Suspicion And Faith:

Suspicion and Faith Merold Westphal, 1998 While skepticism directs its critique to the truth or evidential basis of belief suspicion asks two different intimately intertwined questions what are the motives that lead to this belief and what function does it play what work does it do for the individuals and communities that adopt it What suspicion suspects is that the survival value of religious beliefs depends on satisfying desires and interests that the believing soul and the believing community are not eager to acknowledge because they violate the values they profess as when for example talk about justice is a mask for deep seated resentment and the desire for revenge For this reason the hermeneutics of suspicion is a theory or group of theories of self deception ideology critique in Marx genealogy in Nietzsche and psychoanalysis in Freud

Atheism and the Christian Faith William H. U. Anderson, 2020-10-06 Atheism and the Christian Faith is an anthology of the proceedings from a conference of the same name which convened at Concordia University of Edmonton in May 2016 The book represents a wide diversity of subtopics primarily from a philosophical perspective including submissions from atheists agnostics and theists This combination of topics and perspectives makes the book totally unique There are arguments for and against theism The foreword to the book is by Professor Richard Swinburne Professor Emeritus of Philosophy at Oxford University who contributes two chapters to the book Why Believe That There is a God and Why God Allows Suffering The book includes a chapter from renowned astrophysicist and former student of Stephen Hawking Professor Dr Don Page from the University of Alberta On the Optimal Argument for the Existence of God Atheism and the Christian Faith advances arguments around serious philosophical issues of direct relevance to contemporary society It will be of interest to a broad range of scholars in philosophy theology and epistemology Faith and Reason Anthony

Fisher, Hayden Ramsay, 2004 The first in a new series with Australian Catholic University this collection of essays deals with two important themes Faith and reason are heavily weighted words They point to elemental aspects of human existence The papers and discussions presented strive to clarify and correlate these basic activities or dimensions of human beings In all the complexities of the possible relationships and interweaving of faith and reason two kinds of questions keep recurring One the one hand what is the value of human intelligence and how is it endorsed and supported by faith On the other hand what is the distinctive intelligence or rationality of faith and how does it relate to the perennial search for wisdom represented in its various philosophical forms Contributors include Marilyn McCord Adams Raimond Gaita John Haldane John McDermott SJ Kevin Hart and Anthony Kelly CSsR Reasoning from Faith Justin Sands, 2018-01-16 An enlightening commentary on Merold Westphal's intricate thought and provokes new questions concerning the original project of his diverse philosophy B Keith Putt editor of The Future of Continental Philosophy of Religion Merold Westphal is considered to be one of the preeminent Continental philosophers of religion His articulation of faith as the task of a lifetime has become a touchstone in contemporary debates concerning faith's relationship to reason As Justin Sands explores his philosophy he illuminates how

Westphal's concept of faith reveals the pastoral theological intent behind his thinking. Sands sees Westphal's philosophy as a powerful articulation of Protestant theology but one that is in ecumenical dialogue with questions concerning apologetics and faith's relationship to ethics and responsibility, a more Catholic point of view. By bringing out these features in Westphal's philosophy, Sands intends to find core philosophical methodologies as well as a passable bridge for philosophers to cross over into theological discourses. An engaging and illuminating work. William Desmond, David Cook Chair in Philosophy, Villanova University, Professor of Philosophy, Institute of Philosophy, KU Leuven, Belgium. A long overdue critical homage to one of the bravest religious thinkers of our generation. Richard Kearney, Charles B. Seelig Chair of Philosophy at Boston College. The ^AUse and Abuse of Stories Mark P. Freeman, Hanna Meretoja, 2023-05-02. This volume argues that narrative hermeneutics serves as a vitally important vehicle for addressing and redressing current social and political problems. Hanna Meretoja and Mark Freeman have gathered an interdisciplinary group of esteemed authors to explore how interpretation is relevant to the current discussions in narrative studies and to the broader debate that revolves around issues of truth, facts, and narrative. Addressing topics from the dangers of political narratives to questions of truth in medical and psychiatric practice, they emphasize that narrative is a cultural meaning-making practice that is integral to how we make sense of who we are and who we could be.

