Surrealist Connection An Approach To A S:

The Surrealist Connection David G. Zinder, 1980 Ludics in Surrealist Theatre and Beyond Vassiliki Rapti, 2016-05-13 Taking as its point of departure the complex question about whether Surrealist theatre exists this book re-examines the much misunderstood artistic medium of theatre within Surrealism especially when compared to poetry and painting This study reconsiders Surrealist theatre specifically from the perspective of ludics a poetics of play and games an ideal approach to the Surrealists whose games blur the boundaries between the playful and the serious Vassiliki Rapti's aims are threefold first to demystify Andr Breton's controversial attitude toward theatre second to do justice to Surrealist theatre by highlighting the unique character that derives from its inherent element of play and finally to trace the impact of Surrealist theatre in areas far beyond its generally acknowledged influence on the Theatre of the Absurd an impact being felt even on the contemporary world stage Beginning with the Surrealists one into another game and its illustration of Breton's ludic dramatic theory Rapti then examines the traces of this kind of game in the works of a wide variety of Surrealist and Post Surrealist playwrights and stage directors from several different countries and from the 1920s to the present Roger Vitrac Antonin Artaud G nter Berghaus Nanos Valaoritis Robert Wilson and Megan Terry Surrealism and Photography in 1930s Japan Jelena Stojkovic, 2020-05-31 Despite the censorship of dissident material during the decade between the Manchurian Incident of 1931 and the outbreak of the Pacific War in 1941 a number of photographers across Japan produced a versatile body of Surrealist work In a pioneering study of their practice Jelena Stojkovic draws on primary sources and extensive archival research and maps out art historical and critical contexts relevant to the apprehension of this rich photographic output most of which is previously unseen outside of its country of origin The volume is an essential resource in the fields of Surrealism and Japanese history of art for researchers and students of historical avant gardes and photography as well as for readers interested in visual culture Surrealism and the Gothic Neil Matheson, 2017-08-07 Surrealism and the Gothic is the first book length analysis of the role played by the gothic in both the initial emergence of surrealism and at key moments in its subsequent development as an art and literary movement The book argues the strong and sustained influence not only of the classic gothic novel itself Ann Radcliffe Charles Maturin Matthew Lewis etc but also the determinative impact of closely related phenomena as with the influence of mediumism alchemy and magic The book also traces the later development of the gothic novel as with Bram Stoker's Dracula and its mutation into such works of popular fiction as the Fant mas series of Marcel Allain and Pierre Souvestre enthusiastically taken up by writers such as Apollinaire and subsequently feeding into the development of surrealism More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity incarceration and the accursed outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of Andr Breton Artaud Sade Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte Surrealism, Politics and Culture Raymond Spiteri, Donald Lacoss, 2020-03-18 This title was first published in 2003 Drawing on literary art historical and historical studies this essay collection explores the complex encounter between culture and politics within Surrealism The Surrealist movement was one of the first cultural movements to question explicitly the relation between culture and politics and its attempt to fuse social and cultural revolution has been a critical factor in shaping our sense of modernity This anthology addresses not only the contested ground between culture and politics within Surrealism itself and within the subsequent historical accounts of the movement but also the broader implications of this encounter on our own sense of modernity Its goal is to delineate the role of radical politics in shaping the historical trajectory of Surrealism Paul Celan's Encounters with Surrealism Charlotte Ryland, 2017-12-02 Paul Celan 1920 1970 one of the most important and challenging poets in post war Europe was also a prolific and highly idiosyncratic translator His post Holocaust writing is inextricably linked to the specific experiences that have shaped contemporary European and American identity and at the same time has its roots in literary philosophical and scientific traditions that range across continents and centuries surrealism being a key example Celan's early works emerge from a fruitful period for surrealism and they bear the marks of that style not least because of the deep affinity he felt with the need to extend the boundaries of expression In this comparative and intertextual study Charlotte Ryland shows that this interaction continued throughout Celan's lifetime largely through translation of French surrealist poems and that Celan's great oeuvre can thus be understood fully only in the light of its interaction with surrealist texts and artworks which finally gives rise to a wholly