

Thomp, Stomp, Clap and Tap!

1. Workshop rhythms below
2. In groups, students rehearse and perform 1 line each, joining together to create a rhythm ensemble
3. Extension - students write their own rhythm line on the rhythm stave provided below
4. Ideas for further development: use a variety of untuned percussion instruments ... add pitch to the rhythm values

The image displays five musical staves, each in 4/4 time, designed for a rhythm workshop. Each staff contains a unique sequence of rhythmic patterns using quarter notes, eighth notes, and rests. The patterns are as follows:

- Staff 1: Quarter, Quarter, Quarter, Quarter rest | Eighth notes (beamed), Quarter, Quarter, Quarter | Quarter, Quarter, Quarter, Quarter rest | Eighth notes (beamed), Eighth notes (beamed), Quarter, Quarter rest |
- Staff 2: Quarter, Quarter, Quarter rest | Quarter, Quarter, Quarter rest | Eighth notes (beamed), Eighth notes (beamed), Quarter rest | Quarter, Quarter, Quarter, Quarter | Quarter, Quarter, Quarter, Quarter | Quarter, Quarter, Quarter rest | Quarter |

your group through a regular practice in secular mindfulness of breath movement and thought for a healthier mind and body. The powerful benefits of mindfulness strengthen children's ability to focus, regulate emotions, feel more compassion to themselves and to others, and reframe negative thoughts. Begin your class with a short mindful moment. Integrating mindfulness into your course will maximize focused learning time and reduce transition time with this useful teaching tool. Use a favourite activity as a stand-alone mindful moment or implement a session each week for the suggested consecutive 8 weeks. This comprehensive program will lead your entire student body in a school-wide well-being initiative. Based on the rapidly growing scientific research, paying attention to what is happening inside our minds helps us better relate to our outside world. Developing this sensory awareness empowers students to manage their thoughts, feelings, and emotions for greater resilience throughout their lives. The social and emotional learning (SEL) skills that will be enhanced include self-regulation, self-reliance, connection to self and others, compassionate self-awareness. Each activity is designed to accommodate a busy teacher's schedule. The MYM program includes two educational manuals: Grades 1-6 and Grades 7-12. Each student will gain a clear understanding of their brain, their senses, and their own ability to regulate thoughts through present-moment awareness. A wide variety of activities for stress reduction, anxiety, and depression management, and the general well-being of all children and youth are included. Have fun with The MYndful Movement Program as your students get to know themselves on a moment-to-moment basis, setting them on a course of health and well-being.

The Artistry and Legacy of Queen Tony Rigg, Ewa Mazierska, 2024-12-12. Over a career spanning six decades, Queen have become one of the most successful music artists in the history of the recorded music industry. Their consumption on digital platforms towers above other classic bands and artists of their generation, and even many contemporary artists attesting to the substantial and transgenerational appeal of Queen. This collection offers insights into the Queen phenomenon through considering their artistry, influences, sound, singing style, use of instruments, and technology, composition, live performance, as well as their impact on other music makers and fandom. Bringing together academics from a range of disciplines in music studies, including musicology, composition, performance, as well as specialists in film and media studies, sociology, queer studies, and business studies, the book examines the many dimensions of Queen and lessons we can learn from them to inform future practice in popular music.

The Art of Stone Skipping and Other Fun Old-Time Games J.J. Ferrer, 2013-02-01. It's an old-time playtime, nothing electronic, just games that have stood the test of time. They help children build skills like hand-eye coordination, problem-solving, and simply learning how to be a good team player and work well with others. But most of all, they're lots of fun. This collection of timeless games guarantees kids a great time by themselves, with a group of friends, or with their family. And best of all, no batteries are required, and very little equipment too. There's Hopscotch and Dodgeball, Four Square and Stoopball, Horse and One Old Cat, a ball game similar to baseball but with only one base. All you need is your brain, and occasionally a paper and pen to play games like Association, the Minister's Cat, and Dumb Crambo, which is similar to Charades but has a rhyming twist. A rainy day with no pals around would be just right to make Hand Shadows walk on Can Stilts or practice Jacks Don't forget card games like Crazy Eights and Rummy Crab and Sack Races and old favorites like Duck Duck Goose and Red Rover And because no parent likes to hear the whine of Are we there yet there's a whole chapter of games for the car Black and white illustrations keep the old timey feel while getting kids excited to play Simple instructions explain how many people can play what you need the object of the game and the basic rules For extra entertainment there are also lots of fun facts about the history of the games sprinkled throughout This book is so packed with activities that kids will want to turn off their computers shut down their PlayStations and Xboxes and get playing the old fashioned way What the Children Said Jeanne Pitre

Soileau, 2021-08-23 Winner of the 2022 Opie Prize Jeanne Pitre Soileau vividly presents children's voices in What the Children Said Child Lore of South Louisiana Including over six hundred handclaps chants jokes jump rope rhymes cheers taunts and teases this book takes the reader through a fifty year history of child speech as it has influenced children's lives What the Children Said affirms that children's play in south Louisiana is acquired along a network of summer camps schoolyards church gatherings and sleepovers with friends When children travel they obtain new games and rhymes and bring them home The volume also reveals in the words of the children themselves how young people deal with racism and sexism The children argue and outshout one another policing their own conversations stating their own prejudices and vying with one another for dominion The first transcript in the book tracks a conversation among three related boys and shows that racism is part of the family interchange Among second grade boys and girls at a Catholic school another transcript presents numerous examples in which boys use insults to dominate a conversation with girls and girls use giggles and sly comebacks to counter this aggression Though collected in the areas of New Orleans Baton Rouge and Lafayette Louisiana this volume shows how south Louisiana child lore is connected to other English speaking places England Scotland Ireland Australia and New Zealand as well as the rest of the United States Antiracist Reading Revolution [Grades K-8] Sonja