Cultural Theory in the Films of Alfred Hitchcock Gary McCarron, 2023-07-11. This book is neither biography nor a conventional film critique. Rather, the text explores aspects of Hitchcock's work in relation to theories drawn from the social sciences and philosophy. The various chapters focus not on specific films but on broader ideas central to Hitchcock's work. There is, for instance, a chapter on his idea of the MacGuffin in which I use Ernesto Laclau's theories of equivalent substitution to explain how the MacGuffin functions in Hitchcock's works. There is also a chapter on his notion of pure cinema which moves from the idea of purity as an anthropological concept to consider purity in relation to current debates regarding so-called hybrid media and Hitchcock's relevance to these issues in respect of his dissatisfaction with the advent of sound to the cinema world. Broadly speaking, the book uses Hitchcock's films to illustrate ideas in the social sciences and philosophy and uses those same ideas to illustrate aspects of Hitchcock's films. Freud and Faith Kirk

A. Bingaman, 2012-02-01. Whether Sigmund Freud's theory precludes serious engagement with psychoanalytic theory for those professing faith in the God of the Judeo-Christian tradition has been controversial for years. Coming to terms with Freud's theory has proved difficult for religious believers because of his stance that religious faith is little more than psychological projection. Building on the work of philosopher and theologian Paul Ricoeur, psychoanalyst Ana Maria Rizzuto, and feminist theorist Judith Van Herik, author Kirk A. Bingaman demonstrates that it is possible and even advantageous for believers to hold their religious faith in dialectical tension with psychoanalysis. Bingaman shows how Freud's critique of religion can enrich and strengthen rather than destroy the faith of the believer. What emerges from the author's argument is a creative method for living within the emotional and spiritual tension that develops whenever our belief system is challenged.

or disrupted Engaging Deconstructive Theology Ronald T. Michener, 2016-04-29 Engaging Deconstructive Theology presents an evangelical approach for theological conversation with postmodern thinkers Themes are considered from Derrida Foucault Mark C Taylor Rorty and Cupitt developing dialogue from an open minded evangelical perspective Ron Michener draws upon insights from radical postmodern thought and seeks to advance an apologetic approach to the Christian faith that acknowledges a mosaic of human sources including experience literature and the imagination Literature,

Interpretation and Ethics Colin Davis, 2024-04-02 Literature Interpretation and Ethics argues for the centrality of hermeneutics in the context of ongoing debates about the value and values of literature and about the role and ethics of literary study Hermeneutics is the endeavor to understand the nature of interpretation as it poses vital questions about how we make sense of works of art our own lives other people and the world around us The book outlines the contribution of hermeneutics to literary study through detailed accounts of role of interpretation in the work of key thinkers such as Martin Heidegger Hans Georg Gadamer Paul Ricoeur Umberto Eco Jacques Derrida and Emmanuel Levinas It also illustrates problems of interpretation posed by specific literary texts and films emphasising how our interpretive acts also entail ethical engagements The book develops a hermeneutics of guarded trust which calls for attention to the agency of art without surrendering critical vigilance Through a series of forays into theoretical texts literary works and films the book contributes to contemporary debates about critical practice and the cultural value Interpretation it suggests is always fallible but it is also essential to our place in the world and to the importance of the humanities The Druze and their Faith in Tawhid Anis Obeid, 2006-07-06 As a small sect that emerged from Islam over a thousand years ago the Druze religion and society has long been cloaked in a tradition of secrecy Veiled from the outside world the religious tenets have been vulnerable to distortion misunderstanding and misrepresentation In this book Dr Anis Obeid a Druze layman provides a penetrating analysis of Druze scriptures and beliefs Tawhid Presenting a chronological narrative of the foundation and development of the faith he explains the historical conditions and religious rationale behind this closed religion The Druze faith is the product of Abrahamic monotheism as it coalesced with other philosophies belief systems and political structures of the West and the East and as Obeid maintains should be recognized for its core monotheism and not fundamentally different from Judaism Christianity or Islam He argues convincingly with examples and translations from the Druze scriptures only now accessible to a non initiate public that Tawhid is a progressive and dynamic spiritual process based on freedom of choice This rich exploration of their faith the author s appeal for a sincere cultural dialogue will resonate with a wide audience in the West and in the Middle East

