Suspended Sentence Cambridge Studies In Criminology:

Suspended Sentence Marc Ancel, 1971 Adventures in Criminology Sir Leon Radzinowicz, 2002-03-11 Sir Leon Radzinowicz is one of the key figures in the development of criminology in the twentieth century This account of the development of criminology intertwines his personal narrative as a criminologist with the progression of criminology itself His experience gained from a career which has spanned 70 years since the 1920s offers a profound overview of how the understanding of crime and criminals of criminal justice systems and penology has changed and of the tensions and dilemmas these pose for democratic societies Suspended Sentence ; a Report Presented by the Dept. of Criminal Science of the Institute of Comparative Law, Univ. of Paris ... to the Cambridge Institute of Criminology Marc Ancel, Judith Chambers, Paris. University. Institute of comparative law. Dept. of criminal science, 1971 Suspended Sentence Université de Paris. Department of Criminal Science, Marc Ancel, University of Cambridge. Institute of Criminology, 1971 Criminology as a Moral Science Anthony E Bottoms, Jonathan Jacobs, 2023-09-07 This book proposes an explicit recognition of criminology as a moral science a philosophically textured appreciation of the presence and role of values in people's reasoning and motivation set within an empirically rigorous social scientific account This endeavour requires input from both criminologists and philosophers and careful dialogue between them Criminology as a Moral Science provides such a dialogue not least about the so called fact value distinction but also about substantive topics such as guilt and shame The book also provides philosophically informed accounts of morality in practice in several criminological contexts these include whistleblowing practices within a police service the dilemmas of mothers about who and what to tell about a partner's imprisonment and how persistent offenders begin to try to turn their lives around to desist from crime The issues raised go to the heart of some currently pressing topics within criminology notably the development of evidence based practice which requires some kind of stable bridge to be built between research evidence facts and proposals for policy evaluative recommendations

Suspended Sentence Université de Paris. Institut de Droit Comparé, Marc Ancel, 1971 International Bibliography on Crime and Delinquency, 1965 Sentencing and Punishment Susan Easton, Christine Piper, 2022-12-01 Examining the theory behind the headlines and engaging with current debates this new edition provides thoughtful impartial and unbiased coverage of sentencing and punishment in the UK Collectively Susan Easton and Christine Piper are highly experienced teachers and researchers in this field making them perfectly placed to deliver this lively account of a highly dynamic subject area The book takes a thorough and systematic approach to sentencing and punishment examining key topics from legal philosophical and practical perspectives Offering in depth and detailed coverage while remaining clear and succinct the authors deliver a balanced approach to the subject Chapter summaries discussion questions and case studies help students to engage with the subject apply their knowledge and reflect upon debates Fully reworked and restructured this fifth edition has been updated to include developments such as the Sentencing Act 2020 and changes following the 2019

general election This is the essential guide for anyone studying sentencing and punishment as part of a law or criminology course

Crime, Justice, and Social Order Alison Liebling, Joanna Shapland, Richard Sparks, Justice Tankebe, 2022 Clarendon Studies in Criminology aims to provide a forum for outstanding empirical and theoretical work in all aspects of criminology and criminal justice broadly understood The Editors welcome submissions from established scholars as well as excellent PhD work The Series was inaugurated in 1994 with Roger Hood as its first General Editor following discussions between Oxford University Press and three criminology centres It is edited under the auspices of these three criminological centres the Cambridge Institute of Criminology the Mannheim Centre for Criminology at the London School of Economics and the Center for Criminology at the University of Oxford Each supplies members of the Editorial Board and in turn the Series Editor Book jacket

Sentencing and Criminal Justice Andrew Ashworth, Rory Kelly, 2021-07-15 This revised and updated new edition focuses on major developments in sentencing law practice and theory Sentencing in England and Wales is now dominated by Sentencing Council guidelines and scrutiny of those guidelines is central to this book Issues of principle are identified and discussed to include the constitutional position of the Sentencing Council the meaning of and challenges to proportionality and the sentencing of BAME offenders and women offenders The book welcomes the new Sentencing Code introduced as the Sentencing Act 2020 and critically examines the government's plans for sentencing reform set out in the 2020 White Paper A Smarter Approach to Sentencing Throughout the book sentencing is explored in its wider criminal justice context making it essential reading for courses on sentencing criminal justice and criminal law

The Criminological Foundations of Penal Policy Lucia Zedner, Andrew Ashworth, 2003 The Criminological Foundations of Penal Policy brings together leading international criminologists to examine the link between the fruits of criminological research and the development of criminal justice policy This volume includes comparative discussions of the United States Germany Australia England and Wales It is divided into four parts Part 1 discusses the theoretical issues surrounding the relationship between public policy and the discipline of criminology Part 2 consists of three essays exploring historical aspects of that relationship Part 3 then examines three distinct areas of penal policy sentencing policing and parole as case studies of the influence of research upon the development of policy Finally in Part 4 which is explicitly devoted to international comparisons there is a consideration of the factors that distinguish research projects that do influence criminal justice policy from those that appear not to The Criminological Foundations of Penal Policy is a volume in honour of Roger Hood Professor of Criminology and Director of the Centre for Criminological Research in the University of Oxford

