and justice down under Within films and television of striking landscapes peopled with heroes antiheroes survivors and jokers there is a fixation on law conflicts between legal orders brutal violence and survival Deeply compromised by the ongoing violence against the lives and laws of First Nation Australians Australian film and television has sharply illuminated what it means to live with a rule of law that rules with a legacy and a reality of deep injustice This book is the first to bring together scholars to reflect on and critically engage with the representations and global implications of law lawyers and justice captured through the lenses of Australian film television and social media Exploring how distinctively Australian lenses capture uniquely Australian images and narratives the book nevertheless engages these in order to provide broader insights into the contemporary translations and transmogrifications of law and justice Country Boys and Redneck Women Diane Pecknold,Kristine M. decade of the twenty first century and the evolution of the genre Fertile Crossings Pietro Deandrea,2021-11-01 In retracing some of the routes followed by West African literature in English over the course of the last three decades this book employs an original multidimensional approach whereby the three main genres narrative poetry and drama are considered in the light of their intricate web of fecund rapport and mutual influence Authors such as Tutuola Armah Aidoo and Awoonor translated the fluid structures of orality into written prose and consequently infused their works with poetic and dramatic resonance thereby challenging the canonical dominance of social realism and paving the way for the birth of West African magical realism in Laing Okri and Cheney Coker Starting in the 1970s poetry on stage has become a mainstream genre in Ghana thanks to performances by Okai Anyidoho and Acquah Boundaries between literary theatre and other genres have undergone a similar dissolution in the affirmation of the concept of total art from Efua Sutherland to ben Abdallah Osofisan and others Fertile Crossings offers a study of these topics from various viewpoints blending in depth textual analysis with reflections on the political import of the works in question within the context of the present state of African societies all supported by interviews with most of the authors The Recreations of a Country Parson Andrew Kennedy Hutchison Boyd,1864 Transnationalism and Imperialism Hervé Mayer,David Roche,2022-04-05 While Western films can be seen as a mode of American exceptionalism they have also become a global genre Around the world Westerns exemplify colonial cinema driven by the exploration of racial and gender hierarchies and the progress and violence shaped by imperialism Transnationalism and Imperialism Endurance of the Global Western Film traces the Western from the silent era to present day as the genre has circulated the world Contributors examine the reception and production of American Westerns outside the US alongside the transnational aspects of American productions and they consider the work of minority directors who use the genre to interrogate a visual history of oppression By viewing Western films through a transnational lens and focusing on the reinterpretations appropriations and parallel developments of the genre outside the US editors Herv Mayer and David Roche contribute to a growing body of literature that debunks the pervasive correlation between the genre and American identity Perfect for media studies and political science Transnationalism and Imperialism reveals that Western films are more than cowboys they are a critical intersection where issues of power and coloniality are negotiated The Recreations of a Country Parson [by A. K. H. Boyd]. Popular Edition ,1862 Performing Live Richard Shusterman,2018-10-18 Current philosophies of art remain sadly dominated by visions of its end and lamentations of decline Defining the very notions of art and the aesthetic as special products of Western modernity they suggest that postmodern challenges to traditional high culture pose a devastating danger to art s future Richard Shusterman s new book cuts through the seductive confusions of these views by tracing the earthy roots of aesthetic experience and showing how the recent flourishing of aesthetic forms outside modernity s sacralized realm of fine art evince the persistent presence of an artistic impulse far deeper and more durable than the modernist moment Performing Live defends the abiding power of aesthetic experience by exploring its diverse roles methods and meanings especially in fields marginal to traditional aesthetics but now most vibrantly alive in today's culture and new media Ranging from rap techno and country music to cinema cyberspace and urban design Shusterman develops his radical theory of somaesthetics charting the complex network of bodily arts so prominent in contemporary life and self styling By blending concrete aesthetic analysis with insightful social critique Shusterman a well known pragmatist philosopher provides a rich menu and critical guide for today's pursuit of the art of living Journal of Horticulture, Cottage Gardener, and Country Gentleman (varies Slightly) ,1849
