Suspended State Newfoundland Before Canada:

Disciples of Antigonish Peter Ludlow, 2022-09-15 For generations eastern Nova Scotia was one of the most celebrated Roman Catholic constituencies in Canada Occupying a corner of a small province in a politically marginalized region of the country the Diocese of Antigonish nevertheless had tremendous influence over the development of Canadian Catholicism It produced the first Roman Catholic prime minister of Canada supplied the nation with clergy and women religious and organized one of North America's most successful social movements Disciples of Antigonish recounts the history of this unique multi ethnic community as it shifted from the firm ultramontanist of the nineteenth century to a more socially conscious Catholicism after the First World War Peter Ludlow chronicles the faithful as they built a strong Catholic sub state dealing with economic uncertainty generational outmigration and labour unrest As the home of the Antigonish Movement a network of adult study clubs cooperatives and credit unions the diocese became famous throughout the Catholic world The influence of mighty big and strong Antigonish as one national figure described the community reached its zenith in the 1950s Disciples of Antigonish traces the monumental changes that occurred within the region and the wider church over nearly a century and demonstrates that the Catholic faith in Canada went well beyond Sunday Mass Regime Changes in 20th Century Europe Noora Kotilainen, Tuomas Kuronen, Marja Vuorinen, 2016-12-14 In retrospect historical change often appears to be both logical and inevitable Yet as a process as a series of moments it is by nature open ended The protagonists are unaware of the potential consequences of their choices as well as the meaning of their actions in the greater scheme of things An individual in real time and in the middle of events has little scope for understanding the whole The dynamic of a regime change involves a journey away from a particular past towards a chosen future while the practices of the old regime are called into question The competing visions for a better future often include a reactionary option looking back towards an older period perceived as a golden age waiting to be restored In the aftermath of a regime change the new cadres seeking to consolidate their power form the new conservative bloc of the society When revolutionary forces again begin to gather the regime disintegrates and the cycle begins again So far regime changes have been analysed as unique one off events This book traces what such processes regardless of their ideological colour have in common How does political power change hands What are the mental and material tools of change From the last stages of World War I to the present Crimean crisis the case studies in this book offer timeless insights for understanding ideological and military conflicts including the undercurrents of the present Russo Western relations Joseph Roberts Smallwood Melvin Baker, Peter Neary, 2021-05-01 No other figure historical or political features more prominently in recent Newfoundland history than Joey Smallwood During his long career in Newfoundland politics Smallwood used the literary rhetorical and theatrical skills honed in the first five decades of his life to create a distinct and celebrated persona He told his own story in his lively autobiography I Chose Canada published in 1973 only a year after he left office Talented venturesome and above all resilient he was no ordinary Joe

Smallwood was born in Gambo Bonavista Bay but grew up in St John s Leaving school at fifteen he quickly established himself as a journalist and as a publicist for Sir William Coaker s Fishermen s Protective Union In the early 1920s Smallwood sojourned twice in New York where he planned a Newfoundland labour party Ambition however led him to support the Liberal Party of Sir Richard Squires Defeated as a candidate in the general election of June 1932 he next promoted producer and consumer cooperatives but with mixed results In 1937 he edited The Book of Newfoundland and thereafter enjoyed great success on the radio as The Barrelman The book culminates with Smallwood s adoption of the cause of Confederation and his swearing in on 1 April 1949 as premier of the new Province of Newfoundland There are multiple J R Smallwoods but the aspiring and ambitious figure presented in this biography stands apart Melvin Baker and Peter Neary use the largely untapped sources of Smallwood s own papers and his extensive journalistic writing to add a documentary basis to what is known or conjectured about the first five decades of Smallwood s remarkable life both public and private Canada ,

