Displacement and (Post)memory in Post-Soviet Women's Writing Marja Sorvari, 2022-04-22 The book examines prominent literary works from the past two decades by Russian women writers dealing with the Soviet past It explores works such as Daniel Stein Interpreter by Ludmilla Ulitskaya The Time of Women by Elena Chizhova Secondhand Time The Last of the Soviets by Svetlana Alexievich and In Memory of Memory by Maria Stepanova and uncovers connecting thematic structures and features Focusing on the concepts of displacement and postmemory the book shows how these works have given voice to those on the margins of society and of great history whose resistance was often silent In doing so these women writers portray the everyday experiences and trauma of displaced women and girls during the second half of the twentieth century This study offers new insights into the importance of these women writers work in creating and preserving cultural memory in post Soviet Russia The Role of Women in the Altaic World Veronika Veit, 2007 Aus dem Inhalt 38 Beitrage V M Alpatov Female Variant of Japanese Z Anayban The Women of Tuva in the Context of the Transformation Period in Russia Birtalan Ada A Harmful Female Spirit in the Mongolian Mythology and Folk Belief E Boikova Common Law Marriage in Pre Revolutionary Mongolia D Chmielowska The Image of Woman in Turkish Literature in the Second Half of the 20th Century M Dobrovits Maidens Towers and Beasts M R Drompp From Qatun to Refugee The Taihe Princess among the Uighurs B Frey Naf Compared With the Women the a Menfolk have little Business of their own Gender Division of Labour in the History of the Mongols M Galik The Twenty Fourth Nasreddin Two Women in Wang Meng s Xinjiang Stories J Giessauf Mulieres Bellatrices oder Apis Argumentosa Aspekte der Wahrnehmung mongolischer Frauen in abendlandischen Quellen des Mittelalters M I Gol man The Mongolian Women in the Russian Archives of the XVIIth Century W Heissig Zum Motiv der Hexenverbrennung in der Mongolischen Volksdichtung F G Hisamitdinova The Place and Role of the Bashkir Woman in Family and Society The Present and the Past Alexander Bogdanov and the Politics of Knowledge after the October Revolution Maria Chehonadskih, 2023-12-30 In this book Maria Chehonadskih unsettles established narratives about the formation of a revolutionary canon after the October Revolution Displacing the centre of gravity from dialectical materialism to the rapid dissemination canonisation and decline of a striking convergence of empiricism and Marxism she explores how this tendency overshadowed by official historiography establishes a new attitude to modernity and progress nature and environment agency and subjectivity party and class knowledge and power The book traces the adventure of the synthesis of empiricism and Marxism across philosophy science politics art and literature from the 1890s to the 1930s offering a radical rethinking of the true scope and scale that the main proponent of Empirio Marxism Alexander Bogdanov had on the post revolutionary socialist legacies Chehonadskih draws on both key and forgotten figures and movements such as Proletkult Productivism and Constructivism filling a gap in the literature that will be particularly significant for Marxism continental philosophy art theory and Slavic studies specialists New Women's Writing in Russia, Central and Eastern Europe