new poetics of translation Charlotte Ryland is Lecturer in German at St Hughs College and The Queens College Oxford Robert Motherwell, Abstraction, and Philosophy Robert Hobbs, 2020-06-07 Employing an interdisciplinary approach this book breaks new ground by considering how Robert Motherwell's abstract expressionist art is indebted to Alfred North Whitehead's highly original process metaphysics Motherwell first encountered Whitehead and his work as a philosophy graduate student at Harvard University and he continued to espouse Whitehead's processist theories as germane to his art throughout his life This book examines how Whitehead's process philosophy inspired by quantum theory and focusing on the ongoing ingenuity of dynamic forces of energy rather than traditional views of inert substances set the stage for Motherwell's future art This book will be of interest to scholars in twentieth century modern art philosophy of art and aesthetics and art history A Companion to British Art David Peters Corbett, 2016-02-16 This companion is a collection of newly commissioned essays written by leading scholars in the field providing a comprehensive introduction to British art history A generously illustrated collection of newly commissioned essays which provides a comprehensive introduction to the history of British art Combines original research with a survey of existing scholarship and the state of the field Touches on the whole of the history of British art from 800 2000 with increasing attention paid to the periods after 1500 Provides the first comprehensive introduction to British art of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries one of the most lively and innovative areas of art historical study Presents in depth the major preoccupations that have emerged from recent scholarship including aesthetics gender British art s relationship to Modernity nationhood and nationality and the institutions of the British art world The Culture of Fragments Clara Orban,2023-11-20 Works of art such as paintings with words on them or poems shaped as images communicate to the viewer by means of more than one medium Here is presented a particular group of hybrid art works from the early twentieth century to discover in what way words and images can function together to create meaning The four central artists considered in this study investigate word image forms in their work F T Marinetti invented parole in libert among other ideas to free language from syntactic connections Umberto Boccioni experimented with newspaper clippings on the canvas from 1912 1915 and these collages constitute an important exploration into word image forms Andr Breton s collection of poems Clair de terre 1923 contains several typographical variations for iconographic effect Ren Magritte explored the relationship between words and images juxtaposing signifiers to contradictory signifieds on the canvas A final chapter introduces media other than poetry and painting on which words and images appear Posters the theater and the relatively new medium of cinema foreground words and images constantly This volume will be of interest to scholars of twentieth century French or Italian literature or painting and to scholars of word and image studies DADA, Surrealism, and the Cinematic Effect R. Bruce Elder,2015-10-15 This book deals with the early intellectual reception of the cinema and the manner in which art theorists philosophers cultural theorists and especially artists of the first decades of the twentieth century responded to its advent While the idea persists that early writers on film were troubled by the cinema s lowly form this work proposes that there was another largely unrecognized strain in the reception of it Far from anxious about film s provenance in popular entertainment some writers and artists proclaimed that the cinema was the most important art for the moderns as it exemplified the vibrancy of contemporary life This view of the cinema was especially common among those whose commitments were to advanced artistic practices Their notions about how to recast the art media or the forms forged from those media s materials and the urgency of doing so formed the principal part of the conceptual core of the artistic programs advanced by the vanguard art movements of the first half of the twentieth century This book a companion to the author s previous Harmony Dissent examines the Dada and Surrealist movements as responses to the advent of the cinema Women and Gothic Maria Purves,2014-03-17 This small collection of essays explores women s relationship with the gothic a relationship which has since its eighteenth century beginnings always been complex These essays demonstrate some of the scope and diversity of that relationship and much of its intensity the ingenuity and genius employed the anguish experienced and the risks taken in its evolution Genuinely representative of gothic s flexibility and presence in everything from novels to architecture from surrealist art to hypertext fiction this volume brings new primary sources and topics to the reader s attention and will be of interest to anyone who wants to expand and challenge their understanding of how and why women engage with the gothic A Companion to Dada and Surrealism