Story And Reality An Essay On Truth:

Story and Reality Robert Paul Roth, 1973-01-01 Story and Reality Robert P. Roth, Reality and Truth in Literature Irena Avsenik Nabergoj, 2013-04-24 This study provides a critical survey of views on reality and truth in the realm of philosophy and literary theory Its aim is to show how important it is to focus our critical attention on literature itself as a way of conveying a general view of totality of things with special attention to human life and death effort and suffering success and failure A work of literature and art does not characterize experience and knowledge as such but rather the response of concrete characters to the problems of human existence and fate The monograph deals with pre modern philosophical reflection on reality and truth with post modern ways of representation of reality in myth history biography autobiography and fiction and with sublime perceptions of beauty love and forgiveness The views of the writers show that there are important differences in presenting reality and truth in relation to material and historical facts But the most important distinction is in dealing with dimensions of true life of human persons in their ineffable feelings and ideas How Real Is Reality TV? David S. Escoffery, 2014-12-03 American viewers are attracted to what they see as the non scripted unpredictable freshness of reality television But although the episodes may not be scripted the shows are constructed within a deliberately designed framework reflecting societal values The political economic and personal issues of reality TV are in many ways simply an exaggerated version of everyday life allowing us to identify perhaps more closely than we care to admit with the characters onscreen With 16 essays from scholars around the world this volume discusses the notion of representation in reality television It explores how both audiences and producers negotiate the gulf between representations and truth in reality shows such as Survivor The Apprentice Big Brother The Nanny American Idol Extreme Makeover Joe Millionaire and The Amazing Race Various identity categories and character types found in these shows are discussed and the accuracy of their television portrayal examined Dealing with the concept of reality audience reception gender roles minority portrayal and power issues the book provides an in depth look at what we see or think we see in reality TV Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Reality and Truth John Gabriel Vance, 1917 Truth from a Lie Margaret Key, 2011-05-05 Critics typically regard Abe Kobo 1924-93 as writing against realism due to his avant garde aesthetics that challenged the Naturalist realism dominating the literary mainstream and the Socialist realism of the orthodox Left in postwar Japan He considered his work thoroughly realist however and starting in the early 1950s in a series of avant garde art and literary groups he championed the possibility of a vital contemporary realism that challenged the reader to question the reality represented in the text through increasingly self conscious writing strategies Through a reassessment of the texts in which he worked out his theory of realism this study traces the development of his commitment to making truth from a lie to fiction drama and reportage that openly display their artifice Key argues that the reflexivity of Abe s texts which lay bare their own processes of artificial construction in order to reflect how our everyday sense of reality is constructed and maintained created a critical space for metatextual ideas that were not acknowledged by the literary establishment of his time and have yet to be recognized by critics today Undergirding his theory and practice of realism was a critique of conventional documentary and of the classic detective story The texts examined here expose the degree to which the documentarian and the detective are active fabricators of meaning rather than neutral observers of fact By paying close attention to the tension between the documentary and the fictive in Abe's works Key draws out the ethical implications of his documentary approach arguing persuasively that the documentary qualities of his writing such as its valorization of objectivity over psychologism and the realm of concrete things over abstraction are strategies for challenging the dominant assumptions about what constitutes good ethics and good art as well as the relationship between these two spheres Truth from a Lie explores the ways in which Abe put documentary and the de

The History and Theory of Post-Truth Communication Giovanni Maddalena, Guido Gili, 2020-04-13 This book traces the principal roots of the concept of post truth to uncover how it came by its present meaning The concept of post truth is the ripe and poisonous fruit of a tree fertilized and watered by many gardeners some with good intentions some with bad intentions and others without a full understanding of the consequences of their thoughts and actions If the concepts behind the expression post truth have a long history what is behind the current rise in interest and alarm about the concept Chosen by the Oxford English Dictionary as word of the year in 2016 post truth has entered both journalistic and common languages There is however much confusion and a suffocating rhetoric about what it is how it became such a powerful force and its positive or perverse effects Offering a fast paced discussion of philosophical concepts sociological theories communication strategies and original interpretations of historical events from the birth of mass media until today this book is a guide for those who want to understand what is going on in Western society and culture

Between Fiction and the 'Greater Truth' - Representation and Reality in Tom Wolfe's "The Electric Kool-Aid Acid Test" Marc Regler, 2007-07 Seminar paper from the year 2004 in the subject American Studies Literature grade A Victoria University of Wellington School of English Film and Theatre der Faculty of Humanities and Social Science course ENGL439 Journalism And Literature language English abstract A close reading of Tom Wolfe's The Electric Kool-Aid Acid Test considering Wolfe's concept of New Journalism as a form of writing between the novel and journalism

The Historical Imagination of G.K. Chesterton Joseph R. McCleary, 2009-02-20 This study examines a selection of Chesterton's novels poetry and literary criticism and outlines the distinctive philosophy of history that emerges from these writings Specifically McCleary contends that Chesterton's recurring use of the themes of locality patriotism and nationalism embodies a distinctive understanding of what gives history its coherence