Rosalind Marsh, 2020-12-07 Since the late 1980s there has been an explosion of women's writing in Russia Central and Eastern Europe greater than in any other cultural period This book which contains contributions by scholars and writers from many different countries aims to address the gap in literature and debate that exists in relation to this subject We investigate why women's writing has become so prominent in post socialist countries and enquire whether writers regard their gender as a burden or on the contrary as empowering We explore the relationship in contemporary women's writing between gender class and nationality as well as issues of ethnicity and post colonialism Women and Gender in Central and Eastern Europe, Russia, and Eurasia Mary Zirin, Irina Livezeanu, Christine D. Worobec, June Pachuta Farris, 2015-03-26 This is the first comprehensive multidisciplinary and multilingual bibliography on Women and Gender in East Central Europe and the Balkans Vol 1 and The Lands of the Former Soviet Union Vol 2 over the past millennium The coverage encompasses the relevant territories of the Russian Hapsburg and Ottoman empires Germany and Greece and the Jewish and Roma diasporas Topics range from legal status and marital customs to economic participation and gender roles plus unparalleled documentation of women writers and artists and autobiographical works of all kinds The volumes include approximately 30 000 bibliographic entries on works published through the end of 2000 as well as web sites and unpublished dissertations Many of the individual entries are annotated with brief descriptions of major works and the tables of contents for collections and anthologies The entries are cross referenced and each volume includes indexes Eseji, članci, pogledi Vladan Desnica, 1993 Bibliografija Jugoslavije, 1956 The Prose of Life Benjamin M. Sutcliffe, 2009-04-13 Both before and after the collapse of the Soviet Union everyday life and the domestic sphere served as an ideological battleground simultaneously threatening Stalinist control and challenging traditional Russian gender norms that had been shaken by the Second World War The Prose of Life examines how six female authors employed images of daily life to depict women's experience in Russian culture from the 1960s to the present By a term connoting both the everyday and its many petty problems is an enduring yet neglected theme in Russian literature its very ordinariness causes many critics to ignore it Benjamin Sutcliffe's study is the first sustained examination of how and why everyday life as a literary and philosophical category catalyzed the development of post Stalinist Russian women's prose particularly since the collapse of the Soviet Union A focus on the representation of everyday life in women's prose reveals that a first generation of female writers Natalia Baranskaia Irina Grekova both legitimated and limited their successors Liudmila Petrushevskaia Tatiana Tolstaia Liudmila Ulitskaia and Svetlana Vasilenko in their choice of literary topics The Prose of Life traces the development and intriguing ruptures of recent Russian women's prose becoming a must read for readers interested in Russian literature and gender studies 2009 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine Subversive Imaginations Nadya Peterson, 2019-06-26 In response to the profound changes in Soviet society in recent years the author considers the demise of Soviet literature and the emergence of its Russian progeny through the prism of the writers engagement with fantasy Viewing the mutual interaction of Soviet Russian literary output with aspects of the dominant culture such as ideology and politics Nadya Peterson traces the process of mainstream literary change in the context of broader social change She explores the subversive character of the fantastic orientation its Utopian and apocalyptic motifs and its dialogical relationship with socialist realism as it steadily gathered force in the latter Soviet decades The shattering of the mythic colossus did not put an end to these opposing forces but rather diverted them in various unexpected directions as the author explains in her concluding chapters on the new alternative literatures

Seasoned Socialism Anastasia Lakhtikova, Angela Brintlinger, Irina Glushchenko, 2019-04-04 This essay anthology explores the intersection of gender food and culture in post 1960s Soviet life from personal cookbooks to gulag survival Seasoned Socialism considers the relationship between gender and food in late Soviet daily life specifically between 1964 and 1985 Political and economic conditions heavily influenced Soviet life and foodways during this period and an exploration of Soviet women s central role in the daily sustenance for their families as well as the obstacles they faced on this quest offers new insights into intergenerational and inter gender power dynamics of that time Seasoned Socialism considers gender construction and performance across a wide array of primary sources including poetry fiction film women s journals oral histories and interviews This collection provides fresh insight into how the Soviet government sought to influence both what citizens ate and how they thought about food

A Tradition of Infringement Carol Adlam, 2017-12-02 The Russian literary world was shaken by the wide reaching reforms of the late Soviet period 1985 91 and the Soviet Union s subsequent collapse During this time the phenomenon of alternative literature emerged characterized by an emphasis on thematic structural and linguistic transgression of both Soviet era values and the enduring Russian tradition of civic engagement and moral edification through literature Through close textual analysis Adlam examines the relationship of this literary phenomenon to issues of gender and creative authority providing detailed discussion of several of the most significant women writers of the period among them Valeriia Narbikova Liudmila Petrushevskaia and Nina Sadur

Literary Biographies in The Lives of Remarkable People Series in Russia, Ludmilla A. Trigos, Carol Ueland, 2022-03-14 The legendary Russian biography series The Lives of Remarkable People has played a significant role in Russian culture from its inception in 1890 until today The longest running biography series in world literature it spans three centuries and widely divergent political and cultural epochs Imperial Soviet and Post Soviet Russia The authors argue that the treatment of biographical figures in the series is a case study for continuities and changes in Russian national identity over time Biography in Russia and elsewhere remains a most influential literary genre and the distinctive approach and branding of the series has made it the economic engine of its publisher Molodaia gvardiia The centrality of biographies of major literary figures in the series reflects their heightened importance in Russian culture The contributors examine the ways that biographies of Russia s foremost writers shaped the literary canon while mirroring the political and social realities of both the subjects and their biographers times Starting with Alexander Pushkin and ending with Joseph Brodsky the authors analyze the interplay of research and imagination in biographical narrative the changing perceptions of what constitutes literary greatness and the subversive possibilities of biography during eras of political censorship

