Survey Of Chester County Pennsylvania Architecture:

Survey of Chester County, Pennsylvania Architecture, 17th, 18th, and 19th Centuries Margaret Berwind Schiffer,1976 Early Architecture of Chester County, Pennsylvania Swarthmore College. Fine Arts Dept,Alan Gowans,1960 Architecture in Chester County, Pennsylvania Alan Gowans,University of Delaware. Committee on Cultural Activities,Historic American Buildings Survey,1960 Architecture in Chester County, Pennsylvania Alan Gowans,1960*

Early Architecture of Chester County, Pennsylvania Society of Architectural Historians,Swarthmore College. Department of Fine Arts,1960* Shaping Communities Carter L. Hudgins,Elizabeth C. Cromley,1997 Ed SUNY Buffalo Revised papers from two conferences 1992 and 1993 The Refinement of America Richard Lyman Bushman,2011-09-21 This lively and authoritative volume makes clear that the quest for taste and manners in America has been essential to the serious pursuit of a democratic culture Spanning the material world from mansions and silverware to etiquette books city planning and sentimental novels Richard L Bushman shows how a set of values originating in aristocratic court culture gradually permeated almost every stratum of American society and served to prevent the hardening of class consciousness A work of immense and richly nuanced learning The Refinement of America newly illuminates every facet of both our artifacts and our values Loosening the Bonds Joan M. Jensen,1986-01-01 This book the first to investigate the rich and complex lives of rural women during this period focuses on women in the Philadelphia hinterland and shows how they became an essential part of that area s rise to agricultural prominence The author concludes that rural women in the mid Atlantic region decreased patriarchal power within the family became active shapers of the process of commercialization and economic development and carved out new roles for themselves in public life providing the base for the development of the feminist movement in the antebellum era Jacket The Texture of Industry Robert B. Gordon,Patrick M. Malone,1997 While historians have given ample attention to stories of entrepreneurship invention and labor conflict they have told us little about actual work places and how people worked Workers seldom wrote about their daily employment However they did leave behind their tools products shops and factories as well as the surrounding industrial landscapes and communities In this book Gordon and Malone look at the industrialization of North America from the perspective of the industrial archaeologist Using material evidence from such varied sites as Indian steatite quarries automobile plants and coal mines they examine manufacturing technology transportation systems and the effects of industrialization on the land Their research greatly expands our understanding of industry and focuses attention on the contributions of anonymous artisans whose skills shaped our industrial heritage American Material Culture Edith Mayo,1984 The use of objects as source materials for scholarship has been increasingly legitimized by the growth of American Studies programs which are now in the forefront in their work with objects The use of the museum as a primary resource is currently being given a position of increasing importance in American Studies scholarship Pennsylvania Historical Bibliography John B. B. Trussell,1976 Complements and

Publications of the Pennsylvania German Society, 2008 Babel of the Atlantic Bethany Wiggins, 2019-04-24

Despite shifting trends in the study of Oceanic Atlantic history, the colonial Atlantic world as it is described by historians today continues to be a largely English-only space. Even when other language communities are examined, they too are considered to be monolingual and discrete. Babel of the Atlantic pushes back against this monolingual fallacy by documenting multilingualism, translation and fluid movement across linguistic borders. Focusing on Philadelphia and surrounding areas that include Germantown, Bethlehem and the so-called Indian country to the west, this volume demonstrates the importance of viewing inhabitants not as members of isolated language communities, whether English, German, Lenape, Mohican or others, but as creators of a vibrant zone of mixed languages and shifting politics. Organized around four themes: religion, education, race and abolitionism, and material culture and architecture, and drawing from archives such as almanacs, newspapers and the material world, the chapters in this volume show how polyglot, tolerant and multilingual spaces encouraged diverse peoples to coexist. Contributors examine subjects such as the multicultural Moravian communities in colonial Pennsylvania, the Charity School movement of the 1750s and the activities of Quaker abolitionists, showing how educational and religious movements addressed and embraced cultural and linguistic variety. Drawing early American scholarship beyond the normative narrative of monolingualism, this volume will be invaluable to historians and sociolinguists whose work focuses on Pennsylvania and colonial, revolutionary and antebellum America. In addition to the editor, the contributors include Craig Atwood, Patrick M. Erben, Cynthia G. Falk, Katherine Faulstich, Wolfgang Fliegel, Katharine Gerbner, Maruice Jackson, Lisa Minardi, Jürgen Overhoff and Birte Pfleger.
