Surviving The Heartbreak Of Choosing Death For Your Pet:

Surviving the Heartbreak of Choosing Death for Your Pet Linda Mary Peterson, 1997 Pet Death Sandra Helene Straub, 2019-06-04 In Pet Death Dr Straub addresses issues and feelings commonly encountered after the death of a pet. Practical guidelines are provided for coping with feelings of loss and sorrow. Many questions arise from the difficult topic of euthanasia and in this book the medical aspect of this procedure is explained in plain language. Are your other pets grieving and Should I get another pet right away are other questions addressed. Dr Straub and others openly share their personal accounts of pet loss. When a Family Pet Dies JoAnn Tuzeo-Jarolmen, 2007 When a pet dies it can have a huge impact on children and it is important that parents can understand and support them. This easy to read guide to children's grief suggests methods for sensitively addressing the emotional needs of children and gives age appropriate strategies. It is an informative resource for parents and professionals. The Pet Sitter's Handbook Geri Laverie, 2015-02-16 We must remember that our clients view us as professionals and expect us to not only care for their pets but identify problems that they themselves may not notice. Knowing what to do in an unpredictable situation isn't always an easy call. The Pet Sitter's Handbook is a comprehensive guide on properly taking care of your pets. Geri Laverie presents an undeniably thorough manual that ensures the safety and comfort of your pets. Every day is an adventure with new learning experiences. Make every single day with your pet fun and memorable as you make each of his waking moments wonderful and happy. Voices of Bereavement Joan Beder, 2013-01-11 Voices of Bereavement presents counselors with specific sometimes unusual bereavement situations and their subsequent treatment. Joan Beder blends theoretical content with suggestions for intervention helping the reader appreciate how theory informs practice. In addition a section on counselor struggles focuses on what feelings were provoked in the counselor during each case and how these feelings were managed. Pet Parents Coleen Ellis, 2011-07 When Coleen Ellis' beloved dog died in 2003 she discovered that she found no good resources to assist her with her grief. To help others in this situation she opened the first standalone pet funeral home in the United States in Indianapolis. In this guidebook she helps pet parents, veterinarians, death care professionals and others celebrate the special bonds we share with our animal companions. Saying Goodbye to Your Angel Animals Alan Anderson, Linda Anderson, 2010-10-05 In this thoughtful book Allen and Linda Anderson walk you through the numbing pain and dreadful sense of loss that arise when a beloved animal dies. They offer solace to help you deal with grief, remember and honor key moments in the animal's life, find comfort through groups and with professionals and get past the depression. They also include exercises, affirmations and meditations to use through the various stages of grief. The Andersons' caring practical advice covers all aspects of pet loss, offering guidance on helping children grieve, honoring your religious beliefs, grieving for runaway pets, helping others know what to say or do to console you, planning an appropriate memorial ceremony or tribute. The book also explores the concept of after death experiences of departed companion animals and relates many beautiful stories including the Rainbow Bridge story that reinforce the love and sense of peace that come from honoring the place animals hold in our lives

Funeral and Memorial Service Readings, Poems, and Tributes Rachel R. Baum, 1999-01-01 Words can fail even the most articulate when called upon to speak at a loved one's funeral or memorial occasion. The bereaved desires to say something meaningful yet services are often held so quickly that there is little time to find something appropriate at the library or bookstore. This book is a collection of poetry and prose appropriate for reading at a funeral or memorial service. To assist the reader in finding a suitable passage, the book is divided into eleven chapters. There are tributes for mothers, fathers, children, spouses, and soulmates, friends, siblings, and other close relatives, soldiers and victims of war or violence, pets, and general readings appropriate for men, women, or any loved one. These selections will also prove helpful for clergy, counselors, and hospice, hospital, and funeral professionals. Appendices list resources and support organizations, and each selection is indexed by author, title, and first line. A special additional index references pieces by famous uses such as in a film, novel, or celebrity's funeral, so readers can locate a passage they remember from its context.

Why We Love Them So Paul A. Keenan, 2009-08 When a beloved pet dies, the grief that often follows can be overwhelming. Why We Love Them So Surviving the Loss of an Animal Friend offers profound guidance on how to understand deep sorrow and eventually use its power to transform our lives. Father Paul Keenan faced his own grief journey when Teddy, his twenty-five-year-old cat, passed away. Knowing the love he felt for Teddy was irreplaceable, Father Paul turned within and listened to his soul, sharing the valuable lessons he learned as a result. Along with providing a series of short reflections on various aspects of grieving, Father Paul moves those mourning the loss of an animal companion through the seven stages of grief that comprise such profound emotions as: Feeling alone after death, Dealing with Why Me, Learning to receive and offer compassion, Realizing an overall purpose, Sorting through past life experiences, Returning to daily life, Committing to a new level of aliveness and reality. Father Paul's gentle advice and guidance will inspire uplift and connect readers with their capacity to live purposeful, meaningful lives after the loss of their much-adored animal companions. All proceeds from this book go to The Perseus Foundation, a 501(c)(3) founded in 1999 which funds cancer research to benefit our canine and feline friends.