David Hopkins,2022-01-06 This excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism blends expert synthesis of the latest scholarship with completely new research offering historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender This book provides an excellent overview of new research on Dada and Surrealism from some of the finest established and up and coming scholars in the field Offers historical coverage as well as in depth discussion of thematic areas ranging from criminality to gender One of the first studies to produce global coverage of the two movements it also includes a section dealing with the critical and cultural aftermath of Dada and Surrealism in the later twentieth century Dada and Surrealism are arguably the most popular areas of modern art both in the academic and public spheres Criminological the most influential figures of the historical avant garde contributing significantly to the development of both Dadaism and Surrealism Whilst his pioneering work in photography assured him international acclaim his activity in other areas notably film is to this day both unknown and undervalued During the 1920s Man Ray made four short experimental films and collaborated on a host of other projects with people such as Marcel Duchamp Fernand L ger Ren Clair and Hans Richter These works along with a series of cinematic essays and home movies made during the 1920s and 1930s represent the most important contribution to the development of an alternative mode of filmmaking in the early twentieth century This book explores Man Ray s cinematic interactions from the perspective of his interdisciplinary artistic sensibility creating links between film photography painting poetry music architecture dance and sculpture By exposing his preoccupation with form and his ambiguous relationship with the politics and aesthetics of the Dada and Surrealist movements the author paints an intimate and complex portrait of Man Ray the filmmaker Surrealism and Women Mary Ann Caws, Rudolf E. Kuenzli, Gwen Raaberg, 1991-03-13 These sixteen illustrated essays present an important revision of surrealism by focusing on the works of women surrealists and their strategies to assert positions as creative subjects within a movement that regarded woman primarily as an object of masculine desire or fear While the male surrealists attacked aspects of the bourgeois order they reinforced the traditional patriarchal image of woman Their emphasis on dreams automatic writing and the unconscious reveal some of the least inhibited masculine fantasies The first resistance to the male surrealists projection of the female figure arose in the writings and paintings of marginalized woman artists and writers associated with Surrealism The essays in this collection explore the complexity of these women s works which simultaneously employ and subvert the dominant discourse of male surrealists Essays What Do Little Girls Dream Of The Insurgent Writing of Gis le Prassinis Finding What You Are Not Looking For From D jeuner en fourrure to Caroline Meret Oppenheim s Chronicle of Surrealism Speaking with Forked Tongues Male Discourse in Female Surrealism Androgyny Interview with Meret Oppenheim The Body Subversive Corporeal Imagery in Carrington Prassinis and Mansour Identity Crises Joyce Mansour s Narratives Joyce Mansour and Egyptian Mythology In the Interim The Constructivist Surrealism of Kay Sage The Flight from Passion in Leonora Carrington s Literary Work Beauty and Is the Beast Animal Symbology in the Work of Leonora Carrington Remedio Varo and Leonor Fini Valentine Andr Paul et les autres or the Surrealization of Valentine Hugo Refashioning the World to the Image of Female Desire The Collages of Aube Ell ou t Eileen Agar Statement by Dorothea Tanning The Surrealist Connection David Zinder,1976 "Appropriated Photographs in French Surrealist Periodicals, 1924-1939 " Linda Steer,2017-07-05 The first monograph to analyze the Surrealist gesture of photographic appropriation this study examines found photographs in three French Surrealist reviews published in the 1920s and 1930s La R lution surr iste edited by Andr reton Documents edited by Georges Bataille and Minotaure edited by Breton and others The book asks general questions about the production and deployment of meaning through photographs but addresses more specifically the construction of a Surrealist practice of photography through the gesture of borrowing and re contextualization and reveals something crucial both about Surrealist strategies and about the way photographs operate The book is structured around four case studies including scientific photographs of an hysteric in Charcot s clinic at the Salp i hospital positioned as poetry rather than pathology and one of the first crime scene photographs depicting Jack the Ripper s last victim radically transformed into a work of art Linda Steer traces the trajectory of the found photographs from their first location to their location in a Surrealist periodical Her study shows that the act of removal and re framing highlights the instability and mutability of photographic meaning an instability and mutability that has consequences for our understanding both of photography and of Surrealism in the 1920s and 1930s
