Singh,David D. Kim,2016-10-04 The Postcolonial World presents an overview of the field and extends critical debate in exciting new directions It provides an important and timely reappraisal of postcolonialism as an aesthetic political and historical movement and of postcolonial studies as a multidisciplinary transcultural field Essays map the terrain of the postcolonial as a global phenomenon at the intersection of several disciplinary inquiries Framed by an introductory chapter and a concluding essay the eight sections examine Affective Postcolonial Histories Postcolonial Desires Religious Imaginings Postcolonial Geographies and Spatial Practices Human Rights and Postcolonial Conflicts Postcolonial Cultures and Digital Humanities Ecocritical Inquiries in Postcolonial Studies Postcolonialism versus Neoliberalism The Postcolonial World looks afresh at re emerging conditions of postcoloniality in the twenty first century and draws on a wide range of representational strategies cultural practices material forms and affective affiliations The volume is an essential reading for scholars and students of postcolonialism SpaceTime of the Imperial Holt Meyer,Susanne Rau,Katharina Waldner,2016-11-07 This volume works through spatio temporal concepts to be found in imperial practices and their representations in a wide range of media The individual cases investigated in the volume cover a broad spectrum of historical periods from ancient times up to the present Well known international scholars treat special cases of the topic using cutting edge theory and approaches stemming from historical cartographic religious literary media studies as well as ethnography Soundings in Cultural Criticism Francisco Lozada,Greg Carey,2013-02-12 A number of disciplines aligned under cultural criticism have changed the shape of contemporary biblical studies not only by offering new methods but by questioning old goals and proposing new ones Soundings in Cultural Criticism offers a collection of succinct essays in these fields by some of the foremost scholars in New Testament studies Questions of historical reconstruction textual interpretation and present cultural deployment are addressed in an ideal second textbook for New Testament courses Peasant Pasts Vinayak Chaturvedi,2007 Publisher description Unbecoming Modern Saurabh Dube,Ishita Banerjee-Dube,2019-06-14 In this volume well known scholars from India and Latin America Enrique Dussel Madhu Dubey Walter D Mignolo and Sudipta Sen to name a few discuss the concepts of modernity and colonialism and describe how the two relate to each other This second edition to the volume comes with a new introduction which extends and critically supplements the discussion in the earlier introduction to the volume It explores the vital impact of the colonial pasts of India Mexico China and even the Unites States on the processes through which these countries have become modern The collection is unique as it brings together a range of disciplines and perspectives The topics discussed include the Zapatista movement in Southern Mexico the image of the South in recent African American literature the theories of Andre Gunder Frank about the early modernization of Asian countries and the contradictions of the colonial state in India

Creative Pasts Prachi Deshpande, 2007 The Maratha period of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries when an independent Maratha state successfully resisted the Mughals is a defining era in the history of the region of Maharashtra in western India In this book Prachi Deshpande considers the importance of this period for a variety of political projects including anticolonial Hindu nationalism and the non Brahman movement as well as popular debates throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries concerning the meaning of tradition culture and the experience of colonialism and modernity Sampling from a rich body of literary and cultural sources Deshpande highlights shifts in history writing in early modern and modern India and the deep connections between historical and literary narratives She traces the reproduction of the Maratha period in various genres and public arenas its incorporation into regional political symbolism and its centrality to the making of a modern Marathi regional consciousness She also shows how historical memory provided a space for Indians to negotiate among their national religious and regional identities pointing to history's deeper potential in shaping politics within thoroughly diverse societies A truly unique study Creative Pasts examines the practices of historiography and popular memory within a particular colonial context and illuminates the impact of colonialism on colonized societies and cultures Furthermore it shows how modern history and historical memory are jointly created through the interplay of cultural activities power structures and political rhetoric

Sovereign Anxiety Javed Iqbal Wani, 2023-11-16 Studies sovereignty and law and argues that public order laws are an expression of sovereign anxiety

