Practices of Surprise in American Literature After Emerson Kate Stanley,2018-07-19 Practices of Surprise in American Literature After Emerson locates a paradoxical question how does one prepare to be surprised at the heart of several major modernist texts Arguing that this paradox of perception gives rise to an American literary methodology this book dramatically reframes how practices of reading and writing evolved among modernist authors after Emerson Whereas Walter Benjamin defines modernity as a series of shocks inflicted from without Emerson offers a countervailing optic that regards life as a series of surprises unfolding from within While Benjaminian shock elicits intimidation and defensiveness Emersonian surprise fosters states of responsiveness and spontaneity whereby unexpected encounters become generative rather than enervating As a study of how such states of responsiveness were cultivated by a post Emerson tradition of writers and thinkers this project displaces longstanding models of modernist perception defined by shock s passive duress and proposes alternate models of reception that proceed from the active practice of surprise

Screenwriting Paul Joseph Gulino,2013-10-21 The great challenge in writing a feature length screenplay is sustaining audience involvement from page one through 120 Screenwriting The Sequence Approach expounds on an often overlooked tool that can be key in solving this problem A screenplay can be understood as being built of sequences of about fifteen pages each and by focusing on solving the dramatic aspects of each of these sequences in detail a writer can more easily conquer the challenges posed by the script as a whole The sequence approach has its foundation in early Hollywood cinema until the 1950s most screenplays were formatted with sequences explicitly identified and has been rediscovered and used effectively at such film schools as the University of Southern California Columbia University and Chapman University This book exposes a wide audience to the approach for the first time introducing the concept then providing a sequence analysis of eleven significant feature films made between 1940 and 2000 The Shop Around The Corner Double Indemnity Nights of Cabiria North By Northwest Lawrence of Arabia The Graduate One Flew Over the Cuckoo s Nest Toy Story Air Force One Being John Malkovich The Fellowship of the Ring Escape from Nemo Paul Lavrakas,1993 Tamarack River Ghost Jerold W.