Historical Dictionary of the British Empire Kenneth J. Panton, 2015-05-07 For much of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Britain was the dominant world power its strength based in large part on its command of an Empire that in the years immediately after World War I encompassed almost one quarter of the earth s land surface and one fifth of its population Writers boasted that the sun never set on British possessions which provided raw materials that processed in British factories could be re-exported as manufactured products to expanding colonial markets The commercial and political might was not based on any grand strategic plan of territorial acquisition however The Empire grew piecemeal shaped by the diplomatic economic and military circumstances of the times and its speedy dismemberment in the mid twentieth century was similarly a reaction to the realities of geopolitics in post World War II conditions Today the Empire has gone but it has left a legacy that remains of great significance in the modern world The Historical Dictionary of the British Empire covers its history through a chronology an introductory essay appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Britain Joey Smallwood Ray Argyle, 2012-08-25 Known as the only living Father of Confederation in his lifetime Joey Smallwood was an entertaining crafty and controversial politician in Canada for decades Born in Gambo Newfoundland Joseph Joey Smallwood 1900 1991 spent his life championing the worth and potential of his native province Although he was a successful journalist and radio personality Smallwood is best known for his role in bringing Newfoundland into Confederation with Canada in 1949 believing that such an action would secure an average standard of living for Newfoundlanders He was rightfully dubbed the only living Father of Confederation in his lifetime and was premier of the province for twenty three years During much of the last part of the twentieth century Smallwood remained a prominent player in the story of Newfoundland and Labrador s growth as a province Later in life he put himself in debt in order to complete his Encyclopedia of Newfoundland and Labrador the only project of its kind in Canada up to that point In Joey Smallwood Schemer and Dreamer Ray Argyle reexamines the life of this incredible figure in light of Newfoundland's progress in recent years and measures his vision against its new position as a province of prosperity rather than poverty Canadian Political Bundle Arthur Slade, Roderick Stewart, Margaret Macpherson, Marguerite Paulin, Ged Martin, Ray Argyle, Julie H. Ferguson, Lian Goodall, 2013-12-16 Presenting nine titles in the Quest Biography series that profiles prominent figures in Canada's history In these books we explore Canada's rich political history through the fascinating lives of some of its most influential lives Profiled are prime ministers John Diefenbaker John A Macdonald William Lyon Mackenzie King and Wilfrid Laurier suffragette Nellie McClung and provincial leaders Joey Smallwood Maurice Duplessis René Lévesque and James Douglas Includes James Douglas Joey Smallwood John A Macdonald John Diefenbaker Maurice Duplessis Nellie McClung René Lévesque Wilfrid Laurier William Lyon Mackenzie King

Suspended State Gene Long, 1999 This dramatic reappraisal of the background to the suspension of democratic institutions in Newfoundland in the early 1930s argues that the events of this period laid the foundation for Confederation with Canada and represent the central pivotal point in Newfoundland history Speaking for Ourselves Julian Agyeman, Peter Cole, Randolph Haluza-DeLay, Pat O'Riley, 2010-01-01 The concept of environmental justice has evolved over the past two decades to offer a new direction for social movements public policy and public planning Researchers worldwide now position social equity as a building block for sustainability Yet the relationship between social equity and the environmental aspects of sustainability has been little studied in Canada Speaking for Ourselves draws together scholars and activists Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal established and new who bring equity issues to the forefront by considering environmental justice in specifically Canadian cases and contexts and from a variety of perspectives and concerns including those of women and First Nations Creating This Place Linda Cullum, Marilyn Porter, 2014-04-01 The twentieth century witnessed both the formation of Newfoundland as a self-conscious national entity and the construction of distinct and self-aware middle and upper classes in its capital city This interdisciplinary collection examines the key roles played by women in the creation of this state and society and the essential influence that gender ethnicity and religion played in class relations Shifting class relations were formed in the salient political events of the first half of the twentieth century in Newfoundland the First World War the suffrage movement the Great Depression the Second World War and finally Newfoundland's contested entry into the Canadian Confederation Creating This Place shows how upper middle and working class worlds were established in the everyday work of women as well as the ways in which the complex social boundaries of the period were constructed Individual chapters explore issues such as women's work in religious and voluntary institutions their struggle for voice suffrage and political change work of domestic servants and the construction of proper women and mothers through denominational education Creating This Place adopts an innovative perspective on Newfoundland and Labrador that focuses on the often overlooked lives of urban women Contributors include Sonja Boon Memorial University Linda Cullum Memorial