Pedagogy for Religion Parna Sengupta, 2011-07-23 Argues that the schools of the mostly Protestant missionaries in Bengal did not secularize Bengali society

Subaltern Lives Clare Anderson, 2012-04-05 Subaltern Lives uses biographical fragments of the lives of convicts captives sailors slaves indentured labourers and indigenous peoples to build a fascinating new picture of colonial life in the nineteenth century Indian Ocean Moving between India Africa Mauritius Burma Singapore Ceylon the Andaman Islands and the Australian colonies Clare Anderson offers fresh readings of the nature and significance of networked Empire She reveals the importance of penal transportation for colonial expansion and sheds new light on convict experiences of penal settlements and colonies as well as the relationship between convictism punishment and colonial labour regimes The book also explores the nature of colonial society during this period and embeds subaltern biographies into key events like the abolition of slavery the Anglo Sikh Wars and the Indian Revolt of 1857 This is an important new perspective on British colonialism which also opens up new possibilities for the writing of history itself

Beyond Conversion and Syncretism avid,, Miles Richardson, 2011-10-01 The globalization of Christianity its spread and appeal to peoples of non European origin is by now a well known phenomenon Scholars increasingly realize the importance of natives rather than foreign missionaries in the process of evangelization This volume contributes to the understanding of this process through case studies of encounters with Christianity from the perspectives of the indigenous peoples who converted. More importantly by exploring overarching general terms such as conversion and syncretism and by showing the variety of strategies and processes that actually take place these studies lead to a more nuanced understanding of cross cultural religious interactions in general from acceptance to resistance thus enriching the vocabulary of religious interaction. The contributors tackle these issues from a variety of disciplinary perspectives history anthropology religious studies and present a broad geographical spread of cases from China Vietnam Australia India South and West Africa North and Central America and the Caribbean.

Religion, Law and Power Ishita Banerjee-Dube, 2009-07-01 This book constructs an anthropological history of a subaltern religious formation Mahima Dharma of Orissa a large province in eastern India. Tracking the contingent making of a critical community over a hundred and forty year period Religion Law and Power explores the interplay of distinct expressions of time and history innovative reformulations of caste and Hinduism and distinct engagements with state and nation. This serves to unravel the wider entanglements of religion history law modernity and power.

Religious Individualisation Martin Fuchs, Antje Linkenbach, Martin Mulsow, Bernd-Christian Otto, Rahul Bjørn Parson, Jörg Rüpke, 2019-12-16 This volume brings together key findings of the long term research project Religious Individualisation in Historical Perspective. Max Weber Centre for Advanced Cultural and Social Studies Erfurt University. Combining a wide range of disciplinary approaches methods and theories the volume assembles over 50 contributions that explore and compare processes of religious individualisation in different religious environments and historical periods in particular in Asia the Mediterranean and Europe from antiquity to the recent past. Contrary to standard theories of modernisation which tend to regard religious individualisation as a specifically modern or early modern as well as an essentially Western or Christian phenomenon the chapters reveal processes of religious individualisation in a large variety of non Western and pre modern scenarios. Furthermore the volume challenges prevalent views that regard religions primarily as collective phenomena and provides nuanced perspectives on the appropriation of religious agency the pluralisation of religious options dynamics of de traditionalisation and privatisation the development of elaborated notions of the self the facilitation of religious deviance and on the notion of dividuality.

Exploring Alterity in a Globalized World Christoph Wulf, 2016-01-13 This volume develops a unique framework to understand India through indigenous and European perspectives and examines how it copes with the larger challenges of a globalized world. Through a discussion of religious and philosophical traditions cultural developments as well as contemporary theatre films and media it explores the manner in which India negotiates the trials of globalization. It also focuses upon India's school and education system its limitations and successes and how it prepares to achieve social inclusion. The work further shows how contemporary societies in both India and Europe deal with cultural diversity and engage with the tensions between tendencies towards homogenization and diversity. This eclectic collection on what it is to be a part of global network will be of interest to scholars and researchers of South Asian studies philosophy sociology culture.