Truth Matters John G. Trapani, 2004 Drawing upon the richness and breadth of Jacques Maritain's thought the contributors to this volume engage readers with philosophical essays about the search for truth in human life and civic engagement The essays examine a broad range of topics from those that are more properly theoretical such as God science natural law practical reason education and democracy to those that are more practical such as capital punishment eugenics friendship love and art In each essay the author implicitly challenges the claims of relativism and postmodernism specifically the idea that there is no real truth and that what matters is merely the perspective of one's own frame of reference The essays argue instead that theoretical truth claims have practical consequences that truth matters to those who are affected by it In addition to the editor the contributors are Gavin T Colvert John A D Cuddeback Raymond Dennehy Bernard E Doering Desmond J FitzGerald Sarah J Fodor William J Fossati W Matthews Grant James G Hanink Katie Hollenberg Gregory Kerr James P Mesa Peter Pagan Matthew S Pugh James V Schall S J Michael D Torre John R Traffas Cornelia A Tsakiridou Timothy S Valentine S J A Leo White Anne M Wiles and Henk E S Woldring John G Trapani Jr is Professor of Philosophy and Chair of the Humanities Division at Walsh University in North Canton Ohio

Joseph Conrad--comparative Essays Adam Gillon, 1994 This collection of essays continues Adam Gillon's comparatist approach to Joseph Conrad which he exhibited in three previous books The Eternal Solitary A Study of Joseph Conrad 1960 and 1964 Conrad and Shakespeare and Other Essays 1976 and Joseph Conrad Tawyne English Authors Series 1982 In the present collection Gillon extends his perspectives by examining the affinities between Conrad's descriptive art and painting and film Gillon presents a variety of new views and insights as he traces the connections between Conrad and such writers as Henry James and Vladimir Nabokov and compares Conradian characters Prince Roman and Peer Ivanovitch Gillon's Polish background looms large in this collection His mastery of the Polish language is apparent in the discussion of two Polish novels about Conrad's early life and in his translation of excerpts from these novels The first and last chapters offer moving glimpses of Gillon's own Polish footprints his initiation into Conrad lore and the visit to his native land after a long absence The intimacy and wry humor of these recollections are evident also in his essay about adapting Conrad to film which is illustrated with excerpts from his scripts Under Western Eyes and Dark Country his screenplay inspired by Heart of Darkness and Conradian themes A native of Poland Adam Gillon is professor emeritus of English and comparative literature at the State University of New York New Paltz He has lectured at universities in Canada Israel and Europe His numerous publications include critical studies of Conrad fiction poetry translations articles and reviews He has written award winning plays for screen stage and radio He wrote directed and produced a feature film The Bet Gillon is president of the Joseph Conrad Society of America and founder and senior editor of its newsletter Joseph Conrad Today Raymond Brebach is an associate professor of humanities at Drexel University He is a contributing editor for the Cambridge Edition of the Works of Joseph Conrad and he edits Joseph Conrad Today the newsletter of the Joseph Conrad Society of America He has written on the collaboration of Joseph Conrad and Ford Madox Ford

Texts in Context David Boucher, 2012-12-06 The methodology of the study of the history of political thought is an area of study which has occupied my interests for nearly a decade I was introduced to the subject in University College Swansea My teachers there provided me with an excellent grounding in political studies I am particularly indebted to Bruce Haddock Peter Nicholson and W H Greenleaf Professor Greenleaf was kind enough to supply me with a copy of his bibliography and copies of two of his unpublished papers I continued to pursue my interest in methodology at the London School of Economics and Political Science I am indebted to Ken Minogue and Robert Orr who taught me there My greatest debt is to Dr Joseph Femia of the University of Liverpool who devoted a great deal of time to considering the arguments presented here His criticisms and suggestions for improvement proved to be invaluable I would also like to thank Alan Ryan for his general comments and encouraging advice It would be remiss of me if I neglected to express my gratitude to Dewi Beynon who was my first teacher of politics The research for this project was carried out in the following places The British Library of Political Science London The Sidney Jones Library University of Liverpool The National Library of Scotland Edinburgh The Main Library University of Edinburgh The Arts and Social Science Library University College Cardiff and the Bodleian Library Oxford

Hagiography and Religious Truth Rico G. Monge, Kerry P. C. San Chirico, Rachel J. Smith, 2016-09-16 The hagiographic materials from the world's religions can tell us much about the beliefs and practices of the people yet the limited degree to which hagiography has been used as an instrument for understanding diverse religious traditions is surprising Hagiography and Religious Truth provides a clearer understanding of the ways hagiography functions to disclose truth for practitioners and suggests various ways that these underexploited sources enrich our comprehension of broader issues in religious studies This volume provides a much needed cross cultural and interreligious comparison of saints lives iconography and devotional practices The contributors show that hagiographic sources can in fact be truths of manifestation which function as vehicles for prefiguring configuring and refiguring religious social and cultural life The editors argue that some meanings simply cannot be communicated effectively through historical critical methodologies By exploring how hagiography functions throughout several of the world's religious traditions this volume illustrates how various modes of hagiography articulate religious ideas and uniquely represent conceptions of sanctity

