The Flight of the Swan. Large Print Essie Webster,1991      Baudelaire and the Aesthetics of Bad Faith Susan Blood,1997-04-01 This is a study of Baudelaire s canonization in the critical debates of the twentieth century focusing particularly on his role in the development of a modernist consciousness Much recent work on Baudelaire assumes his modernism by emphasizing his relationship to current critical preoccupations by sounding him out on issues of race and gender for example or by correcting his politics The author begins from the premise that this updating of Baudelaire mistakenly takes him for our contemporary Instead she attempts to treat modernism as a historical problem by seeing Baudelaire as engaged in a more difficult dialogue with twentieth century critics The book concentrates on two key moments in the literary history of the twentieth century the periods following each world war At these junctures French intellectuals intensely reconsidered their cultural patrimony and articulated something like a modernist consciousness Baudelaire stood at the center of this process becoming a sacred figure of modernism and his poetry contributed to a radical reorienting of aesthetic sensibilities For the post World War I period the author focuses on Paul Val ry s essay Baudelaire s Situation for post World War II on the virulent debate between Jean Paul Sartre and Georges Bataille over the question of Baudelaire s bad faith She argues that Sartre's resistance to the sacralization of Baudelaire and to the continuing formulation of a modernist ideology actually suggests a valuable way of rethinking Baudelaire's poetry and critiquing the modern consciousness She attempts to show that something like an aesthetics of bad faith exists and that it is a useful concept for understanding modernism in relationship to its own history Throughout Baudelaire's poetry is examined in detail with a focus on its relationship to his writings on caricature on the problem of the secret architecture and on the place of allegory in a symbolist poetics In the closing chapter the author analyzes Baudelaire's denunciation of photography which reveals the various tensions or bad faith implicit in the modernist consciousness
