Surrealist Collage In Text And Image:

Surrealist Collage in Text and Image Elza Adamowicz, 1998-05-28 A new analysis of Surrealist collage in France leading to a radical reassessment of Surrealism

The Subversive Poetics of Alfred Jarry Marieke Dubbelboer, 2017-07-05 Paradox and provocation were essential features of all of the work of Alfred Jarry 1873 1907 His non conformist attitude whether employed to subvert literary or artistic conventions or to scrutinize social and political issues marked both his literary writing and his view of the world Nowhere is this more apparent than in the experimental and satirical Almanachs du Pere Ubu 1898 and 1901 which to date have received little critical attention Jarry's groundbreaking use of collage in these early works his absurdist humour and his rethinking of literary authorship and artistic originality foreshadow many innovations of twentieth century art and literature In this generously illustrated study Marieke Dubbelboer examines key characteristics of Jarry's poetics through an analysis of the Almanachs and addresses their role within the European avant garde

The Art Book Tradition in Twentieth-Century Europe Kathryn Brown, 2017-07-05 Investigating the complex history of visual art's engagement with literature this collection demonstrates that the art of the book is a fully interdisciplinary and distinctly modern form The essays in the collection develop new critical approaches to the analysis of twentieth century bookworks and explore ways in which European writers and painters challenged the boundary between visual and linguistic expression in the content production and physical form of books The Art Book Tradition in Twentieth Century Europe offers a detailed examination of word image relations in forms ranging from the livre d'artiste to personal diaries and almanacs It analyzes innovative attempts to challenge familiar hierarchies between texts and images to fuse different expressive media and to reconceptualize traditional notions of ekphrasis Giving consideration to the material qualities of books the works discussed in this collection also test and celebrate the act of reading while locating it in the context of other sensory experiences Essays examine works by Dufy Matisse Beckett Kandinsky Braque and Ponge among other European artists and writers active during the twentieth century

Body and Narrative in Contemporary Literatures in German Lyn Marven, 2005-05-26 This book compares three contemporary women writing in German Herta Muller from Romania Libuse Monikova from Czechoslovakia and Kerstin Hensel from the GDR It looks at images of the body and their relationship to the structures of their writing as well as analysing the social cultural and political contexts

The Screen in Surrealist Art and Thought Haim Finkelstein, 2017-07-05 An interrogation of the notion of space in Surrealist theory and philosophy this study analyzes the manifestations of space in the paintings and writings done in the framework of the Surrealist Movement Haim Finkelstein introduces the screen as an important spatial paradigm that clarifies and extends the understanding of Surrealism as it unfolds in the 1920s exploring the screen and layered depth as fundamental structuring principles associated with the representation of the mental space and of the internal processes that eventually came to be linked with the Surrealist concept of psychic automatism Extending the discussion of the concepts at stake for Surrealist visual art into the context of film literature and criticism this study sheds new light on the way film thinking permeates Surrealist thought and aesthetics In early chapters Finkelstein looks at the concept of the screen as emblematic of a strand of spatial apprehension that informs the work of young writers in the 1920s such as Robert Desnos and Louis Aragon He goes on to explore the way the spatial character of the serial films of Louis Feuillade intimated to the Surrealists a related mode of vision associated with perception of the mystery and the Marvelous lurking behind the surfaces of quotidian reality The dialectics informing Surrealist thought with regard to the surfaces of the real with walls doors and windows as controlling images are shown to be at the basis of Andr   Breton's notion of the picture as a window Contrary to the traditional sense of this metaphor Breton's window is informed by the screen paradigm with its surface serving as a locus of a dialectics of transparency and opacity permeability and reflectivity The main aesthetic and conceptual issues that come up in the consideration of Breton's window metaphor lay the groundwork for an analysis of the work of Giorgio de Chirico Ren   Aguitte Max Ernst Andr   Breton and Joan Mir   he concluding chapter considers Surrealism and Photography in 1930s Japan Jelena Stojkovic, 2020-05-31 Despite the censorship of dissident material during the decade between the Manchurian Incident of 1931 and the outbreak of the Pacific War in 1941 a number of photographers across Japan produced a versatile body of Surrealist work In a pioneering study of their practice Jelena Stojkovic draws on primary sources and extensive archival research and maps out art historical and critical contexts relevant to the apprehension of this rich photographic output most of which is previously unseen outside of its country of origin The volume is an essential resource in the fields of Surrealism and Japanese history of art for researchers and students of historical avant-gardes and photography as well as for readers interested in visual culture

Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals Jennifer L. Shaw, 2017-07-05 The first monograph on a Surrealist cult classic Reading Claude Cahun's Disavowals offers a comprehensive account of Cahun's most important published work Aveux non avenues Disavowals 1930 Jennifer L. Shaw provides an encompassing interpretation of this groundbreaking work paying careful attention to the complex interrelationship between the photomontages and writings of Aveux non avenues This study argues that the texts and images of Aveux non avenues not only explore Cahun's own subjectivity they formulate a trenchant social and cultural critique Shaw explores how Cahun's work both calls into question the dominant culture of interwar France with its traditional gender roles religious conservatism and pronatalism and takes to task the era's artistic avant-garde and in particular its models of desire This volume cuts across the disciplinary boundaries of interwar art studies demonstrating how one artist's personal exploration intervened in wider contemporary debates about the purpose of art the role of women in French culture and the status of homosexuality in the aftermath of World War I

