this theoretical interpretation emphasises both the brilliant rain forest adaptations of the ancient Maya and the Native American spirituality that permeated all aspects of their daily life. Demarest draws on his own discoveries and the findings of colleagues to reconstruct the complex lifeways and volatile political history of the Classic Maya states of the first to eighth centuries. He provides a new explanation of the long-standing mystery of the ninth-century abandonment of most of the great rain forest cities. Finally, he draws lessons from the history of the Classic Maya cities for contemporary society and for the ongoing struggles and resurgence of the modern Maya peoples who are now re-emerging from six centuries of oppression.

El Perú-Waka' Keith Eppich, Damien B. Marken, David Freidel, 2024-04-09 Presenting the most current research on the Maya rainforest city El Per Waka, this volume discusses occupation at the site spanning from 300 BC to 1000 CE and offers researchers an unmatched view of ancient life in a tropical urban environment.

The Market for Mesoamerica Cara G. Tremain, Donna Yates, 2024-01-09 This timely volume explores past, current, and future policies and trends concerning the sales of antiquities from pre-Columbian Mesoamerica, which are among the most popular items on the international antiquities market.

A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson Adam Barkman, Antonio Sanna, 2024-02-02 The twelve essays in A Critical Companion to Mel Gibson offer various interpretations of Mel Gibson's work, treating this prolific but controversial figure not only as a filmmaker but as a historian, religious thinker, and social philosopher. From The Man Without a Face and Braveheart to The Passion of the Christ, Apocalypto, and Hacksaw Ridge, this interdisciplinary collection mines Gibson's life and oeuvre for insight into existential problems, Aristotelian virtues, the politics of film, interreligious dialogue, adaptation issues, and much more.