Community Punishment Gwen Robinson, Fergus McNeill, 2015-10-16 In Community Punishment European perspectives the authors place punishment in the community under the spotlight by exploring the origins evolution and adaptations of supervision in 11 European jurisdictions For most people punishment in the criminal justice system is synonymous with imprisonment Yet both in Europe and in the USA the numbers of people under some form of penal supervision in the community far exceeds the numbers in prison and many prisoners are released under supervision Written and edited by leading scholars in the field this collection advances the sociology of punishment by illuminating the neglected but crucial phenomenon of mass supervision As well as putting criminological and penological theories to the test in an examination of their ability to explain the evolution of punishment beyond the prison and across diverse states the contributors to this volume also assess the appropriateness of the term community punishment in different parts of Europe Engaging in a serious exploration of common themes and differences in the jurisdictions included in the collection the authors go on to examine how community punishment came into being in their jurisdiction and how its institutional forms and practices have been legitimated and re legitimated in response to shifting social cultural and political contexts This book is essential reading for academics and students involved in the study of both community punishment and comparative penology but will also be of great interest to criminal justice policymakers managers and practitioners

The Official History of Criminal Justice in England and Wales David Downes,Tim Newburn,2022-11-29 This book is Volume IV in the Official History of Criminal Justice in England and Wales Previous volumes have focused on the moral reforms of the 1960s the changes to the criminal courts and the introduction of an independent prosecution service and the broad shifts in penal policy that have taken place in the post war era This volume examines the changing politics of law and order charting the gradual shift toward greater political conflict and dispute Until the early 1970s law and order rarely occupied a privileged place in political debate From that point this began to change with initially the Conservatives utilising crime and penal policy as a means of distinguishing themselves from their opponents This volume charts these changes in the politics of law and order and examines the rise in the temperature of political debate around such issues as the Labour Party markedly shifted its direction in the 1990s This book will be of interest to students of British political history criminology and sociology

The Oxford Textbook on Criminology Stephen Case,Steve Case,David Manlow,Philip Johnson,Kate Williams,Roger Smith,2021 The Oxford Textbook on Criminology has been developed by a team of experts to equip you with the knowledge confidence skills and enthusiasm you need to achieve your full potential as a criminologist Back cover

Reforming Community Penalties Sue Rex,2013-01-11 This book sets out to explore the role of community penalties in sentencing arguing that the absence of a strong intellectual framework or underpinning has hampered their development in policy and practice The research undertaken for this book involved asking people with a particular stake in criminal justice what the point of punishment was and what the courts were trying to achieve in sentencing offenders It identifies the role of communication as crucial and looks at ways in which communication can be used to make punishment more constructive exploring the role of restorative processes and considering the implications of the custody community provisions in the Criminal Justice Act 2003 Reforming Community Penalties is a major contribution to penological theory and thinking about sentencing and role in criminal justice and will be essential reading for all with a practitioner or academic interest in this subject Its findings are likely to play a key role in aiding the development and practice of community penalties and enabling them to command greater support and to become a genuine alternative to the increasing use of custody in sentencing and punishment The Psychology of Crime, Policing and Courts Andreas Kapardis, David Farrington, 2016-04-28 This book brings together an international group of experts to present cutting edge psychological research on crime policing and courts With contributors from the UK Germany Italy Norway Cyprus Israel Canada and the USA this volume explores some of the most interesting and contemporary areas of criminological and legal psychology The Psychology of Crime Policing and Courts is divided into three parts Part I explores crime and anti social behaviour including the concentration of offending within families juvenile delinquency adolescent bullying cyberbullying violence risk assessment and psychopathy Part II examines policing and the detection of deception with chapters on interrogational practices police interviews of children and modern detection methods Part III focuses on courts and sentencing with chapters exploring wrongful convictions the role of juries extra legal factors in sentencing decisions and an examination of sentencing itself Representing the forefront of research in developmental criminology and criminological and legal psychology this book is a comprehensive resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying psychology and criminology with particular value for those studying forensic psychology This book is also a valuable resource for psychologists lawyers social scientists and law enforcement personnel Research Relating to Children ,1963

Redemption, Rehabilitation and Risk Management George Mair, Lol Burke, 2013-03-01 Redemption Rehabilitation and Risk Management provides the most accessible and up to date account of the origins and development of the Probation Service in England and Wales The book explores and explains the changes that have taken place in the service the pressures and tensions that have shaped change and the role played by government research NAPO and key individuals from its origins in the nineteenth century up to the plans for the service outlined by the Conservative Liberal Democrat government The probation service is a key agency in dealing with offenders providing reports for the courts that assist sentencing decisions supervizing released prisoners in the community and working with the victims of crime Yet despite dealing with more offenders than the prison service at lower cost and with reconviction rates that are lower than those associated with prisons the Probation Service has been ignored misrepresented taken for granted and marginalized and probation staff have been sneered at as do gooders The service as a whole is currently under serious threat as a result of budget cuts organizational restructuring changes in training and increasingly punitive policies This book details how probation has come to such a pass By tracing the evolution of the probation service Redemption Rehabilitation and Risk Management not only sheds invaluable light on a much misunderstood criminal justice agency but offers a unique examination of twentieth century criminal justice policy It will be essential reading for students and academics in criminal justice and criminology Crime and Delinquency Abstracts ,1965 Sentencing and Punishment Susan Easton, Susan M. Easton, Christine Piper, 2016

Balanced coverage supportive learning features and a chance to dive into all the key theories and debates the essential guide for sentencing and punishment students Examining the theory behind the headlines and engaging with all the current debates Sentencing and Punishment provides thoughtful reliable and unbiased coverage of sentencing and punishment in the UK to make the perfect companion for your course Thorough and systematic approach Topics examined from legal philosophical and practical perspectives In depth and detailed coverage covering both sentencing and punishment to match to UK courses Discussion questions case studies and sentencing exercises in each chapter so you can apply your knowledge Fully reworked restructured and updated incorporating changes following the 2015 general election Book jacket
