J. Fawcett, 1995 This work addresses the issue of declining jurisdiction in private international law a subject of immense scholarly and practical importance It contains 17 national reports and the general report on the subject of Rules for declining to exercise jurisdiction which were written for the XIVth congress of the International Academy of Comparative Law held in Athens Delphi last year Written by a group of leading scholars these original papers will be of great interest to all those interested in the Conflict of Laws and International commercial litigation

Delivering Collective Redress Christopher Hodges,Stefaan Voet,2018-05-03 This book charts the transformative shifts in techniques that seek to deliver collective redress especially for mass consumer claims in Europe It shows how traditional approaches of class litigation old technology have been eclipsed by the new technology of regulatory redress techniques and consumer ombudsmen It describes a series of these techniques each illustrated by leading examples taken from a 2016 pan EU research project It then undertakes a comparative evaluation of each technique against key criteria such as effective outcomes speed and cost The book reveals major transformations in European legal systems shows the overriding need to view legal systems from fresh viewpoints and to devise a new integrated model

World Class Actions Paul G. Karlsgodt,2012-09-13 Part I of the book provides a jurisdiction by jurisdiction survey of the class action group collective derivative and other representative action procedures available across the globe Each chapter is written from a local perspective by an attorney familiar with the laws best practices legal climate and culture of the jurisdiction

Diversity of Enforcement Titles in the EU Vesna Rijavec,Wendy Kennett,Tomaž Keresteš,Tjaša Ivanc,2023-12-30 This book examines the diversity of enforcement titles in cross border debt collection focusing on the types structure contents and effects of enforcement titles It offers a comprehensive overview of judgments court settlements and authentic instruments from a variety of EU Member States It primarily employs the comparative legal method to draw conclusions on commonalities and differences as well as prospects for future approximation of laws The premise of the research is rooted in the finding that national authorities of EU Member States continue to treat enforcement titles from other Member States with reservations and mistrust despite being committed to the principle of mutual trust The book identifies the issues of mistrust stemming from the diversity of enforcement titles The research is based on a rich database of national reports compiled during the course of several large scale EU Justice Projects Divided into five parts the book offers first some general considerations and presents attempts at a systemisation of enforcement titles The following parts are then devoted to more specialised approaches toward the different types of enforcement titles However the connecting line between all parts of the book are the considerations of cross border enforcement in the EU and in a limited manner with third States Herein research also addresses critical factors regarding the free movement of judgments in the EU including those of lis pendens and related actions This book provides a valuable contribution to the Theory of European Civil Procedure Since it is based on a comparative approach and employs both empirical and doctrinal viewpoints it should also greatly benefit practitioners involved in cross border dispute resolution Overall the findings should be of interest to a broad audience including policymakers judges practitioners and scholars
