The Survival of the Bark Canoe John A. McPhee, 1986 The survival of the bark canoe, 1975 A Reporter at Large John A. McPhee, 1975 The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of Northern Eurasia Harri Luukkanen, William W. Fitzhugh, 2020-09-15 The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of Northern Eurasia is a history and description of bark and skin boat traditions of the native peoples of Scandinavia and northern Russia The history of northern peoples and cultures is inextricably linked to the technology of water transport This is particularly true in northern Eurasia where lakes and rivers can connect when overland summer travel is restricted by thick forests or bogs For thousands of years native peoples used a variety of bark and skin boats for fishing hunting trading making war and migrating The Eurasian peoples responding to their geography climate and environment learned to construct and perfect small watercraft made from dug out logs or the bark of birch aspen larch and other trees each variety crafted for its special use and environment The text

describes the design construction and uses of skin and bark boats for thirty five traditional cultures ranging from northern Scandinavia to the Russian Far East from the Bering Strait to northern China and from South Siberia to the Arctic Ocean Regional chapters use evidence from archaeology historical illustrations and maps and extensive documentation from ethnography and historical literature to reveal how differences in cultural traditions historical relationships climate and geography have influenced the development and spread of watercraft before the introduction of modern planked boats This definitive volume is richly illustrated with historical photographs and drawings first person explorer accounts from the 16th 19th centuries and information on traditional bark and skin preparation wood bending and other construction techniques The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of Northern Eurasia presents a first ever overview of northern Eurasian boating traditions and serves as the companion to Charles Adney s and Howard Chapelle s classic The Bark Canoes and Skin Boats of North America 1964 The Canoeist's Catalog William F. Stearns, Fern Crossland Stearns, 1978 Indexes and evaluates supplies for canoeists Backpacker, 1977-06 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Canoe Country Roy MacGregor, 2016-05-10 One of our favourite chroniclers of all things Canadian presents a rollicking personal photo filled history of the relationship between a country and its canoes From the earliest explorers on the Columbia River in BC or the Mattawa in Ontario to a doomed expedition of voyageurs up the Nile to rescue Khartoum from the author s family roots deep in the Algonquin wilderness to modern families who have canoed across the country kids and dogs included Canoe Country is Roy MacGregor s celebration of the essential and enduring love affair Canadians have with our first and still favourite means of getting around Famous paddlers have been so enchanted with the canoe that one swore God made Canada as the perfect country in which to paddle it Drawing on MacGregor s own decades spent whenever possible with a paddle in his hand this is a story of high adventure on white water and the sweetest peace in nature s quietest corners from the author best able and most eager to tell it The John McPhee Reader John McPhee, 2011-04-01 The John McPhee Reader first published in 1976 is comprised of selections from the author s first twelve books In 1965 John McPhee published his first book A Sense of Where You Are a decade later he had published eleven others His fertility his precision and grace as a stylist his wit and uncanny brilliance in choosing subject matter his crack storytelling skills have made him into one of our best writers a journalist whom L E Sissman ranked with Liebling and Mencken who Geoffrey Wolff said is bringing his work to levels that have no measurable limit who has been called a master craftsman so many times that it is pointless to number them