The Bible, Theology, and Faith R. W. L. Moberly, 2000-07-27 This book offers an account of God and humanity in relation to both Old and New Testaments Living Truth, Truthful Living Winifred Wing Han Lamb, 2004 The author maintains that suspiciion can open up sapces for dialogue in apologetical encounter since both suspicion and biblical faith are concerned in principle at least with ruthfulness She argues that suspicion is a scalpel to faith because it can carry challenge and discomfort as well as insight and healing Hermeneutic Phenomenology Don Ihde, 1971 Hermeneutic Phenomenology serves to introduce the philosophy of Paul Ricoeur and give new perspectives to the philosophy of language Effective Faith Bryan P. Stone, 1994 This study examines the recent work of Latin American liberation theologian Juan Luis Segundo. The author evaluates Segundo's resources in order to develop a more adequate contemporary Christological method. Stone offers to Christian systematic theology new critical interpretations of the significance of Jesus for human liberation today.

Contents INTRODUCTION The Problem of Method in Contemporary Christology The Nature and Task of Christology The Situation in Liberation Theology PART I Segundo's Christology The Dimension of Praxis Faith and Ideologies Jesus and History The Evolutionary Key to Christology PART II A Critical Appraisal of Segundo's Christology Faith Metaphysics and Praxis Faith and History Evolution and Effective Faith PART III Toward an Alternative Liberation Christology Jesus and Evolution The Three Dynamisms of Faith Louis Roy, 2017-12-15 Fr Roy shows how The Three Dynamisms of Faith are lived in today's culture and how they are systematically related sometimes in alliance and sometimes in apparent opposition. Having led the reader to a plausible answer to the human condition in Catholicism in his final chapter he discusses some classic issues that result possible tensions between meaning and truth between feelings and insight and about the role of religious experience in becoming attuned to Christian revelation Faith in the Face of Militarization Jude Lal Fernando, 2021-04-05 What does believing mean in the face of empire and militarization? These essays articulate the critical and liberating consciousness shared by oppressed peoples across the world arising from a faith in the God of the oppressed expressed in radically diverse ways and resisting the imperialist deities of materialism, greed, economic growth, racism, and militarization that falsely appear as the saviors of humanity. The authors confront these false gods which form the modern empire worshiped by the most dominant militarized states in the world and followed by their allied states even in the midst of a worldwide pandemic. Out of the eleven articles, two are written by critical political analysts with an anti-colonial lens while recognizing the importance of faith in resistance. The rest are written by theologians who critically reflect on their faith within the context of empire and militarization in their societies. Militarization is among the most brutal forms of oppression on the resisting peoples. Theologies that have emerged from critical reflections on their collective experiences are grounded on a material spirituality as opposed to materialistic, racist, and militaristic godlessness. This collection has emerged out of creative and transformative practices in Africa, Asia, Latin America, the Pacific, and the US. The essays are divided into four sections in recognizing some of the key features of material spirituality: indigenous, feminist, and interreligious voices and horizontal solidarity. With contributions from Michael Lujan Bevacqua, Wati Longchar, Nidia Arrobo Rodas, Rasika Sharmen, Pieris Lilian Cheelo, Siwila Young, Bock Kim, Dan Gonzales Ortega, Erin Shea, Martin Mark Braverman, Joshua Samuel Phil Miller.