Teaching Modernist Poetry N. Marsh, P. Middleton, 2010-01-27 This book recognizes that modernist poetry can be both difficult and rewarding to teach Leading scholars and poets from the UK and the US offer practical innovative up-to-date strategies for teaching the reading and writing of modernist poetry across its long diverse histories taking in experimentation performance hypertext and much more Surrealism at Play Susan Laxton, 2019-02-14 In Surrealism at Play Susan Laxton writes a new history of surrealism in which she traces the centrality of play to the movement and its ongoing legacy For surrealist artists play took a consistent role in their aesthetic as they worked in with and against a post World War I world increasingly dominated by technology and functionalism Whether through exquisite corpse drawings Man Ray's rayographs or Joan Miró's visual puns surrealists became adept at developing techniques and processes designed to guarantee aleatory outcomes In embracing chance as the means to produce unforeseeable ends they shifted emphasis from final product to process challenging the disciplinary structures of industrial modernism As Laxton demonstrates play became a primary method through which surrealism refashioned artistic practice everyday experience and the nature of subjectivity André

Masson and the Surrealist Self Clark V. Poling, 2008 Sumario The mutable self in the company of friends At the beginnings of surrealism the self in contradiction Automatism and the fragmented self With the dissident surrealists violence and the archaic self From loss of self to self transformation From absorption to autonomy Epilogue the end of Masson's surrealism

Companion to Spanish Surrealism Robert Havard, 2004 A comprehensive introduction to Surrealism in Spain with focus on poetry art drama and film Surrealism and the Book Renee Riese Hubert, 2023-11-15 The Routledge Companion to Surrealism Kirsten Strom, 2022-11-08 This book provides a conceptual and global overview of the field of Surrealist studies Methodologically the companion considers Surrealism's many achievements but also its historical shortcomings to illuminate its connections to the historical and cultural moment's from which it originated and to assess both the ways in which it still shapes our world in inspiring ways and the ways in which it might appear problematic as we look back at it from a twenty first century vantage point Contributions from experienced scholars will enable professors to teach the subject more broadly by opening their eyes to aspects of the field that are on the margins of their expertise and it will enable scholars to identify new areas of study in their own work by indicating lines of research at a tangent to their own The companion will reflect the interdisciplinarity of Surrealism by incorporating discussions pertaining to the visual arts as well as literature film and political and intellectual history Photography and Surrealism David Bate, 2020-08-12 David Bate examines automatism and the photographic image the Surrealist passion for insanity ambivalent use of Orientalism use of Sadean philosophy and the effect of fascism of the Surrealists The book is illustrated with a wide range of surrealist photographs

Preservation, Radicalism, and the Avant-Garde Canon R. Ferreboeuf, F. Noble, T. Plunkett, 2016-04-08 Combining a range of content with self reflexive examination by scholars and practitioners this edited volume interrogates the contemporary significance of the avant garde Rather than focusing on a particular region period or movement the contributors bring together case studies to examine what constitutes the avant garde canon Surrealism and the Occult Tessel Bauduin, 2025-10-01 This book offers a new perspective on a long debated issue the role of the occult in surrealism in particular under the leadership of French writer André Breton Based on thorough source analysis this study details how our understanding of occultism and esotericism as well as of their function in Bretonian surrealism changed significantly over time from the early 1920s to the late 1950s

Comics of the New Europe Martha Kuhlman, José Alaniz, 2020-04-21 Bringing together the work of an array of North American and European scholars this collection highlights a previously unexamined area within global comics studies It analyses comics from countries formerly behind the Iron Curtain like East Germany Poland Czech Republic Hungary Romania Yugoslavia and Ukraine given their shared history of WWII and communism In addition to situating these graphic narratives in their national and subnational contexts Comics of the New Europe pays particular attention to transnational connections along the common themes of nostalgia memoir and life under communism The essays offer insights into a new generation of European cartoonists that looks forward inspired and informed by traditions from Franco Belgian and American comics and back as they use the medium of comics to reexamine and reevaluate not only their national pasts and respective comics traditions but also their own post 1989 identities and experiences

Surrealism in Latin America Dawn Ades, Rita Eder, Graciela Speranza, 2012-10-16 This collection of essays the first major account of surrealism in Latin America that covers both literary and visual production explores the role the movement played in the construction and recuperation of cultural identities and the ways artists and writers contested embraced and adapted surrealist ideas and practices Surrealism in Latin America provides new Latin American centric scholarship not only about surrealism's impact on the region but also about the region's impact on surrealism It reconsiders the relation between art and anthropology casts new light on the aesthetics of primitivism and makes a strong case for Latin American artists and writers as the inheritors of a movement that effectively went underground after World War II In so doing it expands our understanding of important fascinating figures who are less well known than their counterparts active in Europe and New York Deriving from a conference held at the Getty Research Institute the book is rich in new materials drawn from the GRI's diverse Mexican and South American surrealist collections which include the archives of Vicente Huidobro Enrique Gómez Correa César Moro Enrique Lihn and Emilio Westphalen

Surrealism, Politics and Culture Raymond Spiteri, Donald Lacoss, 2020-03-18 This title was first published in 2003 Drawing on literary art historical and historical studies this essay collection explores the complex encounter between culture and politics within Surrealism The Surrealist movement was one of the first cultural movements to question explicitly the relation between culture and politics and its attempt to fuse social and cultural revolution has been a critical factor in shaping our sense of modernity This anthology addresses not only the contested ground between culture and politics within Surrealism itself and within the subsequent historical accounts of the movement but also the broader implications of this encounter on our own sense of modernity Its goal is to delineate the role of radical politics in shaping the historical trajectory of Surrealism
