Surprised By Joy

Surprised by joy — impatient as the Wind
I turned to share the transport--Oh! with whom
But Thee, deep buried in the silent tomb,
That spot which no vicissitude can find?
Love, faithful love, recalled thee to my mind--
But how could I forget thee? Through what power,
Even for the least division of an hour,

Have I been so beguiled as to be blind
To my most grievous loss?--That thought's return
Was the worst pang that sorrow ever bore,
Save one, one only, when I stood forlorn,
Knowing my heart's best treasure was no more;
That neither present time, nor years unborn
Could to my sight that heavenly face restore.

Elias Hofer, 2022-10-11 This book allows us to accompany C S Lewis on his intellectual and spiritual journey from atheism to pantheism and eventually to Christianity It analyzes key elements of Lewis s Christian worldview and identifies challenges leveled against it from alternative worldviews It examines Lewis s apologetic methodology highlighting how it was shaped by his worldview and provides an analysis of Lewis s specific responses to a number of objections The project also serves as a comparative analysis of worldviews particularly as they relate to truth claims of the Christian faith The notion of worldview is critical to the formulation of views One s worldview determines how reality is perceived It s characterized as a set of glasses through which we view our surroundings and interpret experiences It accounts for the perspective we bring to every event in life and helps explain why different people see things differently when looking at the same data The same evidence may lead one person to reject a particular conclusion while moving another to embrace what the other rejected Lewis s major works are explored at length in this book Although much has been written about Lewis Hofer s examination of the influence of worldview on his work is unique
