Unitive Thinking Dan Merkur,1999-02-11 Merkur proposes an alternative to the traditional psychoanalytic explanation of mystical experiences as regression to the solipsism of earliest infancy He does this by viewing unitive thinking as a line of cognitive development and mystical moments as creative inspirations on unitive topics Utilizing classical self reports by Christian Jewish and Muslim mystics Patanjali s Yoga Sutras and modern Western peak experiences Merkur argues that experiences of mystical union are manifestations of a broader category of psychological processes that manifest in scientific and moral thought as well as in mysticism Unconscious as well as conscious unitive thinking is sometimes realistic and sometimes fantastic in patterns that are consistent with cognitive development in general Mystical moments of unitive thinking may be considered moments of creative inspiration that happen to make use of unitive ideas Building on the psychoanalytic object relations theory that the self is always in relationship with an object Merkur argues that the solipsism of some varieties of mystical union always implies unconscious ideas of a love object who is transcendent Individuation touching and in some instances downright chilling this is an essential resource for therapists and mental health practitioners as well as anyone with an interest in this field of psychology      The Ecstatic Imagination Dan Merkur,1998-01-22
