Swedish Womens Writing 1850 1995 Women In Context Series:

Swedish Women's Writing 1850-1995 Helena Forsas-Scott, 2000-12-01 Provides a survey of women's writing in Sweden from the beginnings of the struggle for emancipation in the 1850s to the present day. These writers are seen within the political, cultural, and economic context of women's lives. Modern critical currents are also assessed and Swedish feminist criticism is considered alongside the French and American traditions.

French Women's Writing 1848-1994 Diana Holmes, 2000-01-12 A wide range of French women writers are surveyed including Sand, Colette, Beauvoir, and Duras among the canonized and many marginalized or forgotten and contemporary names not yet widely known outside France. These writers are seen within the political, economic, and cultural context of women's lives and how these have changed across a century and a half. Underpinning the whole account is the relationship between gender and language between politics, sexual, and textual.

Locating the Global Holger Weiss, 2020-08-10 This volume adds to the plurality of global histories by locating the global through its articulation and manifestation within particular localities. It accomplishes this by bringing together interlinked case studies that analyse various temporal and spatial dimensions of the global in the local and the interactions between the local and the global. The case studies apply a spatial approach to analyse how global questions of space, movement, networks, borders, and territory are worked out at a local level. The material draws on the Nordic countries, Europe, the Atlantic world, Africa, and Australia and ranges from the seventeenth to the twentieth century. It is further divided into sections that address topics such as the translocality of humans and goods, local articulations of identities and globalities, parliamentarism, and anti-colonialism, the organization of knowledge, and the construction of spaces of representation and memory.

Waltzing Through Europe: Attitudes towards Couple Dances in the Long Nineteenth-Century Egil Bakka, Theresa Jill Buckland, Helena Saarikoski, Anne von Bibra Wharton, 2020-09-10 From folk devils to ballroom dancers, Waltzing Through Europe explores the changing reception of fashionable couple dances in Europe from the eighteenth century onwards. A refreshing intervention in dance studies, this book brings together elements of historiography, cultural memory, folklore, and dance across comparatively narrow but markedly heterogeneous localities. Rooted in investigations of often newly discovered primary sources, the essays afford many opportunities to compare sociocultural and political reactions to the arrival and practice of popular rotating couple dances such as the waltz and the polka. Leading contributors provide a transnational and affective lens onto strikingly diverse topics ranging from the evolution of romantic couple dances in Croatia and Strauss's visits to Hamburg and Altona in the 1830s to dance as a tool of cultural preservation and expression in twentieth-century Finland. Waltzing Through Europe creates openings for fresh collaborations in dance historiography and cultural history across fields and genres. It is essential reading for researchers of dance in central and northern Europe while also appealing to the general reader who wants to learn more about the vibrant histories of these familiar dance forms.

Spanish Women's Writing 1849-1996 Catherine Davies, 2000-12-01 Traces the tradition of Spanish women's writing
