 to Québec Studies André Senécal, 1999 Theatre in French Canada Leonard E. Doucette, 1984-12-15 It is only recently that historians of the theatre in French Canada have turned their attention to playwrights active before the twentieth century Their practice had been to trace the roots of theatre to mid 1930s to the appearance of Father Emile Legault and his troupe the Compagnons de Saint Laurent dismissing what had gone before In this innovative history Leonard Doucette sets out deal for the first time with all plays that have survived to 1867 and to link them with the evolution of politics institutions and culture in French Canada The study of theatre has often been handicapped also by the outdated practice of defining the literary cultural history of a nation by identifying the masterpieces produced in specific periods and then defining other works in terms of what they are not The surprisingly rich and varied history of theatrical forms in French Canada has just begun to receive the attention it deserves from scholars Some of the texts and authors referred to in this history are identified for the first time the materials cited and conclusions drawn are based upon original research in major Canadian libraries as well as the works of published critics and historians The result is an excellent introduction to the various forms theatre has taken and the problems it has encountered in French Canada Literature and Painting In Quebec William J.
 Berg, 2013-02-04 This unique study explores how Quebec's landscapes have been represented in both literature and visual art throughout the centuries from the writing of early explorers such as Cartier and Champlain to work by prominent contemporary authors and artists from the province William J Berg traces recurrent images and themes within these creations through the most significant periods in the development of a Quebecois identity that was threatened initially by the wilderness and indigenous populations and later by the dominance of British and American influences Focusing on the interplay between nature and culture in landscape representation Literature and Painting in Quebec contends that both have reflected and fashioned the meaning of French Canadian nationhood As such Literature and Painting in Quebec presents a new perspective to approach the notion of national identity a quest that few groups have engaged in more persistently than the Quebecois Magic Realism and Canadian Literature Peter Hinchcliffe, Ed Jewinski, 1986 Canadian Performance Documents and Debates Anthony J. Vickery, Glen F. Nichols, Allana C. Lindgren, 2022-08-24 Canadian Performance Documents and Debates provides insight into theatrical activities from the seventeenth century to the early 1970s and probes important yet vexing questions about Canada as a country and a concept The volume collects playscripts and archival material such as photographs petitions performance programs and musical scores to explore what these documents tell us about the values debates and priorities of artists and their audiences from the past 400 years For each of the 31 chapters leading and emerging scholars offer introductions that rethink the artistic economic and socio political significance of plays dance opera circuses and other performance genres and events This collection challenges readers to rethink Canadian theatre and performance history and will be of interest to students and scholars of theatre dance music and Performance Studies Contributors Clarence S Bayne Kym Bird Justin A Blum Amy Bowring Jill Carter Jenn Cole Cynthia Cooper Heather Davis Fisch Moira J Day Ray Ellenwood Alan Filewod Howard Fink Liza Giffen J Paul Halferty James Hoffman Erin Hurley John D Jackson Stephen Johnson Sasha Kovacs Sylvain Lavoie Louis Patrick Leroux Allana C Lindgren Denyse Lynde Erin Joelle McCurdy Wing Chung Ng Glen F Nichols M Cody Poulton VK Preston Daniel J Ruppel Jordan Stanger Ross Paul J Stoesser Christl Verduyn Anthony J Vickery Anton Wagner Francophone Literatures Belinda Jack, 1996-09-05 The canon of French literature has been the subject of much debate and now increasingly francophone literatures are demanding more attention in student French literature courses The first study in English of francophone literatures this book introduces the diverse bodies of texts in French from the numerous French speaking areas around the world with separate sections covering Africa French Canada the Creole Islands and Europe and will provide students at both undergraduate and A level with a comprehensive introductory survey of the subject Francophone literatures emerge from rich bi and multi lingual cultures in part as colonial legacies They also challenge the monopoly of the French literary tradition This introductory survey celebrates the linguistic difference of such texts and the creative possibilities offered by deviance from an established tradition demanding new critical approaches The texts studied here cast a new light upon French literature in terms of their diverse perspectives upon writing history politics and culture their violent rewritings subversive versions and parodies sometimes forming an elaborate pastiche of celebrated French texts Guides to further reading a select bibliography and an extensive index combine to make the book an extremely readable introductory overview of a hitherto little explored area