Unreliable Narration and Trustworthiness Vera Nünning, 2015-02-24 Though the phenomenon known as unreliable narration or narrative unreliability has received a lot of attention during the last two decades narratological research has mainly focused on its manifestations in narrative fiction particularly in homodiegetic or first person narration Except for film forms and functions of unreliable narration in other genres media and disciplines have so far been relatively neglected The present volume redresses the balance by directing scholarly attention to disciplines and domains that narratology has so far largely ignored It aims at initiating an interdisciplinary approach to and debate on narrative unreliability exploring unreliable narration in a broad range of literary genres other media and non fictional text types contexts and disciplines beyond literary studies Crossing the boundaries between genres media and disciplines the volume acknowledges that the question of whether or not to believe or trust a narrator transcends the field of literature The issues of un reliability and un trustworthiness play a crucial role in many areas of human life as well as a wide spectrum of academic fields ranging from law to history and from psychology to the study of culture

The Post-Truth Condition Tarun Jose Kattumana, Simon Truwant, 2024-06-19 The Post Truth Condition Philosophical Reflections edited by Tarun Jose Kattumana and Simon Truwant demonstrates that the absence of a unitary understanding of the phenomenon of post truth stems from the complex nature of the post truth condition itself By approaching post truth as a broad and multi layered societal issue the contributors offer an original contribution to the existing scholarship in three ways First they show that post truth can only be adequately understood if it is viewed not only as a political matter but also as a pervasive cultural phenomenon Secondly the contributors concur that a profound understanding of the post truth condition can only be gained if it is studied through a conceptual empirical and historical lens Lastly they maintain that a productive understanding of the post truth condition also demands a nuanced and openminded take on both its negative reactionary characteristics and its positive liberating potential Throughout this volume philosophy of history epistemology philosophy of science political philosophy psychoanalysis phenomenology and philosophy of art join forces to clarify the pervasive character dangers and opportunities of our post truth condition

The Short Story Charles May, 2013-10-14 The short story is one of the most difficult types of prose to write and one of the most pleasurable to read From Boccaccio s Decameron to The Collected Stories of Reynolds Price Charles May gives us an understanding of the history and structure of this demanding form of fiction Beginning with a general history of the genre he moves on to focus on the nineteenth century when the modern short story began to come into focus From there he moves on to later nineteenth century realism and early twentieth century formalism and finally to the modern renaissance of the form that shows no signs of abating A chronology of significant events works and figures from the genre s history notes and references and an extensive bibliographic essay with recommended reading round out the volume

On 'What Is History?' Keith Jenkins, 2005-07-25 Jenkins provides a student introduction to contemporary historiographical debates Through its radical critique of Carr and Elton he embraces the postmodern type approaches of thinkers such as Richard Rorty and Hayden White

Historical Truth and Lies About the Past Alan B. Spitzer, 2000-11-09 Historians have long struggled with the questions of historical relativism objectivity and standards of proof and evidence Intellectual historian Alan Spitzer focuses on the contradiction between theory and practice by presenting case studies of four politically charged debates about the past the response to the report of the commission chaired by John Dewey that evaluated the accusations made against Leon Trotsky in the Moscow Purge Trials of 1937 the Dreyfus Affair in turn of the century France the allegations about the extent and meaning of literary critic Paul de Man s complicity with the German occupation forces in wartime Belgium and Ronald Reagan s justification for his 1987 visit to a German cemetery where Nazi SS officers are buried Spitzer s argument centers on the ways in which the authority of objective criteria for historical judgment are introduced in politicized disputes about the past regardless of the theoretical qualification or repudiation of such standards The higher the political stakes the more likely the antagonists are to appeal to generally warranted standards of relevant evidence and rational inference Spitzer s commentary speaks to issues that transcend the specific content of the four cases he discusses The Good News of the Return of the King Michael T. Jahosky,2020-09-15 Although many people today reject Christianity for intellectual reasons greater numbers of people are rejecting Christianity because it does not engage their imagination Christians must not only demonstrate that the Christian worldview is true but that it is also good beautiful and relevant The Good News of the Return of the King The Gospel in Middle earth is a book that endeavors to show the truth goodness and beauty of Jesus Christ the gospel and the biblical metanarrative by engaging the imagination through J R R Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings as well as The Hobbit and The Silmarillion In this book I propose that J R R Tolkien s The Lord of the Rings is a story about what Jesus parables are about the good news about the return of the king As a work of imaginative fiction similar to Jesus parables The Lord of the Rings can bypass both intellectual and imaginative objections to the gospel and pull back the veil of familiarity that obscures the gospel for many
