

STORY TO REFLECT UPON 3

MOTHER

A man stopped at a flower shop to order some flowers to be wired to his mother who lived two hundred miles away. As he got out of his car he noticed a young girl sitting on the curb sobbing. He asked her what was wrong and she replied, "I wanted to buy a red rose for my mother. But I only have seventy-five cents, and a rose costs two dollars." The man smiled and said, "Come on in with me. I'll buy you a rose." He bought the little girl her rose and ordered his own mother's flowers. As they were leaving he offered the girl a ride home. She said, "Yes, please! You can take me to my mother." She directed him to a cemetery, where she placed the rose on a freshly dug grave. The man returned to the flower shop, canceled the wire order, picked up a bouquet and drove the two hundred miles to his mother's house.

Reflection

- * How often have we taken things for granted ... not valuing the things that really matter such as showing the gratitude and love that we owe to so many people. We get caught up in a never-ending process of 'busyness'. We fail to realize that at any time death can flatten all our material possessions and worldly achievements, power and honor.
- * What really matters ultimately are the intangible things ... the love, kindness, gratitude, generosity, compassion and care we display towards others. The development of these qualities is our true 'wealth' ... qualities that help us grow spiritually, qualities that lead us to true peace, happiness and freedom.
- * Live not a life that will cause us to regret in our parting days.
- * Do the positive things NOW ... do them when we still CAN. Wait not before it is too late.
- * Living a life meaningfully would entail touching others' lives so that they become more happy and peaceful. When a life is lived meaningfully, then that life can die joyfully.

Stories For Reflection:

The Looking Glass Marla K. Tokatly, 2019-12-06 The Looking Glass Stories for Reflection is an invitation to examine life to step beyond the looking glass and explore a world of grown up certainties Here you will discover stories of joy that swell your heart to overflowing as well as stories that delve into the sorrows that accompany living With vivid and moving word pictures Marla Tokatly reflects on topics ranging from family pets and cherry pie to complex questions of life and death The Looking Glass stories one for each week of the year invite the reader to remember their own stories and record them This is a book to savor Wisdom is a free inheritance but if not given and received it becomes a lost heirloom Take time to reflect and then pass along the insights from the stories of your life Stories for Reflection Jack McArdle, 1996-01-01

The Moral of the Story John H. Lockwood, 1999 The problem this project attempts to solve is to develop a workable moral education in light of the clash between religious forms of moral education and U S Supreme Court decisions concerning them The concept of story and storytelling has been suggested as a unifying focus for disparate prescriptions for moral education Several recent approaches to moral storytelling have been proposed The approaches of William Bennett Nel Noddings and Herbert Kohl are among those which have attempted to combine moral education and storytelling within the last decade Bennett is identified with other theorists whose primary concern is the moral content of a story Noddings is identified as a process theorist whose primary concern is the process of moral storytelling not the content Kohl is identified as a reflection theorist whose approach challenges tradition in the hope of creating a more moral society Each one of these three approaches attempts to provide a comprehensive program of moral education but they fall short of that goal The purpose of this project then is to construct a storytelling moral education program that improves upon earlier approaches Using the three levels of moral thinking posited by R M Hare a three level approach to moral storytelling is proposed The intuitive critical and meta ethical levels of moral thinking that Hare refers to are used to frame a new three level approach to moral storytelling The three level approach combines content process and reflection into a unified prescription for moral education Thus a more comprehensive plan for moral education through storytelling is developed one that respects traditional forms of moral education while remaining within the parameters set by the U S Supreme Court The Strategic Use of Stories in Organizational Communication and Learning Terrence L. Gargiulo, 2014-12-18 Designed for students and practitioners in the fields of organizational behavior and human resource training and development this groundbreaking book presents a cutting edge approach to improving organizational communication Drawing on his extensive experience as an organizational development consultant and group process facilitator Terrence Gargiulo shows how the use of storytelling is the key to effective communication and learning