studies and religion Indian Village S.C. Dube,2017-10-30 Indian Village is widely considered a classic Since its publication over six decades ago the book has received immense acclaim attaining extraordinary success especially as the first book on a single village in post Second World War South Asia Indeed the work represents a key statement of the wider shift from tribe to village in Indian anthropology part of the movement away from studies of isolated groups toward writings on contemporary communities in the sociology of the subcontinent Written in an accessible intimate manner Indian Village needs to be understood today as a flagship endeavour of the social sciences in a young independent India a study that continues to be generously cited including as a model monograph in the disciplines at large Misunderstanding Stories Melinda McGarrah Sharp,2013-01-24 How can we work toward mutual understanding in our increasingly diverse and interconnected world Pastoral theologian Melinda McGarrah Sharp approaches this multifaceted interdisciplinary question by beginning with moments of intercultural misunderstanding Using misunderstanding stories from her experience working with the Peace Corps in Suriname Dr McGarrah Sharp argues that we must recognize the limits of our own cultural perspectives in order to have meaningful intercultural encounters that are more mutually empowering and hopeful Bringing together resources from pastoral theology ethnography and postcolonial studies she provides a valuable resource for investigating the complexity of providing care and fostering communities of belonging across cultural differences McGarrah Sharp illustrates a process of moving from disconnection to regard for diverse others as neighbors who share a common yearning for hopeful and meaningful connection Leaders in faith communities practitioners of care and scholars will all be able to use this resource to better understand the conflicts tensions and uncertainties of our postcolonial twenty first century world An included discussion guide facilitates classroom study small group discussion and personal reflection Edinburgh Companion to the Postcolonial Middle East Ball Anna Ball,2018-11-14 This Edinburgh Companion seeks to develop a postcolonial framework for addressing the Middle East The first collection of essays on this subject it assembles some of the world's foremost postcolonialists to explore the critical theoretical and disciplinary possibilities that inquiry into this region opens for postcolonial studies Throughout its twenty four chapters its focus is on literary and cultural critique It draws on texts and contexts from the late nineteenth to the early twenty first centuries as case studies and deploys the concept of post colonial modernity to reveal the enduring impact of colonial and imperial power on the shaping of the region And it covers a wide and significant range of political social and cultural issues in the Middle East during that period including the heritage of Orientalism in the region the roots and contemporary branches of the Israel Palestine conflict colonial history state formation and cultures of resistance in Egypt Turkey the Maghreb and the wider Arab world the clash of tradition and modernity in regional and transnational expressions of Islam the politics of gender and sexuality in the Arab world the ongoing crises in Libya Iraq Iran and Syria the Arab Spring and the Middle Eastern refugee crisis in Europe Courtly Indian Women in Late Imperial India Angma Dey Jhala,2015-10-06 Examines the political worldview of courtly and royal women in India during the late colonial and post Independence period This book offers a history of the zenana which served as the women s courts or female quarters of the palace where women lived behind pardah in seclusion Voices from the Periphery Marine Carrin,Lidia Guzy,2020-11-29 In India as elsewhere peripheries have frequently been viewed through the eyes of the centre This book aims at reversing the gaze presenting the perspectives of low castes tribes or other subalterns in a way that amplifies their ability to voice their own concerns This volume takes a multidimensional perspective citing political economic and cultural factors as expressions of the autonomous assertions of these groups Questioning the exclusive definitions of the Brahmanical folk and tribal elements the articles bring together the empowering possibilities enabled by three recent theoretical developments of anthropologies questioning the fringes of mainstream society in India critically engaged histories from below which problematize subaltern identities and a conceptual emphasis on everyday ethnography as an arena for negotiations and transactions which contest wider networks of power and hegemony This book will be useful to those in sociology anthropology politics history study of religions minority studies cultural studies and those interested in social development and issues of marginality tribes and subaltern identity