Revolution and War in Contemporary Ukraine Olga Bertelsen, 2017-03-28 What are the reasons behind and trajectories of the rapid cultural changes in Ukraine since 2013 This volume highlights the role of the Revolution of Dignity and the Russian Ukrainian war in the formation of Ukrainian civil society the forms of warfare waged by Moscow against Kyiv including information and religious wars Ukrainian and Russian identities and cultural realignment sources of destabilization in Ukraine and beyond memory politics and Russian foreign policies the Kremlin s geopolitical goals in its near abroad and factors determining Ukraine s future and survival in a state of war The studies included in this collection illuminate the growing gap between the political and social systems of Ukraine and Russia The anthology illustrates how the Ukrainian revolution of 2013 2014 Russia s annexation of the Crimean peninsula and its invasion of eastern Ukraine have altered the post Cold War political landscape and with it regional and global power and security dynamics

A Cultural History of Serbia David A. Norris, 2024-03-05 This volume focuses on Serbia s need to manage change while preserving community identities a narrative that avoids the common depiction of Serbian culture as a hostile struggle between modernizers supporting foreign models and traditionalists advocating forms of national cultural patrimony Traditions only function if they are allowed to bend to the necessary modifications demanded by a community s changing historical circumstances Tradition and change are two sides of the same coin which Serbia in its many different incarnations has experienced over the centuries protecting its national heritage while borrowing and adapting intellectual and other trends from Byzantine Ottoman and Western sources Outside influences have been imposed as a direct result of foreign rule or through more friendly channels of communication leading to a complex relationship between autochthonous and alien elements in Serbian society and culture This book argues that the division between the national and international frameworks has often been a false dichotomy with outside features embedded in domestic symbolic capital and Serbian culture simultaneously determined on local national regional and global levels David A Norris s approach offers a new perspective to students academics and general readers interested in the history of Serbia s participation in the broad networks of cultural exchange

Critical Theory in Russia and the West Alastair Renfrew, Galin Tihanov, 2009-12-04 The traditional view that the rise of Western theoretical thought in the 1960s and 1970s could be traced back to the Soviet 1920s once accepted in Russia and the West alike because it directly associated the academic prestige of contemporary Western theory with the intellectual climate of post revolutionary Russia is increasingly challenged today With the gradual retreat in recent years of theory from the high ground of the Western humanities new work has emerged to suggest unexpected parallels and to undermine others This book with contributions from some of the most visible specialists in the field re-examines the significant transfers cross fertilisations and synergies of cultural and literary theory between Russia and the West from the 1920s through to the present day It focuses primarily on those tendencies which have made the most significant contribution to critical theory over the last century and looks ahead at the theoretical paradigms that are most likely to shape the future dialogue between Russia and the West in the humanities Ludmila Ulitskaya and the Art of Tolerance Elizabeth Skomp, Benjamin M. Sutcliffe, 2015-06-11 Novelist Ludmila Ulitskaya is a best selling and critically lauded Russian writer who champions the values of liberalism and tolerance and critiques Putin's policies This is the first English language book about this important writer placing her in the shifting landscape of post Soviet society and culture

Going East: Discovering New and Alternative Traditions in Translation Studies Larisa Schippel, Cornelia Zwischenberger, 2016-12-23 This volume provides a comprehensive overview of various Eastern European traditions of thought on the subject of translation as well as the discipline of Translation Studies It sheds a light on how these traditions developed how they are related to and how they differ from Western traditions The volume shows nationally framed histories of translation and Translation Studies and presents Eastern European pioneers and trailblazing thinkers in the discipline This collection of articles however also shows that it is at times hard or even impossible to draw the line between theoretical and or scientific thinking and pre theoretical and or pre scientific thinking on translation Furthermore it shows that our discipline's beginnings which are supposedly rooted in Western scholarship may have to be rethought and consequently rewritten

In the Wake of the Balkan Myth D. Norris, 1999-08-25 This book focuses on issues concerning identity in terms of Balkan and non Balkan cultures and examines questions of modernity and the ever present dread of primitivism which is highlighted in certain types of narratives David A Norris examines the emergence and development of the term Balkan itself textual representations of the region and negative imagery from the perspective of Balkan authors and in Western literature
