knew nothing about including a grandfather who's now in a long term care home. Pausing her studies at McGill University, Jane travels to Edmonton to sort things out. As Jane navigates her new reality, Paul delves into his own family's past, discovering a deep connection between their families dating back to World War Two. Paul's grandfather, Joseph, and Jane's great grandfather, Bill, flew on the same bomber with the Royal Canadian Air Force. They remained close after the war, with Bill becoming a journalist and Joseph a police detective. For Paul and Jane, who worked together exploring past diaries, journals, and letters from their famous aviation families, the journey into the courage and sacrifice of aircrew flying in dark skies and suffering vast losses became an inspirational story of the power of the Canadian spirit in the face of a horrific regime. A story about who we are as a nation, the true north strong and free, faced with the same sinister threats to democracy and the values of western civilization in today's world. But things become complicated when a series of unsolved murders is linked to Jane's family, and suspicions arise that Joseph may have concealed the killer's identity out of loyalty to Bill. As Jane and Paul investigate the mysteries that entwine their families, they are drawn closer together, uncovering secrets that span decades as well as unexpected feelings for each other. Adding to the intrigue is a supernatural presence with at least one ghost working hard behind the scenes to influence events as they unfold, at times helping and other times hindering Jane and Paul's efforts to unravel the truth.

We keep making the same promise: only five more days until we see each other again. But we keep breaking that promise. Is our relationship strong enough to survive all of these changes?
